To East High School . . .

THE RETURN TO SCHOOL is the initial rush through East's wide, friendly doors. It is the long-awaited renewing of old acquaintances and anticipation of making new friends.

A vigorous cheer for victory by an enthusiastic crowd announces FOOTBALL. The crispness of fall, the pep and energy of the cheerleaders, the maze of eager faces that fills the stadium, and most important, the spirit of a loyal student body and fighting team are all a vital part of this colorful season.

Through the efforts of a hard-working staff gathering news and writing features and editorials, THE ECHO is produced. Gossip, current happenings, and sports reviews are distributed every other Thursday.

The bewilderment of the Rushee in the agonizing wait for word of acceptance and the rush parties, potlucks, and formal teas that form a whirl of activities—this is RUSH WEEK.

A stimulating parade filled with gaily decorated floats and happy people introduces HOMECOMING. It is the usual brilliance of a football game added to by the crowning of the queen at half time and the announcement of the winning float.

Dear Bill
C heerful songs, gay line dances, and comic pantomimes—a variety of talent is revealed in the yearly production of THE OUTBURST, a show accomplished through the combined efforts of the students and faculty. Well, we were just about seniors. This year has really been swell. Lots of luck and I hope I see you again next year.
Your friend
Don Williams

F irst semester ends with the trying mid-term exams and tedious program changes. After a pause for THE INTERSOCIETY DANCE, we are hurled into the activities of the second half.

T he shiny gloss of the polished court, the tense yells of an exuberant crowd, the hush as the ball arches toward the hoop—BASKETBALL, a time of high hopes to be shattered or rewarded.

T he Grand March is a fitting opening for the R.O.T.C. Ball; the fun of choosing a queen combined with the Officers' Banquet—all this climaxed by the battalion as they march past the reviewing stand.

Dear Bill,
 It has been swell seeing you. Best of luck always to a swell guy.

DEDICATION

To Homecoming, Symbolic

To the many established traditions that are now a familiar and accepted part of East.

To Mr. Nowlin, our first principal, for his capable assistance in establishing the foundation of our oldest and most closely followed traditions.

To Mr. Williams, our present principal, for his readiness to cooperate and to support any worthwhile advancement.

To Mr. Prewitt, our Eastonian sponsor, for his willingness to begin "firsts" for the school and staff.

To Homecoming, initiated this year through the efforts of the Eastonian staff as an example of continuance of traditions.

of Progress in Traditions

The 1955 Eastonian takes its place among the traditionally fine East-onians of the past.

Accompanying the change of season is the variety of sports events around which "school spirit" is centered. The fall season, crisp air rousing enthusiasm, cheering, and a large crowd are what is included in thoughts of sports. Football and track, receiving advantage of a new stadium, are attended by many fans in Nowlin Field. Basketball draws even greater crowds than ever as our championship teams continue winning.

Our championship basketball team in action.

Continually Building

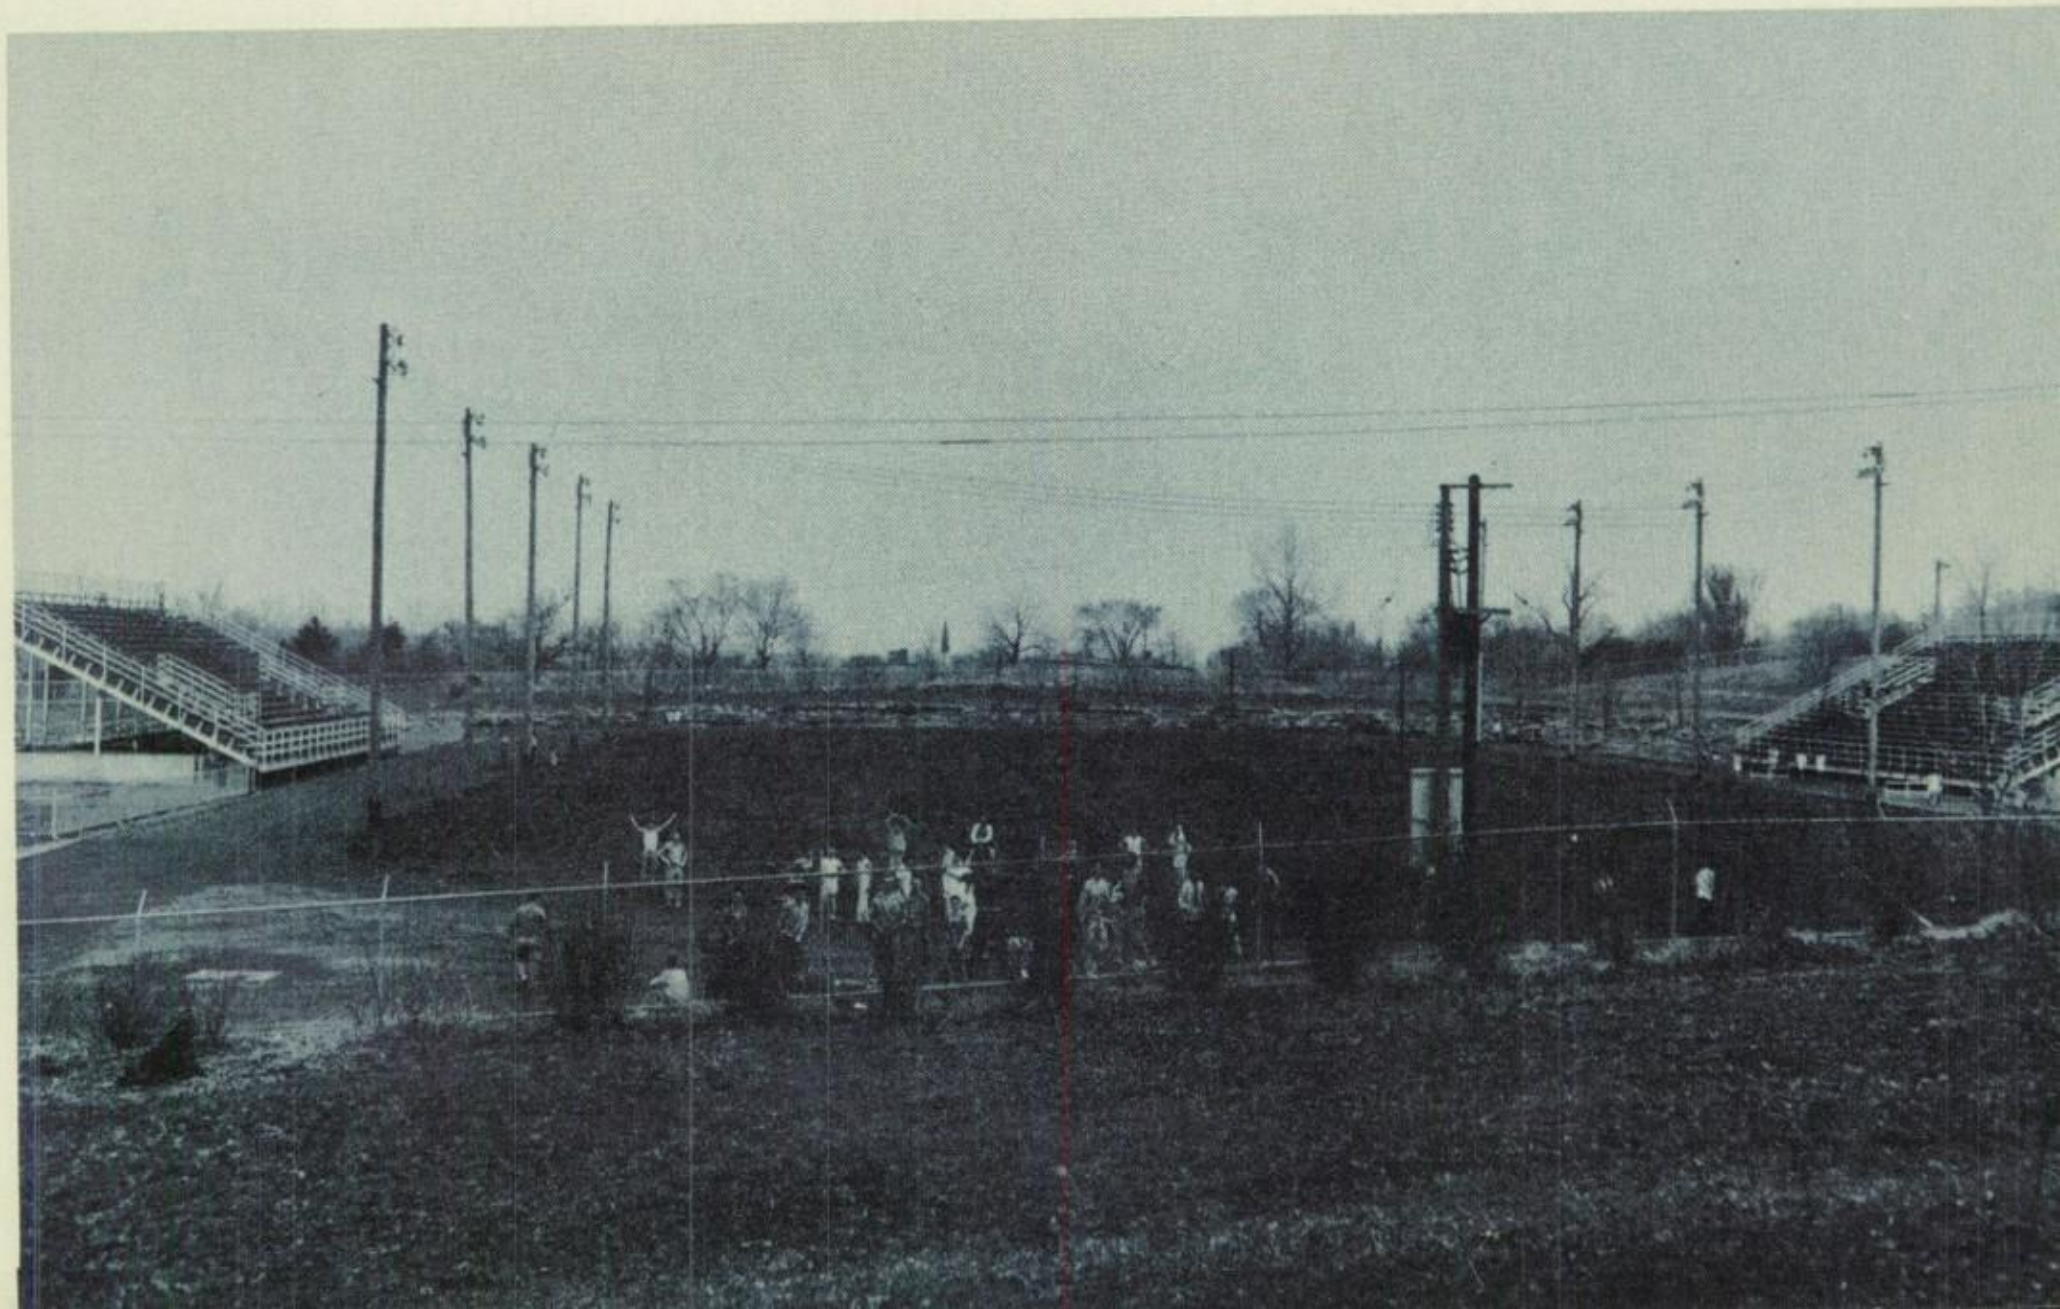

Strains of music from the marching band awaken spirit.

Sportsmanship and Spirit

Ending an assembly with the school song.

Presenting Well-Known Scenes

Familiar to everyone is the auditorium filled with an eager student body enjoying a variety of presentations. Whether it is the gaiety and color of the Outburst, the tense night of the Literary Contest, or the dignity and grace of the Christmas and Easter Assemblies that capture the scene, the auditorium serves as an outlet for the talent of East.

Spacious new gym provides more room for exercising.

Contrasted by Additions

Viewing construction of the long-awaited girls' gym.

After much awaiting, the well-deserving girls have finally been rewarded. Along with being beautifully constructed, the much desired girls' gym proved to have adequate facilities for the promotion of girl sports. Through the advantages afforded by these facilities, increased participation was noted in all Intramurals and sports-day activities. After many years of wishing, we now have the addition of a new swimming pool for both girls and boys. Constructed along with the north wing, the gym already has been established as a familiar section of East, appreciated and used to the fullest extent.

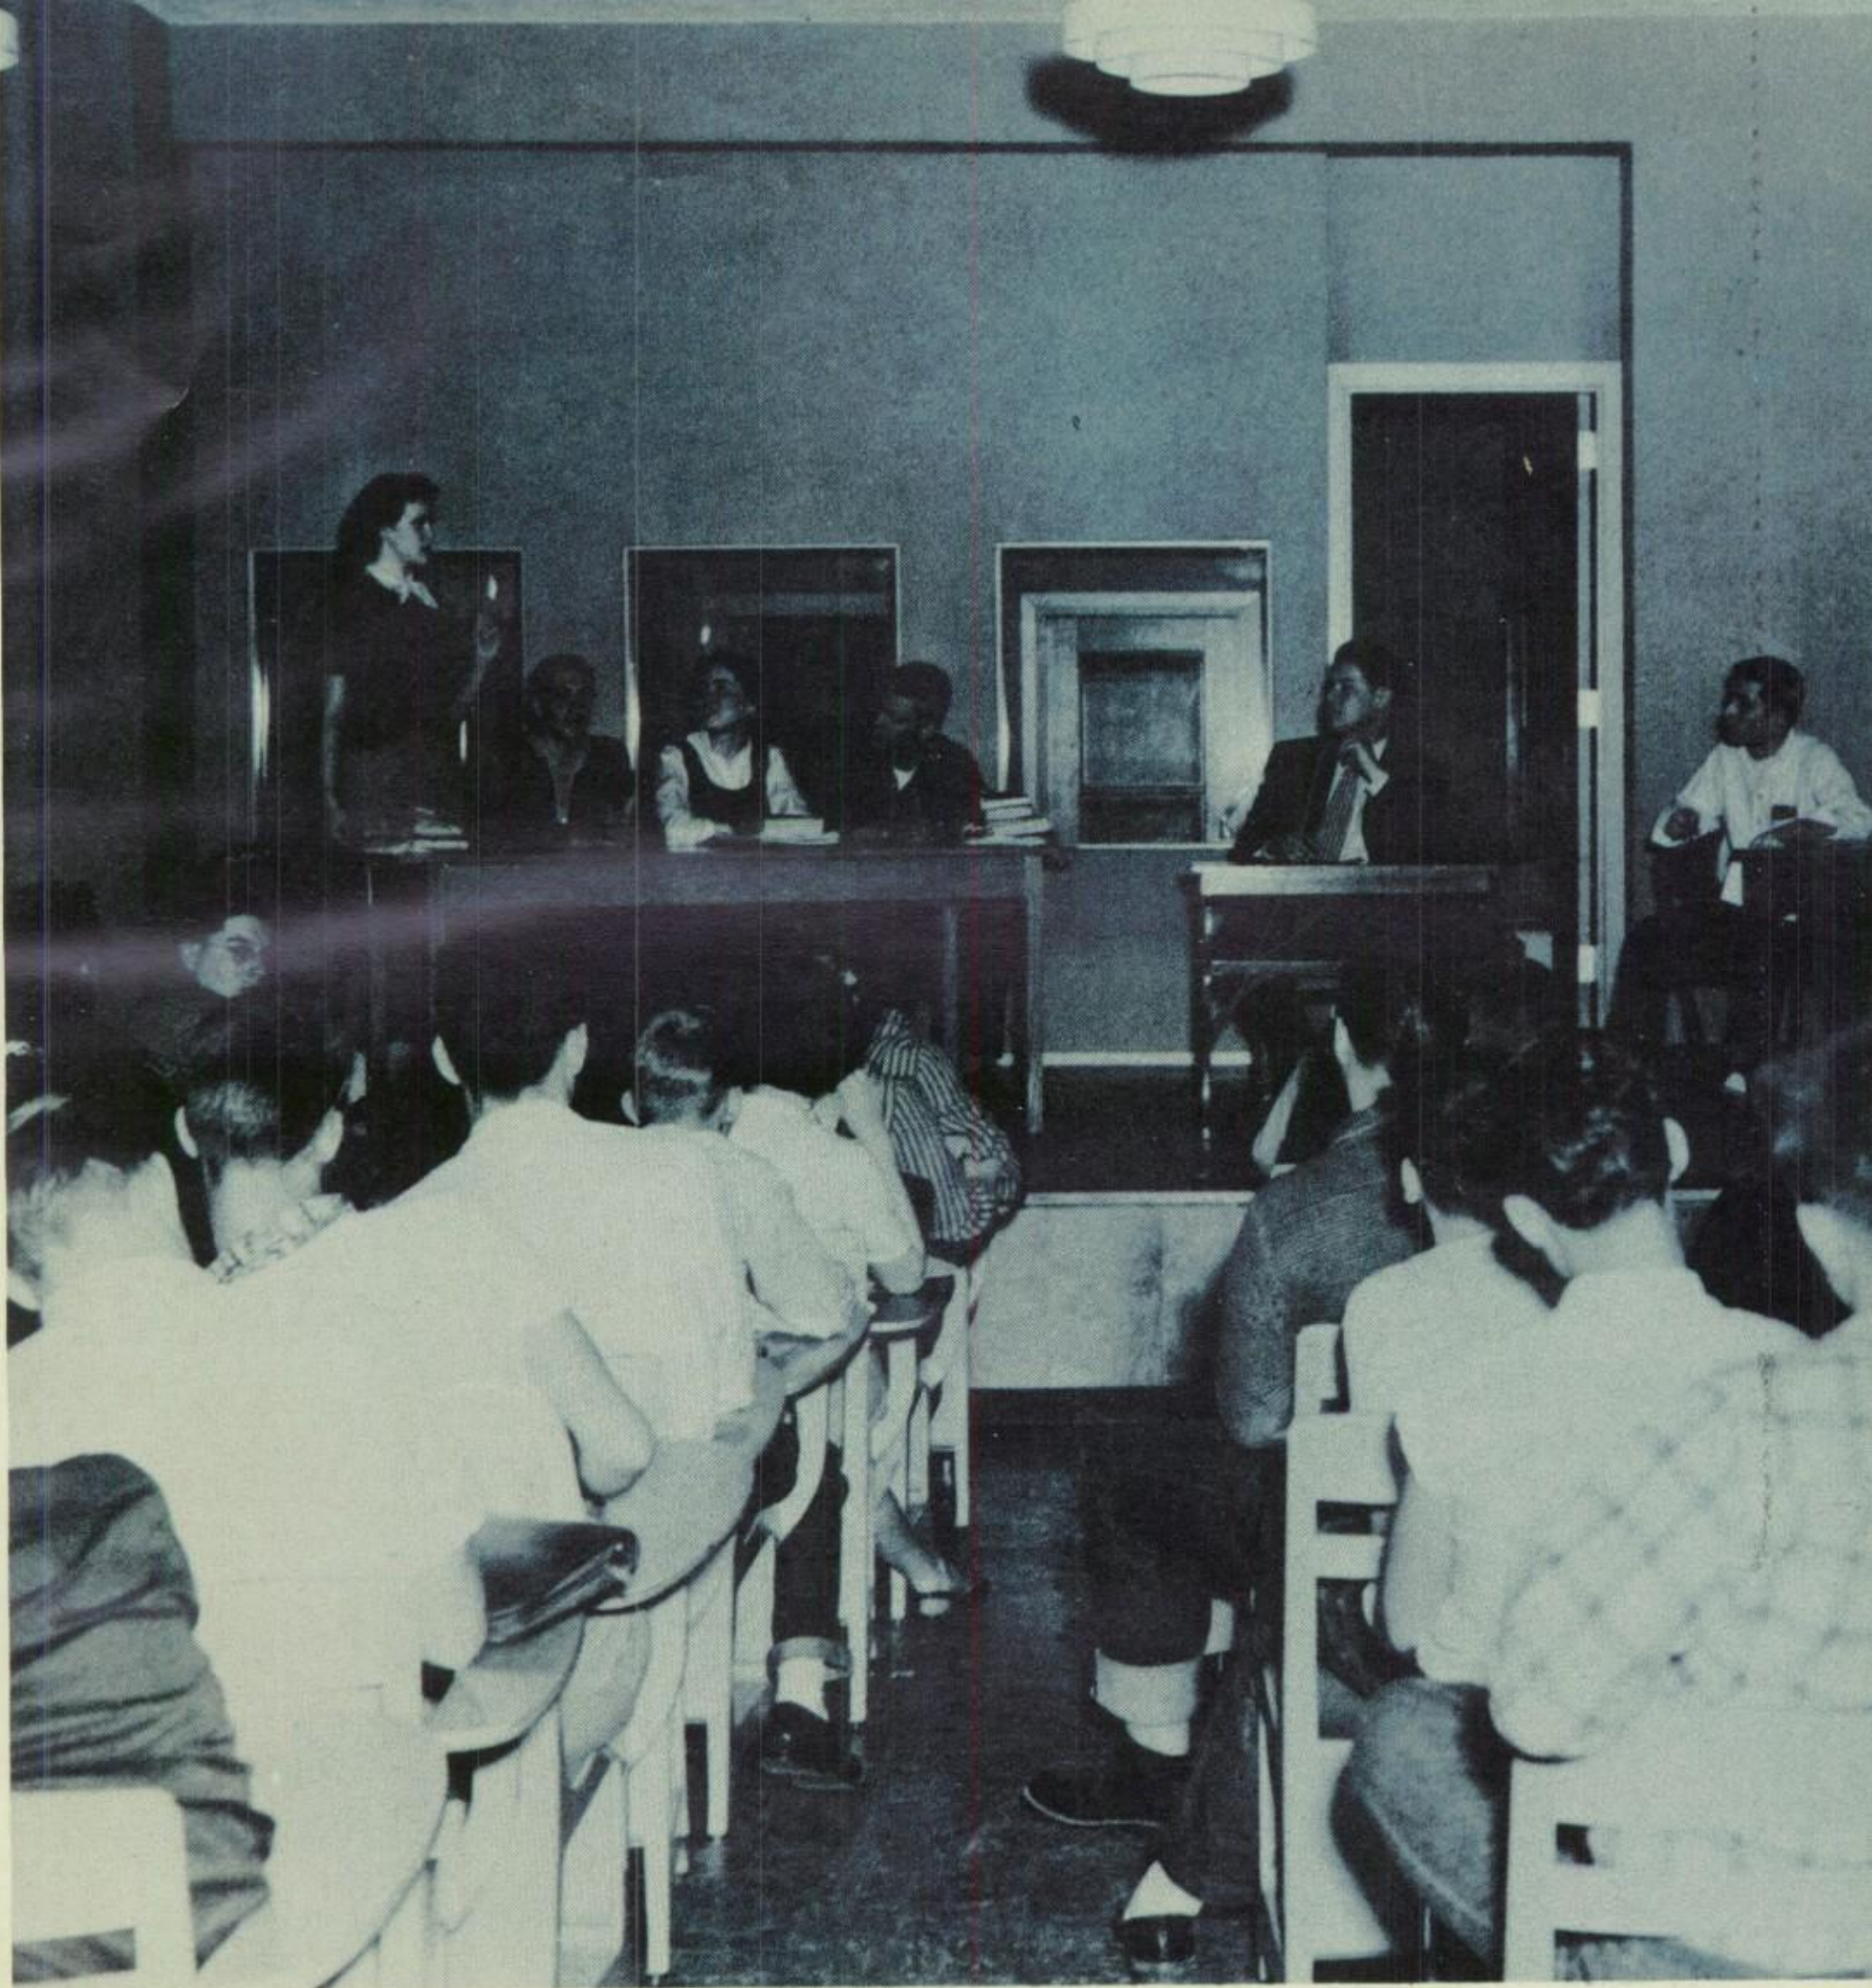

Furthering Talent Development

An opportunity for character development and learning cooperation is afforded students through our yearly presentation of the Spring Play. In an attempt to entertain, the Drama students can develop personality, dependability, punctuality, and originality. The show is carried on through teamwork and willing acceptance of responsibilities.

Assisting the students in their dramatic efforts is the recent addition of the Little Theatre. This well-equipped workshop, attractive as well as useful, serves as a convenient home station around which many activities are centered, such as informal debates and discussions, practice for plays, and a meeting place for the Drama Class.

Mounting enthusiasm surrounding annual Spring Play.

Debating Universal Military Training in Little Theatre.

Aided by New Facilities

The final decision for Lit Contest Winners.

Ever Inspiring and Encouraging

Efforts of the entire intersociety year are brought to a climax the night of the annual Literary Contest, as final decisions are made. Anticipation of this event increases as the all-important night draws near.

Contestants, as well as club members, are intent upon taking the highest possible honors. Adding to the actual competition is the initial appearance of the traditional new jackets and the clever round of songs before the oral events. This event, holding greatest interest for students and members, will always claim a place of its own in their memories.

The Best Efforts of Students

Spirit, gaiety, pep; these are added by a band. Blaring trumpets, shrilling flutes, and pounding drums inspire a rhythm which can be found in no other way. Bright uniforms, smooth marching performance, and pleasant melodies present a professional appearance. Through the year the band guards the spirit of our school.

Furnishing a room for the instrumental departments allows a good opportunity for expression of musical talents. With facilities provided that give space for music, instruments, and uniforms, a desire to do the best is established. Music is loved by all; and through the promotion of it, all benefit, especially those who actively participate in its presentation.

Addition of new Instrumental Room.

THINK

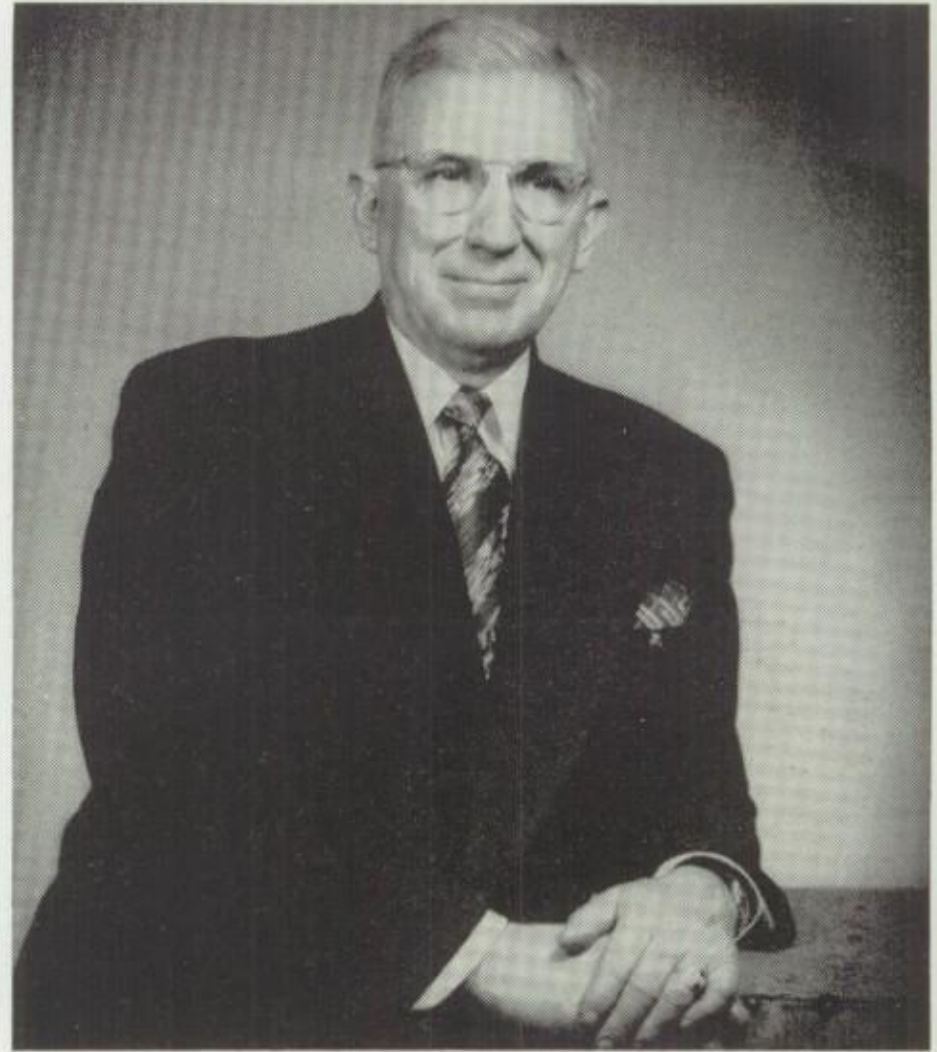

Mr. Williams = Principal

Our congenial principal, Mr. C. O. Williams, has a well-established foundation which enables him to carry out his many responsibilities at East.

He graduated from the high school in Sweet Springs, Warrensburg State College, and attained his Master's degree at Missouri University. Post-graduate work was done by Mr. Williams at Kansas, Columbia, Chicago, and New York Universities.

Equally familiar to faculty and students are Mr. Williams' cordial greeting and friendly smile. His co-operation and attitude rightfully impress every student.

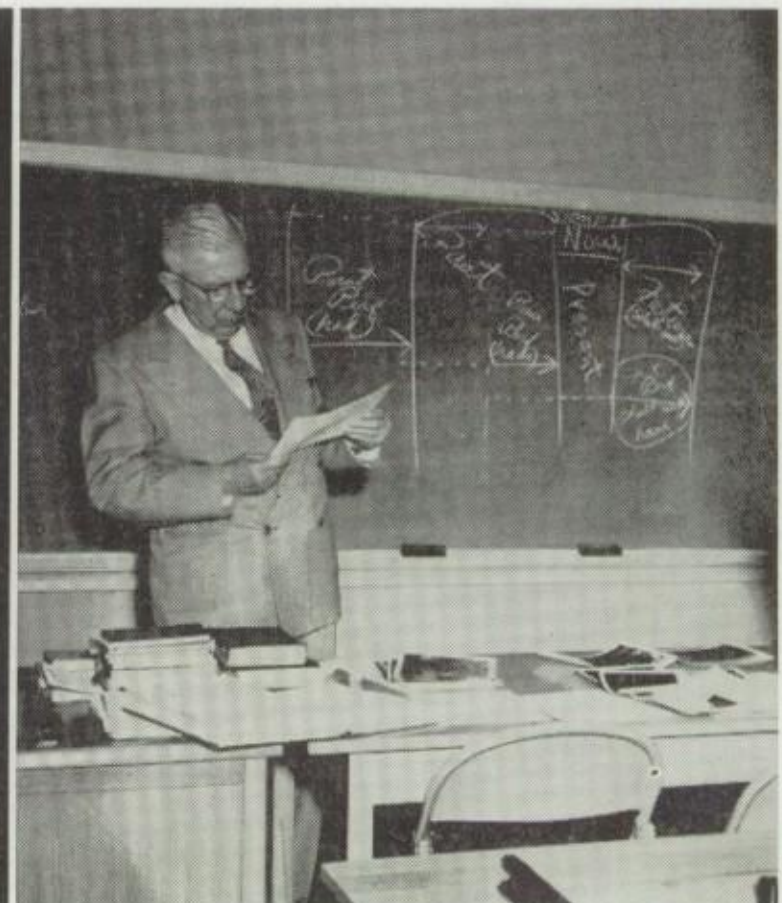

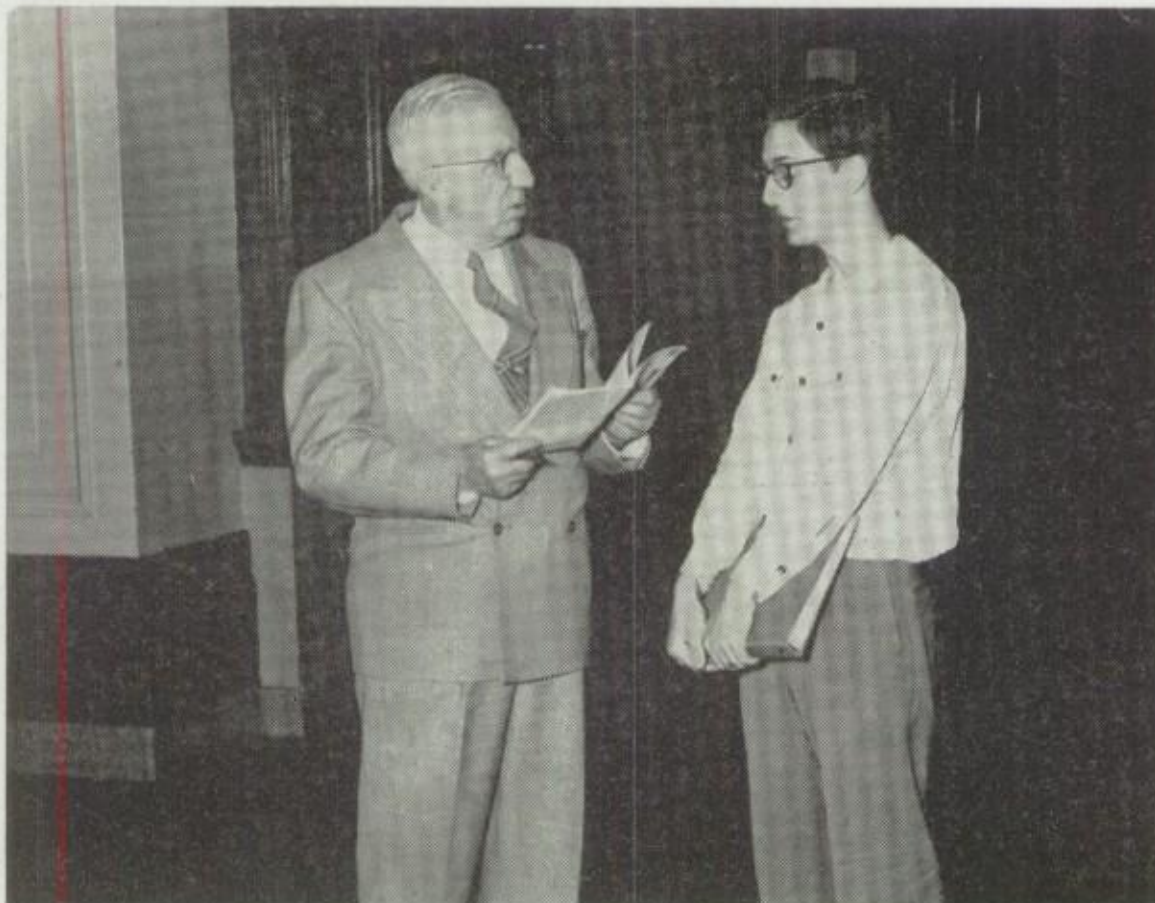

His activities for the benefit of young people continue away from East through the teaching of a Sunday School class and lectures. These prove his interest and devotion to the furtherance of education.

Eager to Help and Encourage Students

EVEN HALLWAYS CAN BECOME COUNSELING ROOMS as Mr. Williams is always ready to give advice. Life after graduation may be made easier for this senior, Joe Gregg, because of the friendly aid of our principal.

MR. WILLIAMS TOOK DAILY VISITS through the classrooms to become more acquainted with students and faculty. At the time this snapshot was taken, he was looking over an English paper.

Vice Principal

"Pass the plates down," is a favorite saying of our new Vice-Principal, Donald S. Stephens.

While attending Central High School, from which he graduated, he was a student of Mr. Williams. Mr. Stephens studied at Junior College and the University of Minnesota.

In the fall of 1934 he began teaching at Paseo and taught until he went into the service in December, 1940. After returning to Paseo in 1947, he taught math and music until he came to East.

During what little leisure time he has, he works on carpentry and his garden. He is a member of the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America).

The two things that impressed him most when he came to East were the school spirit and the attitude of the students.

A Year's Work Well Done

Counselor

"The things that impress me most at East are the friendliness and co-operative spirit of the students and faculty." These are the words of our counselor, Miss Anna C. Stewart, who has been sponsoring the Student Council, and enrolling East High students for nine years. A few of her many other duties are to help students find the right vocations and to provide information on practically all colleges in the country.

Miss Stewart is a graduate of Redemptorist High School. The first college she attended was St. Teresa in Kansas City, Missouri. Among the many other colleges she has attended is Northwestern, located in Illinois; here she received her Master's Degree. Of her many hobbies she places traveling at the top of her list with her newly learned skill of photography next in line.

Miss Stewart has always been an asset to our school and the students who attend.

Faculty Their Working Together

ENROLLMENT TOOK MUCH OF THE TIME of our new Vice-Principal, Mr. Stephens, during the past year. He also helped solve many of the seniors' problems about graduation.

COUNSELING CARDS WERE CHECKED by our counselor, Miss Stewart, to see if the required subjects were being taken by the students and if they had enough credits to graduate.

HEAD OF MOST CONFERENCES, Mr. Williams, working with his fellow students and faculty members, represented outstanding work the past year.

ONE OF THE MANY CONFERENCES the head executives had during the school year helped to get the viewpoints of all, while working for the betterment of the school.

Proved Indispensable

THROUGH THE YEAR the faculty and parents gathered several times for Potlucks. Programs were given with both students and outside guests participating.

Office Staff

Working to the Beck and Call

Working to the beckoning call of the seventy-five members of the faculty, one thousand eighty students, and the librarians, were our very dependable office workers. Taking care of attendance was Mrs. Eubank; registrar, Mrs. Jackson; and general secretary, Mrs. Harris. This was the first year any of these ladies had been at East.

The office workers were responsible for records, absences, tardies, lost and found department, and even loaned lunch money to forgetful students. Ringing the bells to dismiss the classes, typing bulletins, and taking care of the mail were duties which helped our school run more smoothly. Even with the responsibilities of all these duties they still found time to be cheerful and interested in both the students and their activities.

CALLING TO SEE why a student wasn't at school, and getting the bulletins out were just a few of the jobs of our two office workers.

STRIVING TO PLEASE, the office staff worked hand in hand with everyone at East the past year to keep our school running smooth.

FILING MAGAZINES and periodicals was the job of Joe Gregg, Adult Page.

DURING THE PAST YEAR, as always, the telephone has kept Miss Bower, head librarian, constantly busy.

SEVEN DAY BOOKS, a week-long job, were kept in order by Marvin Ranabargar, Adult Page.

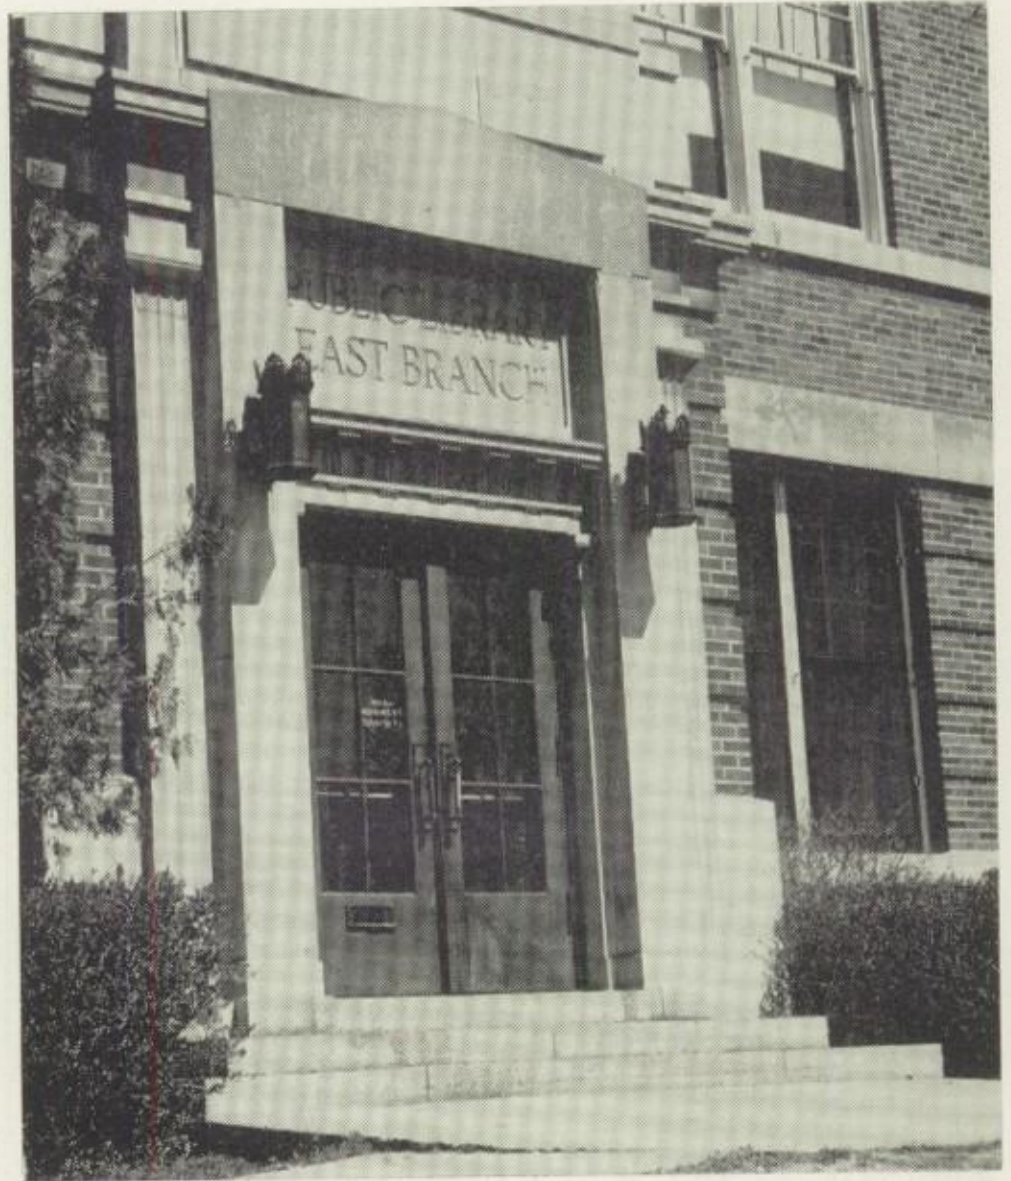

Nearly every hour of the day, students can be seen entering the East Branch Library. Perhaps they are looking up references, finishing homework, or just getting a book for pleasure reading. Whatever the reason, they can be certain that they will be given friendly, rewarding aid from one of the well-trained librarians.

Our library is a virtual storehouse of literature. There one may find texts, encyclopedias, novels, and even files of clippings. Newspapers and other periodicals are also on hand.

One educational innovation that both the public and students have enjoyed this year was the library's series of films. Every Thursday evening the magic of movies both thrilled and instructed.

The library was built for everyone's use and enjoyment. As the years increase, so do the library's services.

FAMILIAR library entrance.

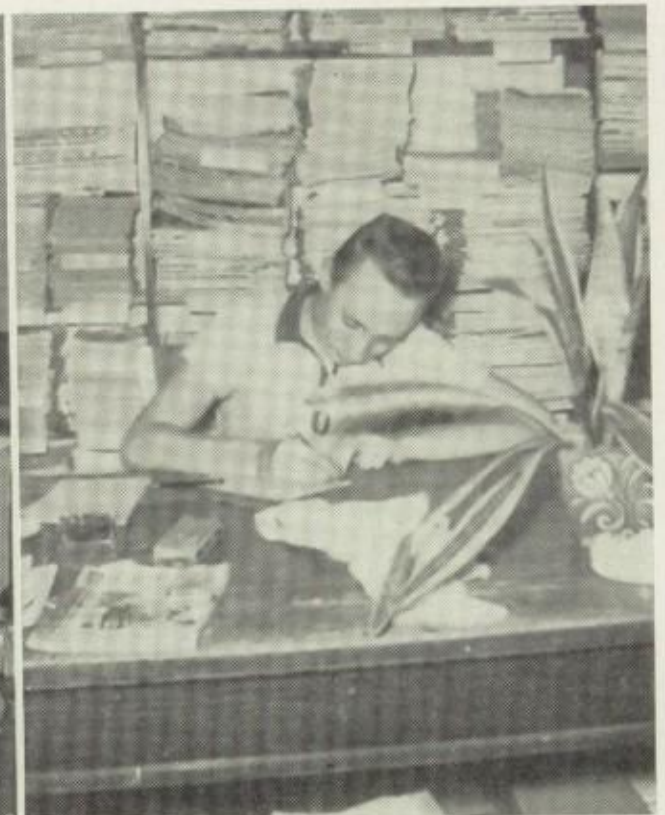

WHEN CHRISTMAS CAME to the library, Charles Bateman, Juvenile Page, helped to decorate the tree.

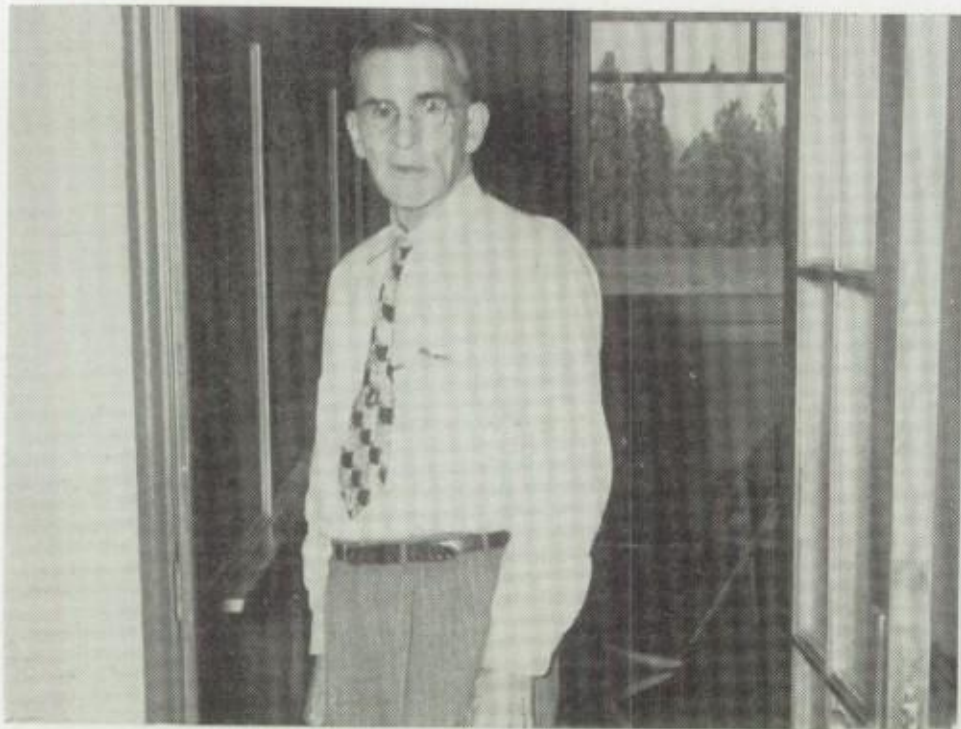

THE LIBRARY YEAR was a busy one, but not too hectic for a friendly smile from Miss Lorraine Crouse.

LETTERING had to be carefully done, but it was just one of the many jobs of Dick Pritchett, Juvenile Page.

IS THIS ROOM CLEAN? Chances are it was, because it had to pass the careful inspection of Mr. Jess DeMoss, head custodian, as he made his rounds.

NO PERFORMANCE TONIGHT, but Bill Dickson, our friendly custodian, kept on working to make our auditorium shine.

Custodians

Keeping Our Building Spick-and-Span

What a marvelous spick-and-span shine the halls, corridors, and floors had this year from the crew called custodians!

Under the fine supervision of Mr. Jess DeMoss, engineer custodian, both the old and new sections of the building were kept shining.

Keeping busy cleaning trash from the floors, sweeping up old torn-up love notes, and always giving everyone a friendly "Hello" or a hearty "Hi" were Bill Dickson, Ezra Ellis, Max Clandar, Major Hubbard, Edgar Kenny, Ralph Hodgett, Ernest Stewart, and Eldon Lowderman, assistants to Mr. DeMoss.

Starting the cold days off right with heat, Mr. J. L. Butler, fireman, proceeded to regulate a warm temperature throughout the entire building. The duties of Mr. Luther B. Cook, elevator operator, summed up a year of wonderful co-operation from the custodian staff.

A FRIENDLY CHAT HELPS ANY DAY ALONG. Here are Mrs. Grey, matron, and Mr. Ellis, custodian, who took advantage of a spare moment.

THE GIANT MACHINERY all but dwarfed Mr. Butler, yet he controlled it all with a touch of his hand.

BUSY KEEPING EVERYTHING CLEAN AND READY for the next group, our cafeteria ladies were kept busy most of the day.

Hats Off to the Cafeteria Staff

Delightful smells entered the halls of East High as the ladies of the cafeteria demonstrated their ability under the supervision of Miss Alice Chase.

Whether your order was large or small, the pleasantness of the women was determined by a gratifying smile and a friendly "thank you." In the morning the food was prepared for all the hungry students, and by third hour the delights were accomplished as eyes stared at the luscious food.

The ladies on the floor cleared and cleaned the tables for the next group of students to fulfill the routine of getting enough food for the balance of the day's work.

After the rush of all the lunch hours, the ladies sat down and ate their well-deserved dinner. This grand group of ladies deserves the appreciation of everyone for a successful year of good food and cooking ability. Our hats go off to the cafeteria staff.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE BY MR. STEPHENS in the cafeteria enabled the students to have a longer time to enjoy lunch.

FOR THE ENJOYMENT of the students and faculty, the cafeteria workers put up a Christmas tree.

Lots of Luck & Happiness to a swell Kid - we have had our ups & downs but I love you. P. Hill

A GOOD MEAL and time was had by all at the potlucks held in the cafeteria by the P.-T. A. This brought closer relationship between the parents and faculty.

Sponsoring activities for both parents and students, they had potlucks, open House, Fairyland picnic, and teentown. On Founder's Day, the P.-T. A.

gathered together to honor the old officers and members. This meeting was held to bind together the parents and faculty with the old members.

THE PAST PRESIDENTS who gathered for a meeting were: Mrs. W. M. Elting, Mrs. J. Folsom, Mrs. R. Coonrod, Mrs. G. Parks, Mrs. R. H. Candler, and Mrs. M. B. Hansell.

FOUNDER'S DAY TEA, held annually in honor of the founding of the P.-T. A., was one of the highlights of the past year.

Senior Officers

Student Officials Performed Duties Well

The Senior Class Officers were elected in December. Sitting in at the meetings to see that everything went smoothly were Mr. Stephens and Miss Baker. All the officers were kept especially busy planning the prom. Some of the questions arising were: Where the prom should be held? When would be the best date? What band to get? Decorations? Their final decision on this important event was that the prom be held at the Muehlebach Hotel on May 28th.

Some of the other projects included planning for the Senior Assembly and Graduation.

The Senior gift to the school was money to be applied on the new Public Address System which was purchased last fall.

The climax of the year was the president's address to the class and the giftorian's presentation of the class gift.

WORKING HARD? Many ideas were exchanged as the senior executives held another meeting in Mr. Stephens' office.

TIME OUT! These senior officers have shown that holding an official position is not all hard work.

Upper Quartile

These Seniors Were Tops in Scholastic Ability

The Upper Quartile consisted of the upper twenty-five per cent of the Senior Class. Out of these sixty-two students, forty were selected to be members of the National Honor Society. Four years of hard study was shown by becoming a part of the Upper Quartile. This exemplified persistence and a determination to succeed in scholarly attributes.

Dear Bill,

We've gone through grade school together and now we're just about out of High School. I really have had lots of fun knowing you and I'm sure that you'll go far in the future.

Yours always

Junior Officers

Capable Leaders Picked by Junior Class

In October, 1954, the juniors had their first thrill as upper classmen—they elected their class officers. One morning the entire class assembled in the auditorium, nominations were given, and the election was on its way. First, the nominees were voted on to cut the number down to three for each office. Then, later on, mimeographed sheets with the candidates' names on them were passed out to the members of the junior class. They voted, and the election returns came in—"Jerry Brown elected president!"

Past officers of the junior class were competent, friendly people, and this year's officers carried on that fine tradition. The juniors were wise in their choices, and as a result, they had strong, capable leadership all year.

Dear Bill,

We've gone through grade school together and now we're just about out of High school. I really have had lots of fun knowing you and I'm sure that you'll go far in the future.

PILES AND PILES OF WOOD were heaped in front of the metal skeletons of the bleachers as the stadium was erected.

THE EAST CHEERING SECTION was thrilled at the first use of the close-to-home stadium.

Stadium

Nowlin Field Erected for East Side Use

For 34 years the students and people of the East Side have had a vision of some day only having to go a few blocks to a football stadium of their own instead of to the out-of-the-way Municipal Stadium. This year the vision became a reality.

After selecting the ground plot, the next part of erecting the stadium was left to the Largen Construction Company. The cost of the stadium was estimated by the construction company to be somewhere near a total of $58,700.

Two other sites were also chosen for new fields. These were at Southeast and Lincoln High Schools.

Cement trucks came pouring in with 57 cubic yards of cement, which was the beginning of the stadium. 28,000 pounds of metal beams, 30,000 board feet of wood, and 16,000 cadmium-plated bolts compiled a few of the raw materials. The finished product was our first stadium at East, of which we are justly proud.

Recindering the track, landscaping the straight-away and curve, adjusting the lighting fixtures, and raising the fencing gave the finishing touches to Nowlin Field. Through the future years this stadium will be considered as one of East's greatest additions.

A VIEW OF THE STADIUM from the south as construction on the east stands reached its peak.

THE FINISHED STADIUM shone in its aluminum coat in the darkness of the school's shadow.

MR. L. CLAYTON DICKSON obtained the job of stadium manager for East's new stadium. He, along with other faculty members, was responsible for the very sportsmanlike conduct in the stands.

Best Season for Squad in History of School

Under the tutelage of Coaches Roy Brown and Virland Harris, the East Bears ran roughshod over eight opponents as they compiled the best football record in the history of the school. It was a triumphal season as they rolled to six victories, two ties and the first undisputed football championship since 1930.

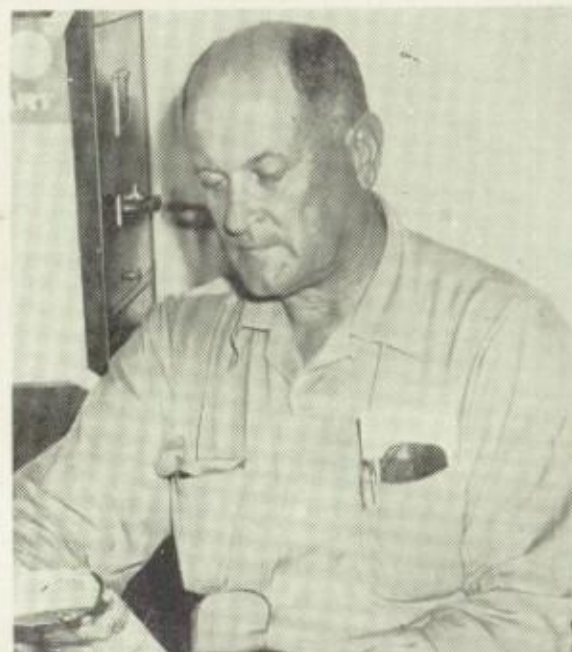

It was a powerful offensive unit that took the field for East this year with their vaunted variation of the split-T formation. They played a fast, hard-charging brand of football, which netted East a total of 32 touchdowns over the eight-game schedule.

The Green and Black not only had some outstanding individual performers, but also had the best balanced team in the league. The Bruin forward wall was unequaled in its performance, and the backfield was by far the best unit of its kind in the city.

The Bears were led by southpaw quarterback Jerry Fair who was the league scoring leader with 48 points, 24 of which climaxed the championship game with Westport. The rest of the talented backfield was composed of Harl Hanson, John Tassi, and J. T. Little, who made the league all-star team.

East's version of the "Seven Mules" was highlighted by the performance of Leland Wagner and Jack Miller, both of whom made the all-district first team.

A HUNGRY BUNCH OF FOOTBALL PLAYERS anxiously waited as Coach Harris carved the turkey at the football banquet.

THE TWO CO-CAPTAINS of the football team, Elton Villines and J. T. Little, held a football, presented and autographed by the squad, that was placed in the trophy case.

DETERMINED William Chrisman tackler trips up Jack Dunn's (26) quest for pay dirt.

J. T. LITTLE (25) faked out the defenders and received a toss from Jerry Fair in the wide open spaces.

MANY WORDS TO THE WISE were given to the team during the halftime of the Chrisman game by Coach Roy F. Brown.

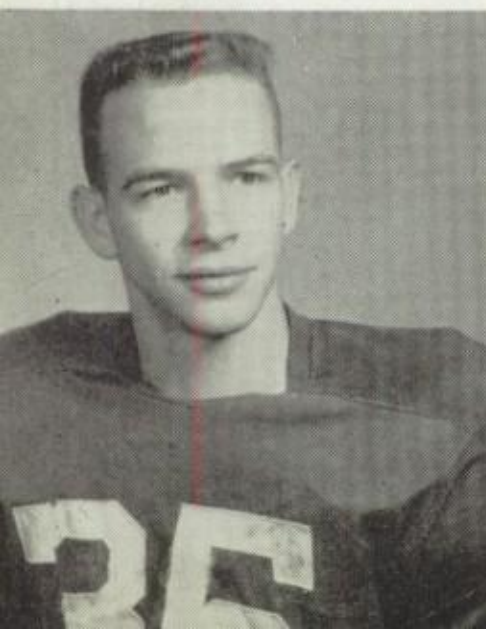

Chrisman Mauled 27-0

With a well-balanced running and passing attack, the Bears of East inaugurated the '54 season by defeating William Chrisman, 27-0, on September 17. This was the first defeat that an East team had ever pinned on the Independence school since the start of the series in '51.

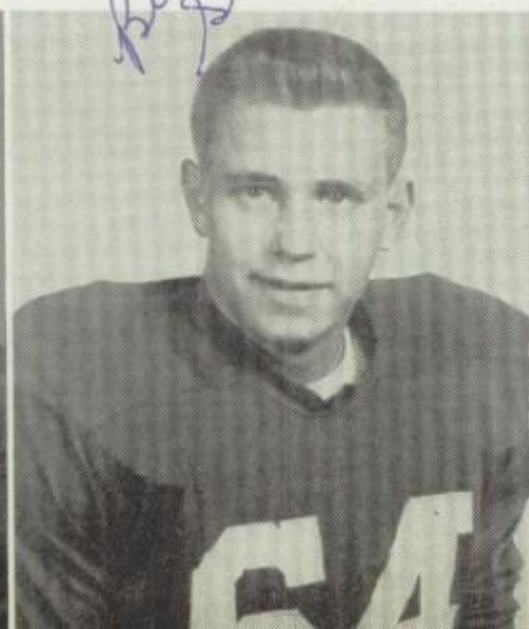

The Bears had almost no opposition on the ground or in the air, as the split-T attack scored in each quarter for the East forces. The Chrisman offense was completely stunned by the East defense as almost every play was stalled by the Bears' hard-charging forward wall.

The Bear attack was led by J. T. Little and Harl Hanson, who scored two touchdowns each during the course of the game.

East Held to a Draw

After opening with an impressive victory over Chrisman, the Bears were held to a scoreless tie in the league opener with the Southwest Indians. The Bears' vaunted attack just couldn't find the scoring combination as they were constantly held by a surprisingly strong Indian defense.

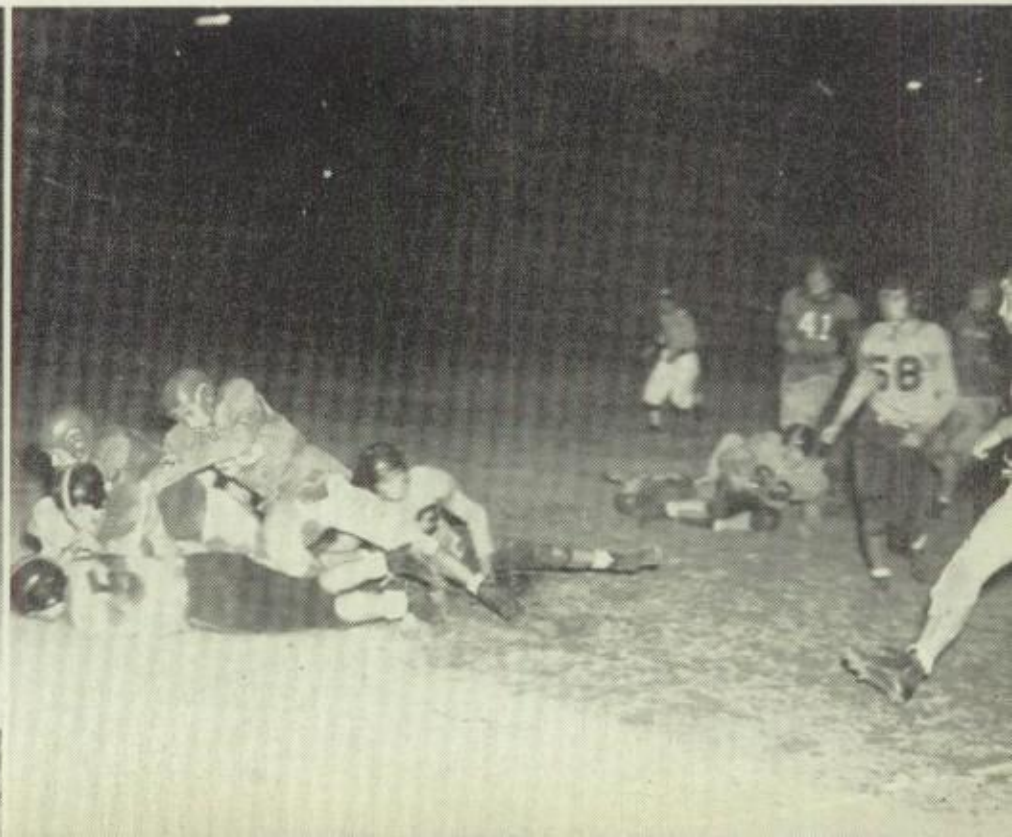

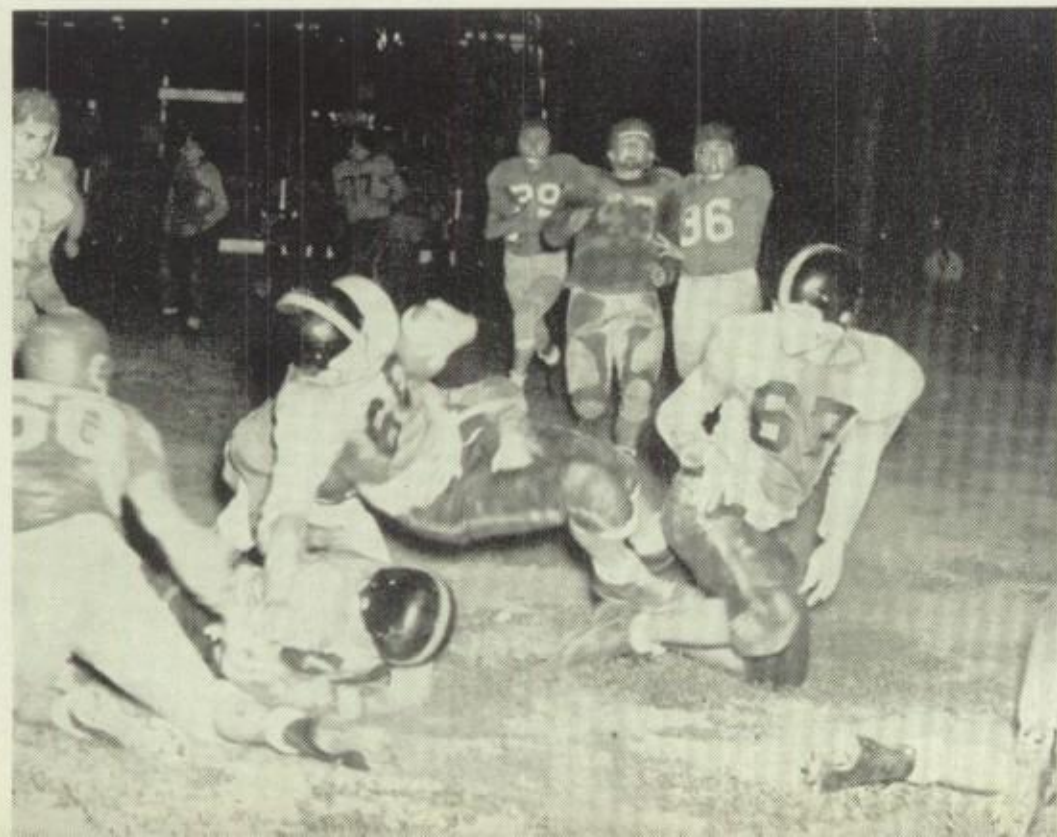

Neither team showed much offensive power, but they more than made up for it in defensive skill and prowess. East put on an extremely good defensive show for the opening night crowd as they staved off two Indian touchdown drives. The Bears' stand-out was Robin Hicklin, who stopped three consecutive thrusts after the Indians had reached the East four-yard line.

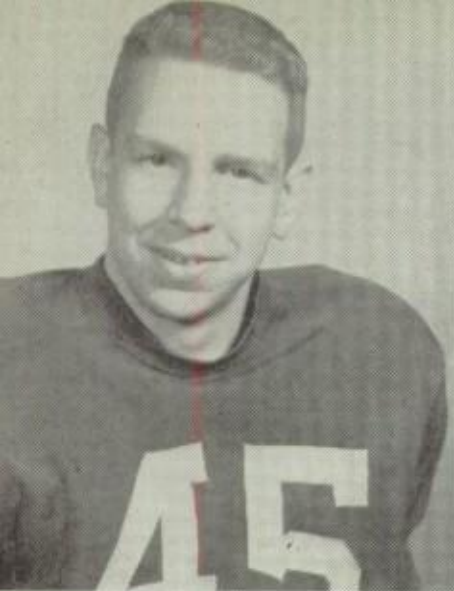

A SOUTHWEST INDIAN BACK fought his way into a dangerous position as Jerry Fair (47) and Otto Sayles (51) moved in for the tackle.

ANOTHER ENTHUSIASTIC INDIAN was stopped by a horde of East players.

ROBIN "STONEWALL" HICKLIN and John Tassi (38) stopped a strong touchdown threat by the Indian backs.

Vikes Drive to 6-6 Tie

Again our Bears' title hopes were dimmed as they were forced to settle for their second consecutive tie of the season. This time the game was fought against our old rivals, the Northeast Vikings. It was an extremely hard fight with our Bear defense starting.

East scored early in the first quarter on the strength of a Northeast fumble which was recovered on the Viking twenty-two. Three plays took the ball to the four where J. T. Little scored the touchdown. The score remained 6-0 until the final minute of play when the Vikings unleashed a do-or-die passing attack. Two consecutive completions carried the ball to the two from where Northeast took it over for the tying marker and a score of 6-6.

The Bears were two touchdown underdogs entering the game, but they soon did away with the Viking advantage as they showed a much faster and alert team. Although greatly outweighed, the Bears moved with more speed and kept the Viking forward wall completely off guard.

Bears Conquer Pirates

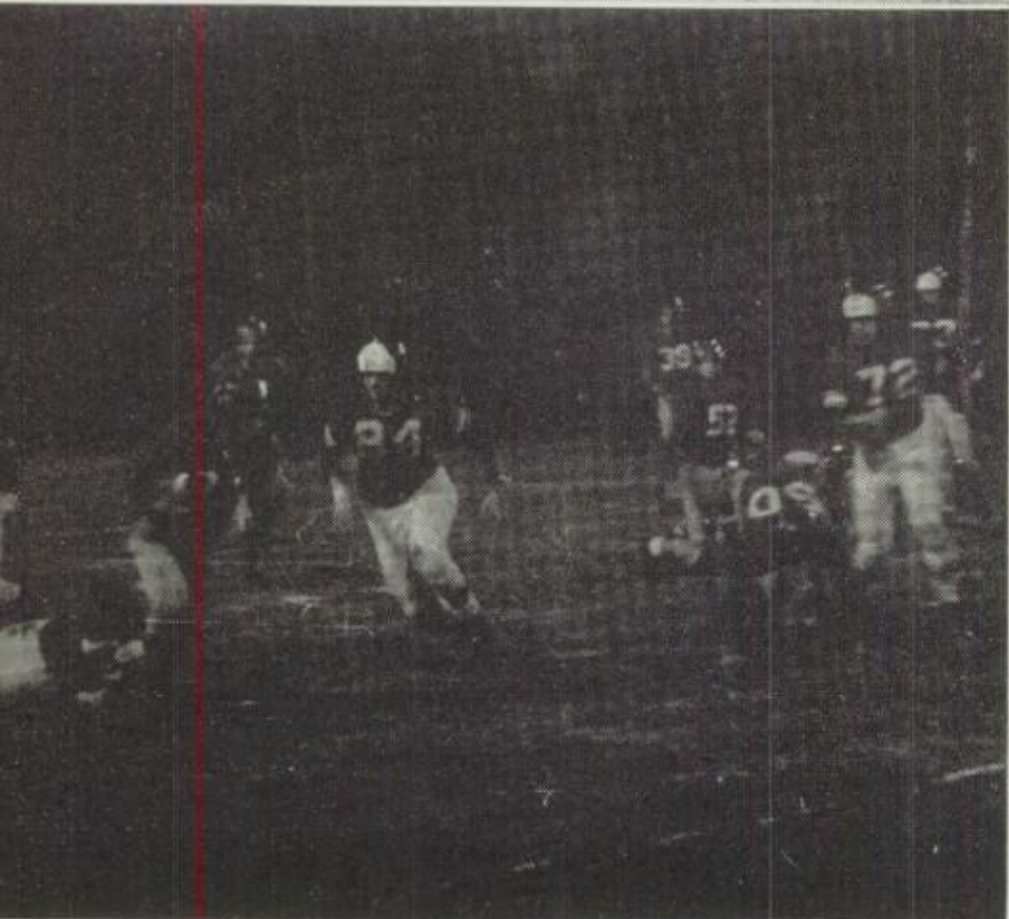

Showing a powerful running and passing attack, the East Bears ran roughshod over Paseo. The Bears were never headed as they amassed a total of 52 points against the lone Pirate's 6 points. East could do no wrong, whereas, the Pirates were continually in their own territory.

East, led by the best backfield in the league, completely dominated play from the opening kickoff until the final gun when they were driving for still another touchdown.

There was little doubt as to who was the better team when in the first quarter, J. T. Little galloped seventy-five yards for the touchdown which touched off the Bears' scoring spree. From then on it was a complete rout as the Bears scored eight times.

This was undoubtedly the best offensive showing the Bears made this season as they practically ran the Pirates off the field. The passing attack was very impressive as the Bears completed eleven of sixteen passes during the onslaught.

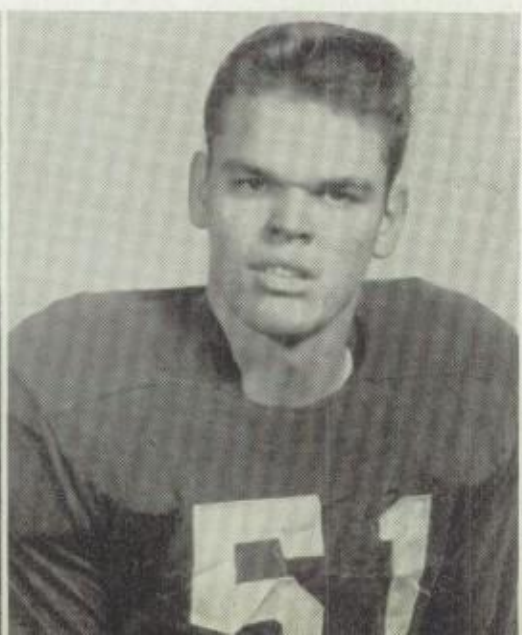

FLYING FEET WERE IN MOTION as this Central back was tripped up by an unidentified East player.

Eagles Dropped Hard

The East Bears continued their winning streak by defeating our rivals, Central, on October 15. It was a cold, brisk night, but the weather had little effect on the red-hot Bears who clawed their way to a 30-13 victory. This was a well-deserved victory as the team went all-out to help Coach Brown celebrate his birthday.

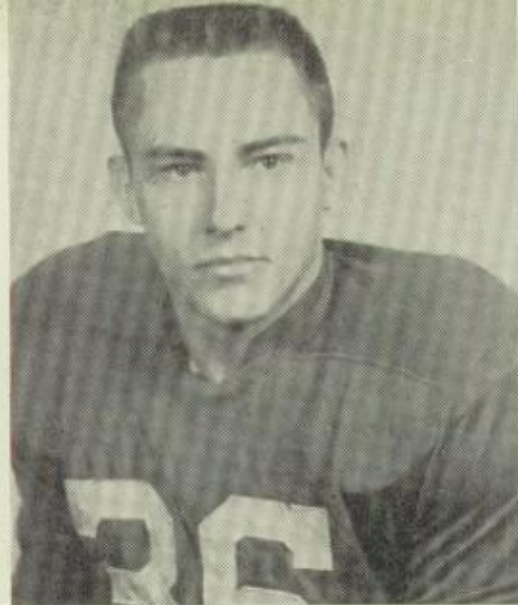

The Eagles held the lead twice in the first half, but each time the Bears put together a drive that netted them a touchdown. Fighting from a 12-13 deficit, the Bears took the lead late in the second quarter and were never headed as they hung up their second loop victory without a loss.

It was a well-balanced combination of a tough defense and a relentless ground attack that led the Bears to victory and vaulted the East team into second place in the Interscholastic League standings and kept them in contention for the league crown.

By scoring his fourth touchdown of the season, J. T. Little jumped into first place in the league scoring derby. He was ably supported by John Tassi and Harl Hanson, who helped subdue the Eagles and bring another victory to the Bears' den.

TIMELY AND EFFECTIVE BLOCKING netted a good ground gain for the Bears.

Bruins Crush Knights 32-6

Putting together an offensive gain of 401 yards, the Bears crushed the Southeast Knights 32-6. Once again it was the tremendous offensive strength of the Bears that gathered in the five touchdowns that led the team to victory.

This tremendous offensive show consisted of 287 yards rushing and 114 yards passing. It was the biggest output of the season for the Bears, and the top effort of the league season.

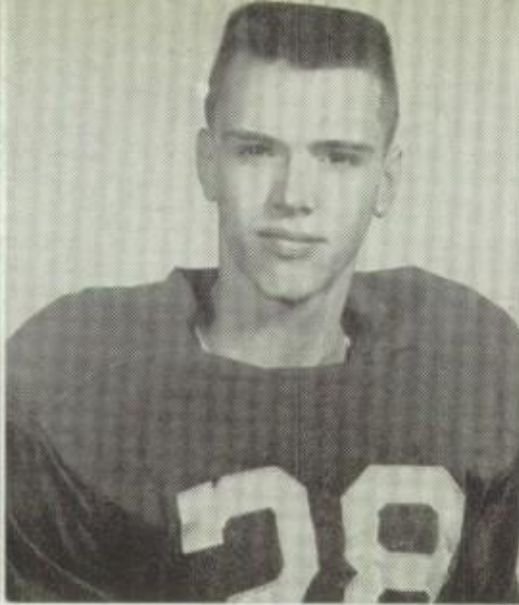

The scoring punch was led by J. T. Little and John Tassi, two members of East's classy backfield. Little, the league's leading scorer, boosted his total to 36 points by scoring twice, once from the three-yard line and the other on a fifty-one-yard scoring jaunt. John Tassi's contribution was two touchdowns and two conversions for 14 points. Tassi's last touchdown gallop, which went for sixty-nine yards, was the longest run of the game.

The Bears showed a lot of speed and aggression throughout the game, helping to hold down the deceptive single-wing formation of the Knights.

Bentons Went Down Fighting

*Your good friend,
Joe Roesch
W. & S.*

Traveling northward to St. Joe, the Bears met a strong and stubborn Benton High team on October 29, 1954. The St. Joe Bentons put up a good battle before surrendering to the Bears 6-0.

The first two quarters were filled with action, but neither team could seem to put together a drive that would produce a tally. The East attack finally began to click in the third quarter when John Tassi bolted across from five yards out for the 6 points which meant an East victory. The touchdown drive was sparked by Jerry Fair and J. T. Little.

Benton also showed some offensive strength in the final quarter, but they were stopped on the four-yard line by the strong East forward wall, which once again proved to be the difference between victory and defeat.

YARDAGE WAS GAINED by this Benton back as he ran wide around the east end of the line.

EAST RIPPED DOWN FIELD during the Westport game to chalk up another 6 points.

JERRY FAIR (47) ripped off the finale of a series of gains which totaled a touchdown for the Bears.

GOOD BLOCKING opened a hole into the Westport line and John Tassi (38) shot through for the gain.

The Westport didn't do so good this year but I'm sure you're sure to win. Good luck and take it easy this summer. your friend J. ohn. Tassi "38"

Title Cinched With Victory Over Westport

Coach Brown's rampaging Bears, undefeated throughout the season, closed their schedule by rolling over the Westport Tigers, 53-12, to annex East's first undisputed football crown since 1930. It also marked the first undefeated season in the history of the school, and the team wrapped it up with plenty to spare.

Against the smooth split-T attack of the Bears, the Tiger eleven offered almost no opposition as the Green and Black rolled through gaping holes in their defense for eight touchdowns. The helpless Tigers just couldn't cope with the powerful East surges that battered them into submission and led to the overwhelming triumph.

The East scoring onslaught was led by the talents of Jerry Fair, sparkling junior quarterback, who ran his way to four of the Bruin touchdowns. His first three trips to pay dirt came on keeper plays, and the final one came as the result of an 80-yard runback of a kickoff. It was his spectacular offensive show that sparked the East eleven to their total of 53 points.

The East scoring total was the highest recorded score of the league season and the second time that the Bears had gone over 50 points this season. It was an all-East triumph with the only Westport threat coming in the last half when they scored two lone touchdowns.

At the sounding of the final gun, the entire squad hoisted Coach Brown on their shoulders and carried him off the field. It was the moment of crowning achievement for a great team and the man who had led them through this all-victorious season of 1954.

Second Team Football

Cubs Finished Near Top

Following in the steps of the first team football boys, the Cubs battled their way through a very successful season to wind up near the top spot after beating Northeast's second team to a tune of 13-6 in their last game.

The start of the season looked mighty rough for the "Junior Bears" as a 19-0 shellacking was handed them by a strong Southwest squad.

No sooner had the game been over when East turned around and captured two consecutive wins the next week to feather their cap with. The Cubs edged out Southeast, 13-12, and slid past the Paseo Pirates, 13-6.

Central then turned the tide and left the Cubs with a 2-2 record by out-powering them by a score of 12-6.

In order to capture a second berth in the league the Cubs had to have the next two victories. They took Westport, 12-0, and then jolted Northeast.

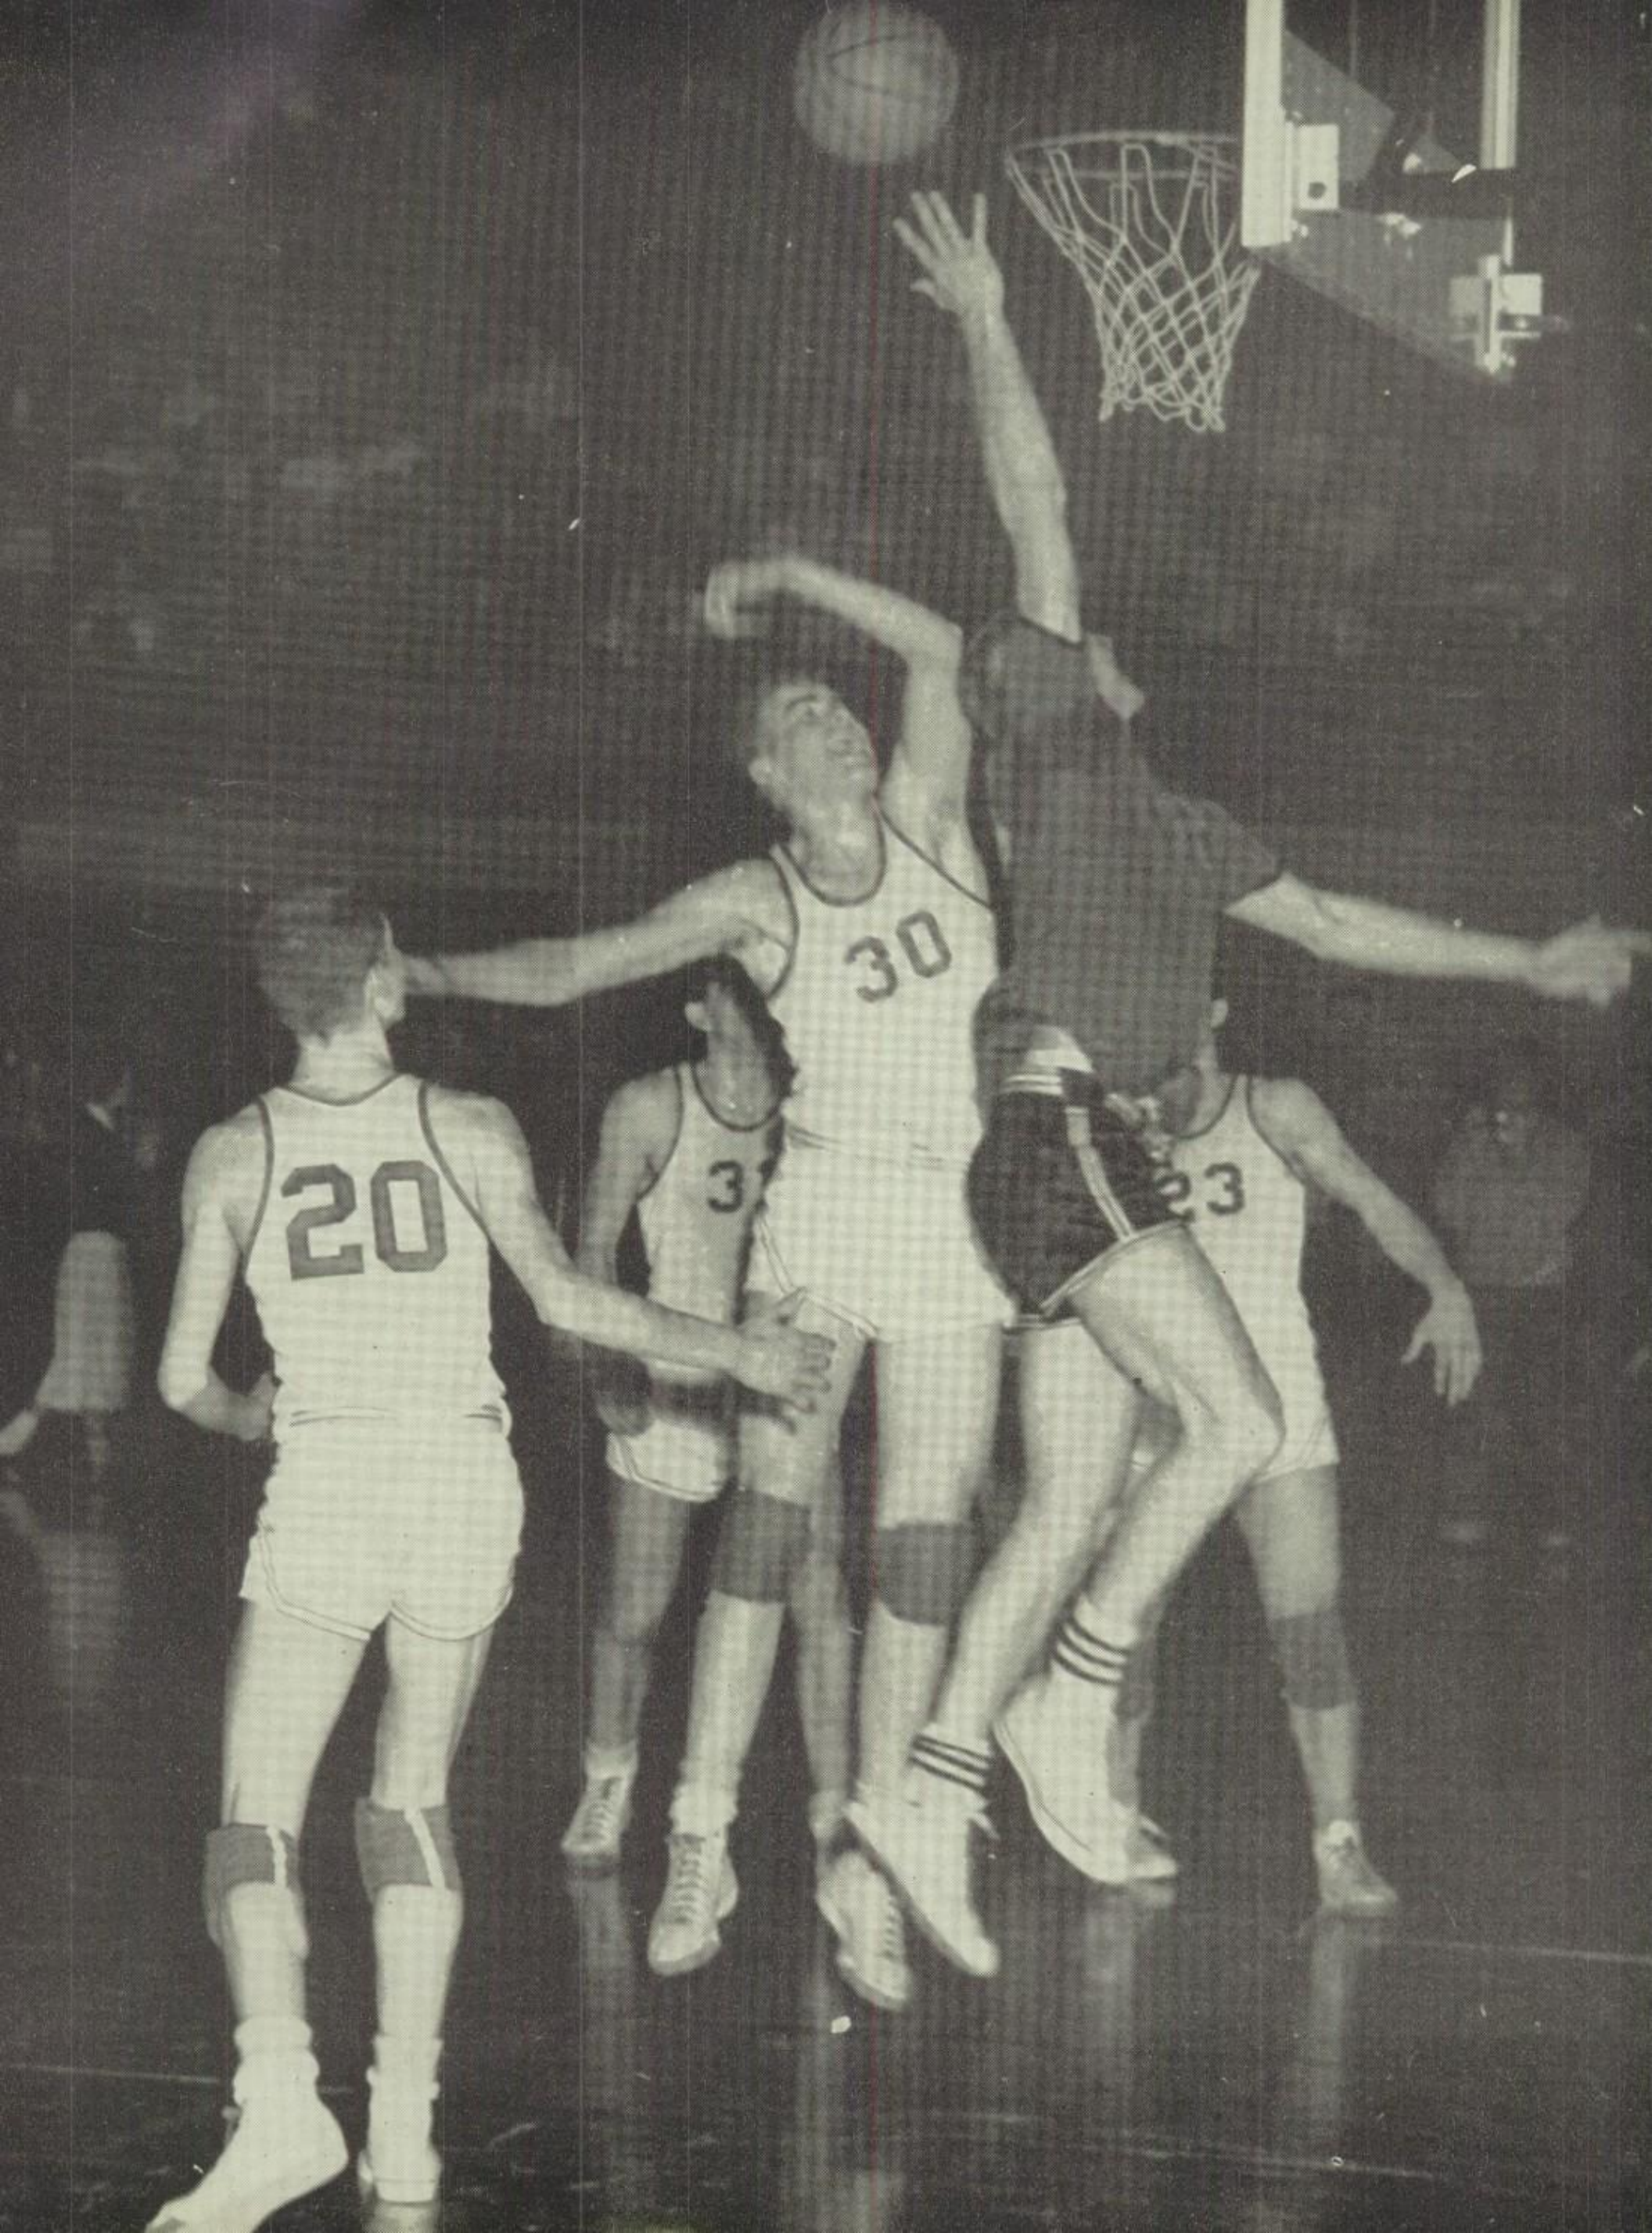

Gary Gulick, end, was leading scorer for the Cubs with 19 points, all of which were on the direct and speedy passes from halfback George Barr.

Backfieldman Fred Fisher should be an excellent player for years to come. He showed himself to be a high scorer with 13 points, all of which he collected in the Southeast and Paseo contests.

COACH J. L. FIELDS started his busy year by pushing the cross country track boys on to victory. Then taking over the Cubs football team, he guided them for their last few games. Track season rolled around and again Coach Fields coached his boys to pay dirt.

Basketball Became Second Undisputed Title

This was a great year for East's basketball fortunes as Coach Sebastian's squad compiled a record of 19 victories against one defeat. This outstanding record was not only the best in the history of the school, but also brought East its first undisputed basketball title.

It was a great combination of hustling ballplayers and coaching genius that led East from a fourth place finish in '54 to the top spot in Interscholastic League competition in '55.

The starting quintet was composed of Bob Morgan, Gene Bever, Ronnie Ragland, Bob Middleton, and Roger Wendel, the latter two making the city all-star team.

An undefeated non-league season was encountered by the championship bound Bears as they disposed of ten outclassed opponents in rather rapid succession.

Guided by the genius on the bench, Coach Sebastian, the Bruins completely dominated play in defense as well as in the offensive departments. No one could compete successfully against their fast break or harrying full court press.

The first five victories came rather easily with an offensive peak being reached in the Glennon contest. In this game the Bears broke their old record as they hit the cords for a sizzling 95 points.

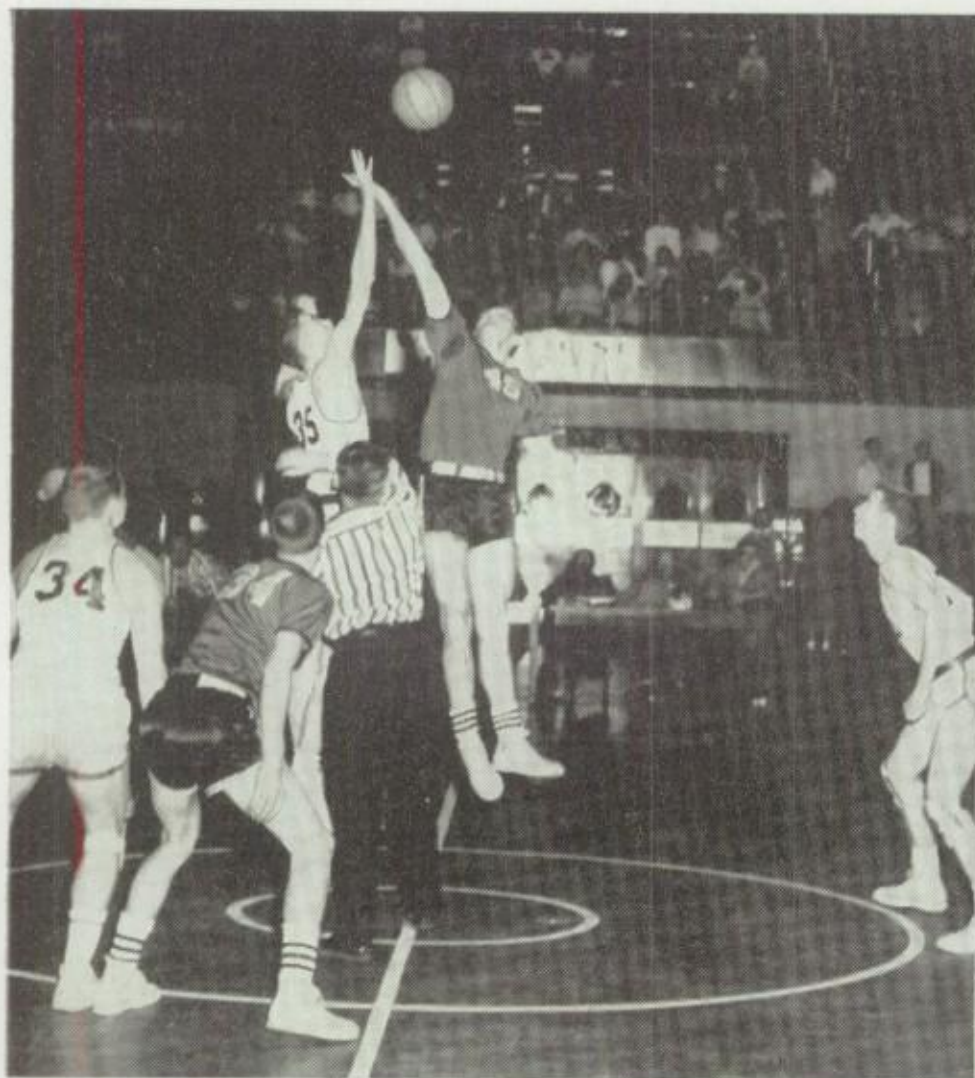

TWO MORE POINTS were added to the East score as Jerry Fair (22) drove in for a lay-up against William Chrisman.

The 62-61 victory over William Chrisman was the season thriller as the Bears eked out a one-point margin. The winning shot was thrown in by Bob Morgan with only three seconds remaining in the closely played contest.

The Manual game was also a thriller with the Bears coming out on top with a 48-45 decision. Trailing at the half, the East quintet had to overcome a 13 point deficit to take the victory.

By winning these ten games, the Bears gained the experience and poise which made them one of the most feared teams in the area.

GENE BEVER (45) reached high against Don Hymer (35), Southeast's center, in the opening tip of the league season.

WITH SURE ACCURACY AND SPEED, sharp-shooting Bob Middleton (31) fired the ball toward the target.

Basketball

LELAND HARMS, Northeast's pivot man, tried in vain to block Gene Bever's (45) tip-in.

Bears Stepped on Knights

The East quintet opened up a strong bombardment of outside shooting and scored a 57-49 triumph in their opening league encounter against the Southeast Knights. Led by the offensive surges of Roger Wendel and Bob Morgan, the Bears roared on to victory number eight.

The high-scoring Bruins were held by a tight Knight defense in the first period, but they took quick command early in the second quarter on the shooting accuracy of Wendel and Bob Middleton.

In the second half, the East boys showed more defensive authority as they were led on by the spirited play of Gene Bever. His work under the boards and play down court led to several East baskets and the collapse of the Southeast offensive threat.

With this victory, the Bears became one of the favored squads in the Interscholastic League title race.

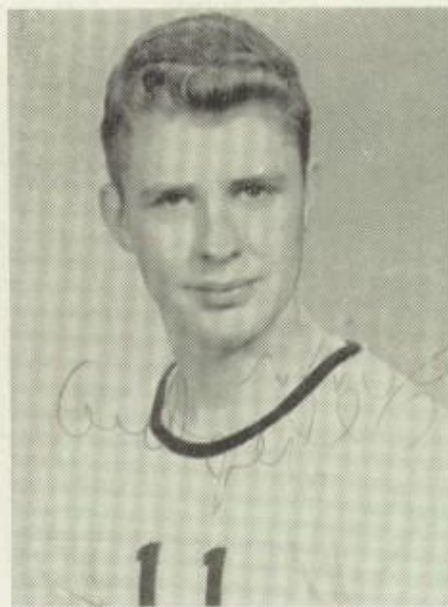

Vikes Routed 51-43

A tall and highly favored Northeast squad was indignantly trimmed down to size by a sharp-shooting Bruin lineup on January 14. This was their second consecutive league triumph and probably the most important one of the season.

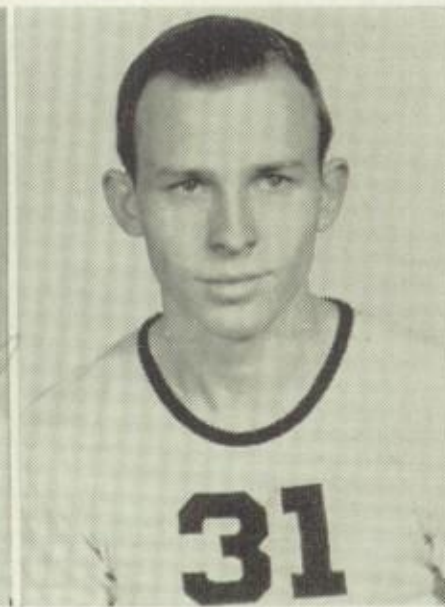

Led by the clutch play of Bob Middleton, the Bears completely outplayed and out-hustled the Vikings. Even Northeast's tremendous height advantage had little effect on the fast-stepping East five as they rolled to an impressive 51-43 victory.

The first quarter was almost a replay of last year's encounter as both teams played it slowly and deliberately. The last three periods, however, were fast and furious, with both teams putting on a torrid show that led to the Bears' winning spurt.

Bob Morgan was East's leading scorer with 14, and Middleton tallied 13 to go with his outstanding floor performance.

With Roger Wendel contributing 18 points along with an outstanding floor game, the East Bears rolled to their third consecutive league victory with a 49-38 decision over the Paseo Pirates.

Wendel led the scoring parade with his stylish set shots and surging drive-ins, while the entire team put together scoring ability and defensive skill to stop the taller Pirates.

A hot first half was encountered by the "Green and Black," and they led by a thirteen-point margin, 30-17, at the intermission. Their pace slackened in the last two stanzas but were, nevertheless, able to keep their winning margin.

Gene Bever also added to the spark set off by Wendel as he collected nine points and did his usual share of rebounding, for which he was noted and respected by every team in the league.

We Bombed Indians, 65-58

Again, through hustle and a brilliant full court press, the Bears held onto their first place berth by sweeping past a suddenly awakened Southwest quintet, 65-58, on January 24.

Coach Sebastian's boys had a close first half, but hit the cords at a torrid pace during the final two periods to insure them of their fourth straight league triumph.

With the first quarter ending in a deadlock, the Bruins moved away to a four-point lead at the half and increased it to fifteen in the fourth period. However, the Indians began pecking away and closed the gap to seven points.

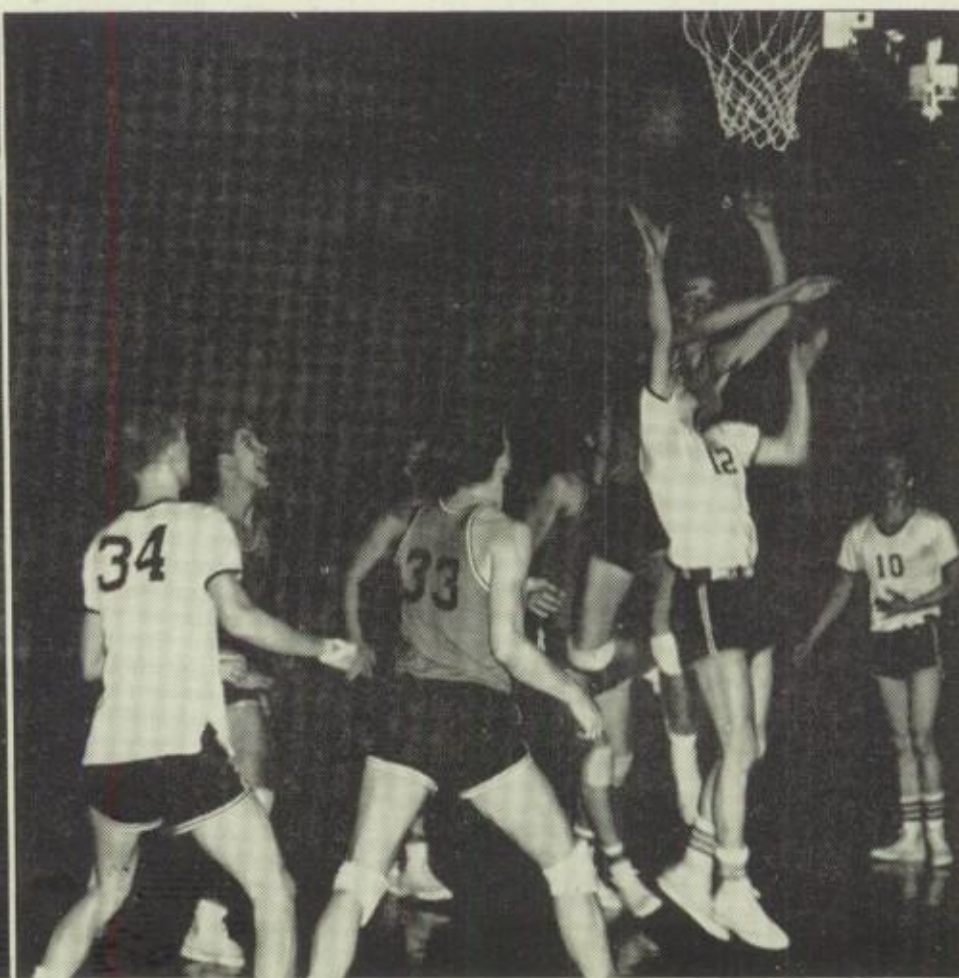

Roger Wendel and Bob Middleton showed championship form when the going was tough with their expert ball handling. Wendel also led the scoring with 19, followed by Middleton, who had 14 counters.

RONNIE RAGLAND (with ball) went high in the air to add another field goal to East's cache.

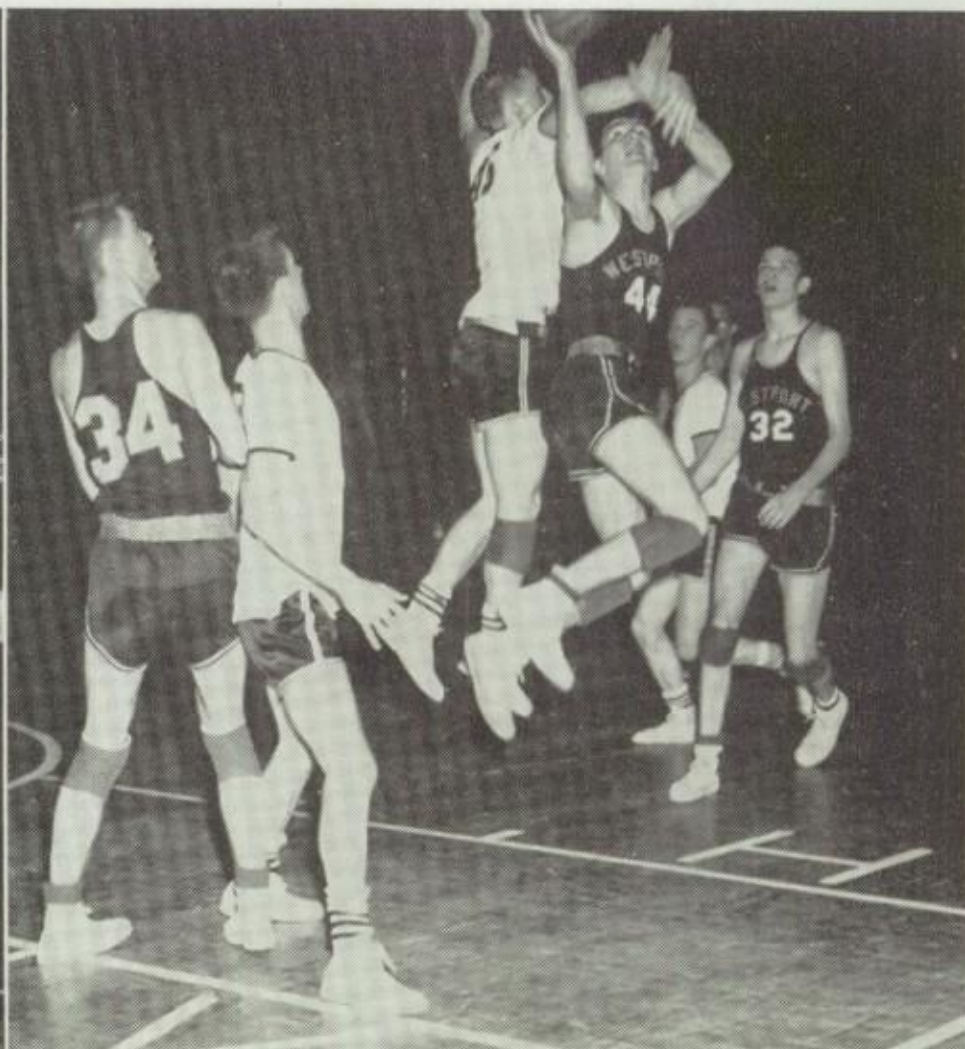

A BUCKET for Roger Wendel (12) when he drove to the side of the Southwest defense for a short jump shot.

A DETERMINED SOUTHWEST BASKETEER tried vainly to put an end to Roger Wendel's (12) quest for a two-pointer.

ROGER WENDEL drove around the Westport defense for a lay-up without being guarded.

A FOUL WAS CALLED on Gene Bever (45) and a free throw was given to the Westport player when Bever tried to block his shot.

IT LOOKED AS THOUGH Bob Morgan was in a jam with these three Central players, but with calm playing he kept possession of the ball.

A CENTRAL PLAYER tried the rougher tactics in stealing the ball from Bob Middleton.

East Dumped Westport

The front running East quintet came one game closer to winning the league basketball title as they dumped a stubborn and spirited Westport team, 53-44, on February 11 at the Municipal Auditorium.

A scoring spree in the initial quarter gave the Bears the victory as they dumped in a total of 19 points in the eight-minute period, while the Tigers failed to threaten.

East again had the benefit of long-range accuracy that paid off in the clutch and eliminated use of their much dreaded full court press.

The squad was well balanced in the scoring field as usual with Bob Morgan and Roger Wendel pumping in 14 points apiece to lead in that department. Ronnie Ragland took runner-up spot with his 12 point contribution in this, the fifth undefeated league contest for the Bruins.

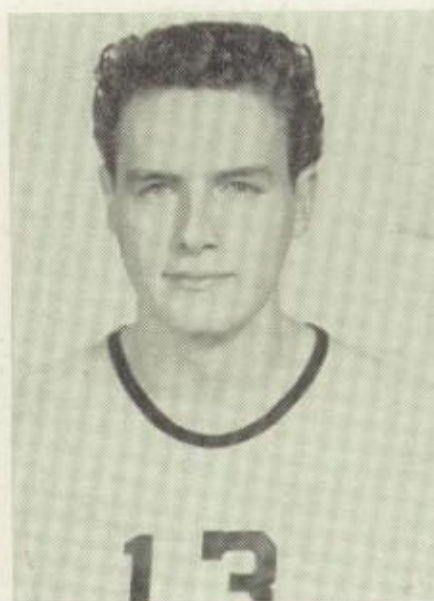

Eagles Edged 51-44

In their sixth league encounter of the season, the East Bears were forced to cope with a determined, upset-minded squad of Central Eagles. It was a hard, fast moving game which finally showed the Bears on the long end of a 51-44 score.

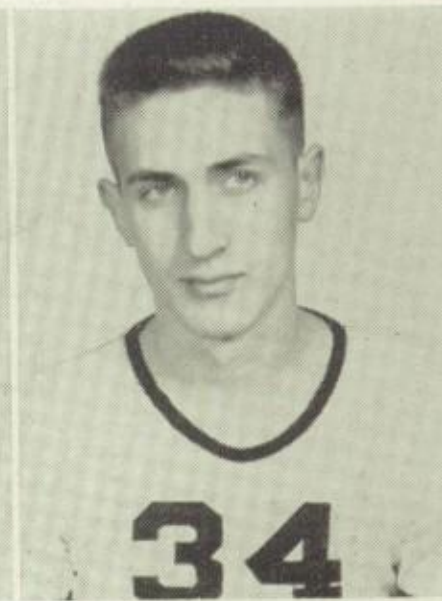

The Eagles played a blistering first half as they hit the cords from all angles of the court, while the East squad just couldn't seem to be able to put together any kind of a scoring threat. The half ended 28-29 as the Bruins were able to pull within one point of the high flying Central team.

Early in the second half the Bears gained a lead, which changed hands several times before East finally went ahead to stay. In the fourth period, the margin varied from one to four points, with the final spurt coming in the last few minutes on free tosses.

The East difficulty came on their inability to hit from the field with their most potent weapon, the set shot. This handicap was overcome with their constant hustle and accuracy from the free throw line.

Won Last League Tilt

The first undisputed basketball crown in East's history was won on February 17, as they turned back the Manual Red Birds for their seventh consecutive victory.

Manual went all out to tear down the East victory string, but they just could not hold on to their lead when the pressure was on.

The first quarter was a nightmare for the Bears as they trailed by as many as 11 points. Late in the second period, however, they closed the gap, and the score at the half was 31-27 in favor of Manual.

The second half was a different story as the Bears took quick command and built up a lead which held up until the final buzzer.

By all the hustle the boys could muster and their never-say-die spirit, they toppled Manual, 61-56, and brought East a well-deserved championship.

Park Hill and Manual Were First Victims

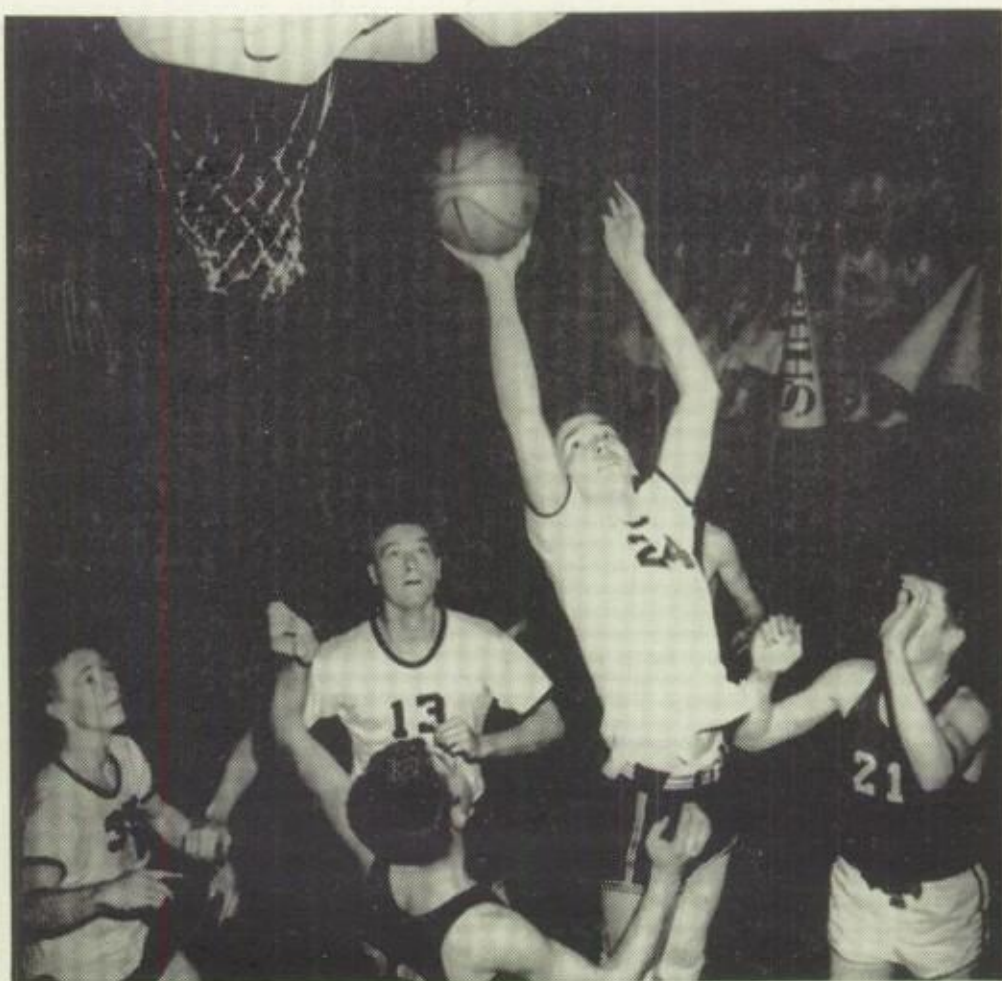

In their opening game of the regionals, the East Bears ran up against an inexperienced Park Hill squad and dumped them with a resounding 71-37 victory.

The Trojans just couldn't cope with the high-scoring Bruins who rolled up 20 points before they could muster a single score.

Entering the semi-finals against the Manual quintet, we met a team which had given us trouble all season. This game, however, proved to be quite different as the Bears rolled on to a 59-42 triumph.

The Red Birds attempted to use a zone defense against the East attack but this proved to be disastrous as the Bruins hit from all parts of the court.

Leading scorers in the Park Hill contest were Bob Middleton with 15 and Ronnie Ragland with 12. Against Manual, Roger Wendel was high with 22 tallies.

TWO MORE POINTS were added by John Shepherd (24) as the team rolled over a small Park Hill squad.

Second Place in Regionals to Bruins

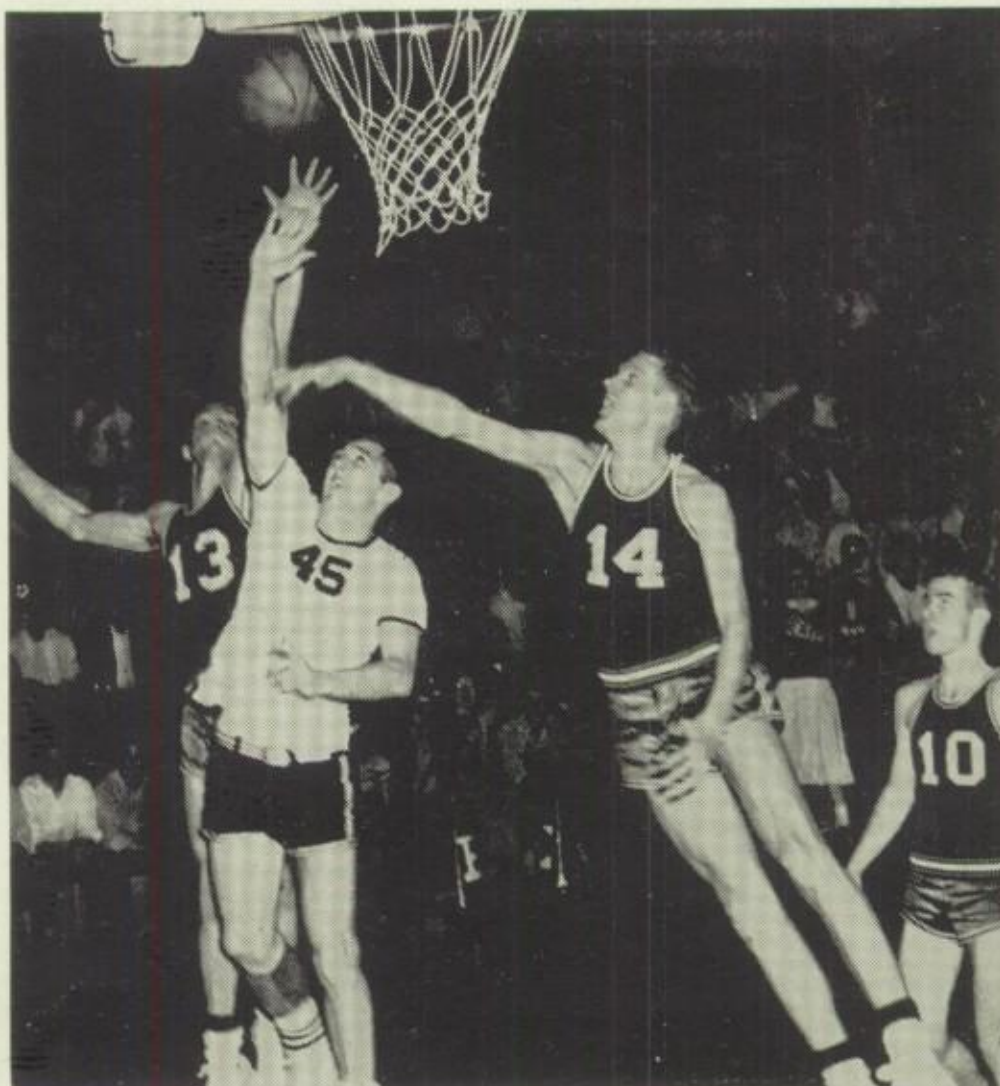

GENE BEVER (45) jumped high against Northeast's two giants, Jim Hoffman and Leland Harms.

Northeast Handed East First Loss in Finals

Trying for their twentieth win of the season, the Bears of East went down to a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of the Northeast Vikings. This loss not only marked the first defeat of the season, but also crushed our hopes of going to the state tournament.

The game was played on even terms until the third quarter when the tremendous Viking height began to take its toll. During this period, the Northeast team took a 15-point lead, while the Bears couldn't hit from the field.

In the fourth stanza, the East squad began finding the range and whittled the deficit to seven points at the buzzer. It took a mighty determined team to upset the Bears, but Northeast was up to the occasion as they snapped our string at 19 consecutive victories with their 65-58 triumph.

Cubs Made a Good Showing in '54-'55 Season

The Cubs basketball team jumped to a good start by defeating their first four victims: Hogan, De-LaSalle, Glennon, and Raytown by measurable margins. Their next two foes turned the tide and the B-Bears were swamped 56-39 by William Chrisman and 44-27 by Manual.

The other two non-league games were divided. The Cubs won one and lost one. Coach Virland S. Harris guided his cagers to a 5-3 non-league record.

In league play, East's squad won only three contests while losing four.

Dale Willert was the Cubs' scoring ace with more than 150 points chalked up during the season. Jerry Brown, left-handed forward, dropped in close to 140 markers.

Coach Harris' team used a slow, tight zone defense and a fast, effective pressing man-to-man against their sharp-shooting opponents.

The fine show of the Junior Bears this year will help as they move on up to the next year's varsity basketball quintet. Second team experience built up the players for the rugged test next season at the Municipal Auditorium.

TENSE ACTION took place in the Manual game when Merle Mayfield tried to block a Red-bird's shot.

Victories Continued Through Track Season

As the EASTONIAN goes to press, the East track team is well on its way to completing East's bid for a clean sweep of the three Interscholastic League titles. Hoping to duplicate the efforts of the championship football and basketball teams, the power-laden Bruins are pointing for the city title which will be decided on May 27.

With a combination of ability and determination, the charges of Coach Brown have already added to their laurels by capturing the Big Seven and Missouri Valley Invitational titles. Still left on the schedule are the Shawnee Mission and St. Joe Invitationals and the State Outdoor Meet at Columbia on May 21.

After only losing the City Meet by one-half point in '54, the East cindermen have come up with a squad which is probably one of the best that Coach Brown has produced. The hopeful Bruins lost three valuable men by graduation in '54, but the coaches hope to remedy the situation by turning out a more balanced unit.

The '54 team was highly successful as they won six trophies and made a strong challenge against Southwest, the perennial power in Kansas City track and field. During the course of the season, the Bears broke three records, won four dual meets, and produced several outstanding individual performers which sent East's track fortunes soaring to the top.

Many thrilling moments were experienced in '54, as the ever-pressing Bruins finished close behind Southwest in three consecutive meets and gave the rabid East track fans plenty to cheer about.

YARDS AND YARDS of adhesive tape were used by the track squad this season in taping up aching muscles.

A CLOSE-UP of the 1954 track trophies which were seen in the trophy cases.

Records Were Shattered by Bears

In the William Jewell Invitational, the red-hot Bears were barely nosed out of the first place trophy by Southwest who squeezed by with a meager two-point margin. At the St. Joe Relays, the East team was once again edged by Southwest by two points in a meet which furnished plenty of thrills and outstanding performances.

ROY F. BROWN, first team track coach, and J. L. Fields, second team coach, talked over the possibility of a triple crown.

The most heart-breaking defeat was suffered in the City Meet where the front-running Bears, hoping to win their first city title since '49, were forced to settle for the runner-up position. Two bad decisions, which cost us two points, were the margin of difference as Southwest won their fourth consecutive title by a score of 67½-67.

The three records that were shattered in '54 were established by East's outstanding two-mile and mile relay teams. The two-mile squad captured two of the records as they eclipsed the relay record at Shawnee Mission and St. Joe. The other new record was set in the mile-relay at St. Joe with an excellent time of 3:33.9. The two-mile team was composed of Jim Adkins, Doug Cagley, Stan Rhodes, and Gerry Smith, while the mile foursome consisted of J. T. Little, Mike Espinosa, Jerry Caraway, and Jim Cooper.

Thus far, the '55 team has proved itself comparable to last year's squad which met with so much success. Within the next month East's greatest athletic year will be completed, and if the track team emerges victorious, it will bring the Triple Crown to East. No other school has performed this feat since 1932 when Paseo came out with three championships. We hope the 1955 Bears will also capture this distinction.

East Took Second Big 7 Title

Scoring a total of 14 points, the East cindermen raced to their second consecutive Big 7 Championship. It was the opening encounter of the season, and a highly successful one as the Bruins picked up points in all of the five events.

In the Friday night preliminaries, the East team qualified eight men including their eight-lap relay team, six of whom picked up valuable points in the finals.

In the low hurdles, Wayne Carter gained a fourth place, while Ernie Paris and Jim Cooper tallied second and third, respectively, in the 60-yard dash. Cooper also sprinted to a second place in the 440, and Jim Adkins gained three points for his second place effort in the half mile. In the eight-lap relay, the Bruin foursome of Paris, Jack Dunn, Bob Fain, and Cooper picked up a third after posting the second best time on Friday.

Second Place Captured in Fayette Meet

In the second meet of the season, the East team traveled to Fayette where they added to their laurels by finishing second behind Smith Cotton of Sedalia.

The powerful Bears totaled $45\frac{1}{3}$ points and showed plenty of strength in the ten events that were entered. The team failed to place only in the 880 and the mile but staged many other outstanding individual performances.

The only new record was established by East's relay team as they toured the oval in the blistering time of 2:47.9 seconds.

Amassing a total of 15 points, more than any other Kansas City school, the East trackmen came home with fourth place in the state indoor meet on April 2. This position is the highest that an East team has achieved in the annual event at Columbia.

The individual point-getters were Wayne Carter, Jim Cooper, Jack Miller, Jim Adkins, and Ronnie Ragland. The 880-relay team placed a very close second as they were only .3 of a second off the pace, and the mile relay squad crossed the finish line with fifth place.

Bruins Romped Indians

Highly rated last year's champion Southwest Indians were the victims of the rampaging Bears from East in the first dual meet of the season, Wednesday, April 10.

After the first two events, the score was all knotted up at eight apiece. But there it was the "green and black" streaking ahead to win by 28 points.

Five sweeps were taken and four more events were won by the cindermen.

Wayne Carter and Jim Adkins were the only double winners. Carter took top spot in both hurdles and Adkins won the mile and 880-yard runs.

As usual, Jack Miller tossed the iron sphere to pay dirt and copped a first.

"Rags" Ragland grabbed first in the high jump and second in the pole vault.

The relay events were split. Southwest snagged the 880-yard relay, and East rebounded to take the mile relay.

Bob Fain sprinted across the finish-line to win the 100-yard dash for the Cubs.

Paseo Edged 56-49

Ronnie Ragland cleared the bar in the high jump to give the long end of a 56-49 score to East as the pressing Paseo cindermen closed the gap in the dual meet at Paseo, Friday, April 15, 1955.

The breaks went to Paseo during the high hurdles when Wayne Carter, who had built a lead, fell at the last hurdle and Paseo scored a sweep. Carter, however, rebounded to capture first in the lows.

Sweeps were taken by East with Jim Cooper and Ernie Paris in the 100-yard dash and Paris and J. T. Little in the 220.

Other top ranks taken by the Bruin tracksters were in the 440-yard run, 880-relay, shot put and pole vault.

Bill, I wish you all the luck possible. You a great fellow. So I'll wish you all the happiness at East & otherwise. Love, 56-49

Six class A high school teams from the Northwestern section of Missouri competed in the Missouri Valley Invitation track meet at Marshall, Missouri, on Tuesday, April 19, 1955.

East took the top berth with Ernie Paris being the only double winner. Paris crossed the finish first in the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

William Chrisman from Independence gave the Bears a fight up to the last events of the meet.

Ronnie Ragland won three ribbons with a first in the pole vault, third in high jump, and fifth in the discus throw.

A total of 47 points were gained in other events with 2 firsts, 3 seconds, 5 thirds, and 1 fifth to end the contest with a score of 75 points.

Second Team Track Cubs in a Split

The second team track squad, which is coached by Coach J. L. Fields, split with their opponents the first two dual track contests.

Southwest's junior Indians romped the Cubs in their season's opener.

Putting this aside as a bad day, the junior Bears shoved forward and mauled Paseo's "B" squad by a large margin.

Jerry Fair, John Tassi, Tom Mayhew, Al Salmon, Mike Sexton, Carl Renfro, Tom Kunz, and Jerry Junkins were the boys who put forth the effort.

JERRY JUNKINS finished first in the 440 and added more points to widen the margin by which the Cubs beat Paseo.

AFTER OVERTAKING THE PASEO RUNNER, Jerry Fair broke the tape to help the second team along in their victory.

JOHN TASSI chugged to a first place in the low hurdles against Paseo.

Cheerleaders

Led Enthusiasm

Busy at all sports events keeping the school spirit alive were our seven cheerleaders.

This year's 1954-55 squad, uniformed in white coulottes and green emblems on black sweaters, consisted of five regulars: Darlene Johnston, Marilyn Deuser, Joyce Alderman, Helen Hogan, and Sondra Kiser, captain; all were seniors plus two alternates, Carlene Russell and Helen Pellow.

Our cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. LaVelle Halbert, represented East at all of this year's games. They promoted the spirit and pep that helped our teams on to victory.

For the first time, East's cheerleaders were able to attend a Cheerleading Clinic. They brought back new routines and yells among them the rage, "Cool-Calm-and-Collected."

Numerous pep assemblies were held in the auditorium and outside on the campus.

As the year came to a close, Marilyn Deuser, Darlene Johnston, and Sondra Kiser finished their second year on the squad. Next year Helen Pellow and Carlene Russell will begin their second year with Carlene as their captain.

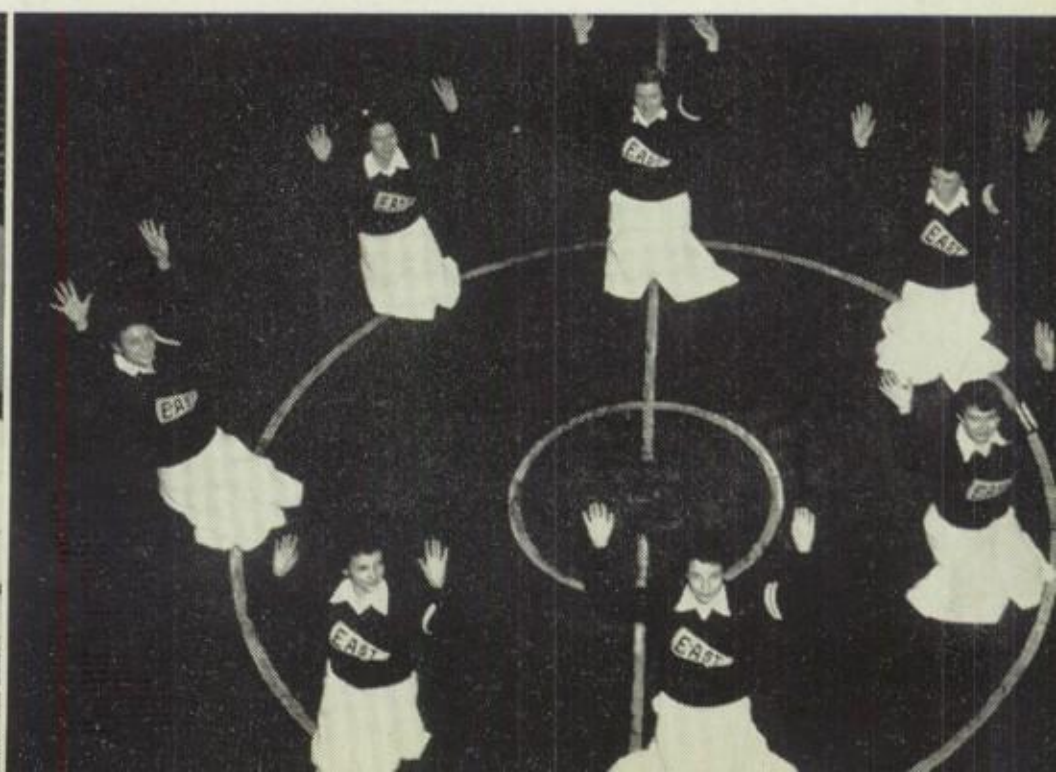

Every one of the cheerleaders was awarded a miniature silver megaphone in award assembly, and a dinner was held in their honor at Eddie's Restaurant.

PHONING IN SWEATER ORDERS was a big job for second semester Pep Club officers Pat Reed, Donna Ohlson, Darleen Case, Pat Blakemore and Donna Jones.

Enthusiastic Support

"We're for the team" was the theme of the Pep Club's Homecoming float. They carried out their pledge and followed our teams to victory throughout the year.

The Pep Club kept active under the leadership of their officers and newly chosen sponsor, Mr. William T. Ridley, history instructor. They started backing their team by selling season football tickets to members of the East community. During the football season they decorated goal posts for all games and assisted in the Homecoming by decorating the stadium.

New megaphones were purchased for the cheerleaders this year by the Pep Club. They also paid the cheerleaders' way to the cheerleaders' convention.

The first semester activities of our Pep Club were headed by the faculty vs. varsity game. The second semester officers aided the Student Council mixer committee in holding the basketball victory mixer.

For the first time the East Pep Club purchased sweaters and chose an emblem as part of their uniform. The officers of the Pep Club this year were:

Pep Club Brought Championships

If you have been wondering why your grades were so low this year, it may have been because the faculty lost both basketball games to the students December 10.

There were no rules or regulations to the men's game, and several different ways to make scores were used that have never before been legal. Mr. William K. Prewitt was playing football and other baskets were used besides the regulation baskets.

Now and then the referee helped the faculty out by shooting baskets for them. Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott was singing, "I'm Back in the Saddle Again" when he was on M/Sgt. Kenneth A. Storm's shoulders trying to get a ball into the basket.

Strictly for laughs was what the game was, and it turned out just that way. The varsity boys won by a score of 24-22.

One of the many interests of the year were the girls' sportsdays. These are yearly events where all the girls' Physical Education Departments get together to try their skill at sports and renew old friendships. The three sportsdays this year were Hockey, held at Westport and coached by Miss Helen Cox; Basketball at Northeast, coached by Mrs. Mary Sue Hoover, and Softball, held here at East and coached by Mrs. LaVelle Halbert. Sportsdays are attended by teams from each of the eight high schools in Kansas City, their parents and friends, by many of the members of the Girls' Physical Education Department downtown, and many graduates who once participated in this event. The team captains of sportsdays were: Hockey, Mary Ledgerwood; Basketball, Sondra Kiser; Softball, Donna Taylor.

Building strong bodies, keen minds, and the ability to win graciously and lose gracefully, were the girls of the Girls' Physical Education Department. They also developed cooperation and teamwork, and the knowledge and skills of the sports for a healthful existence. The rules and skills of a game teach one to realize and respect the privileges and rights of the other person. With their new gym, shower room, and swimming pool this year, the girls and their teachers, Miss Helen Cox, Mrs. Mary Sue Hoover, and Mrs. LaVelle Halbert shared and enjoyed the new facilities.

WITH THEIR RACKETS AND BIRDIES (top right) the girls played games of badminton as an extra credit for their sports awards.

AS THE SENIOR GIRLS (lower right) tried for another point the Junior girls were working just as hard to keep the ball from the Seniors in the Junior and Senior Girls' basketball game.

AN OUTSIDE SPORT in cold or warm weather was Hockey, played by all Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.

AWAY WITH THE BALL and down the field to make a goal was the game of Soccer played by Sub-Freshmen and Freshmen girls.

Girls' Physical Education

The New Facilities Created Vim and Vigor

Competitive sports such as hockey, softball, basketball, volleyball, table tennis, aerial darts, soccer, badminton, exercise and modern dance, which are participated in during class and after school intramurals, offered to those who were interested an opportunity to win awards which were given out at the end of the year. They consisted of small shield, large shield, the letter E, and the gold bar. Class work was important in Girls' Physical Education. The girls tried to learn the different skill and technics of each sport, both new and old. Through individual squads and their captains, competition was aroused among the different classes.

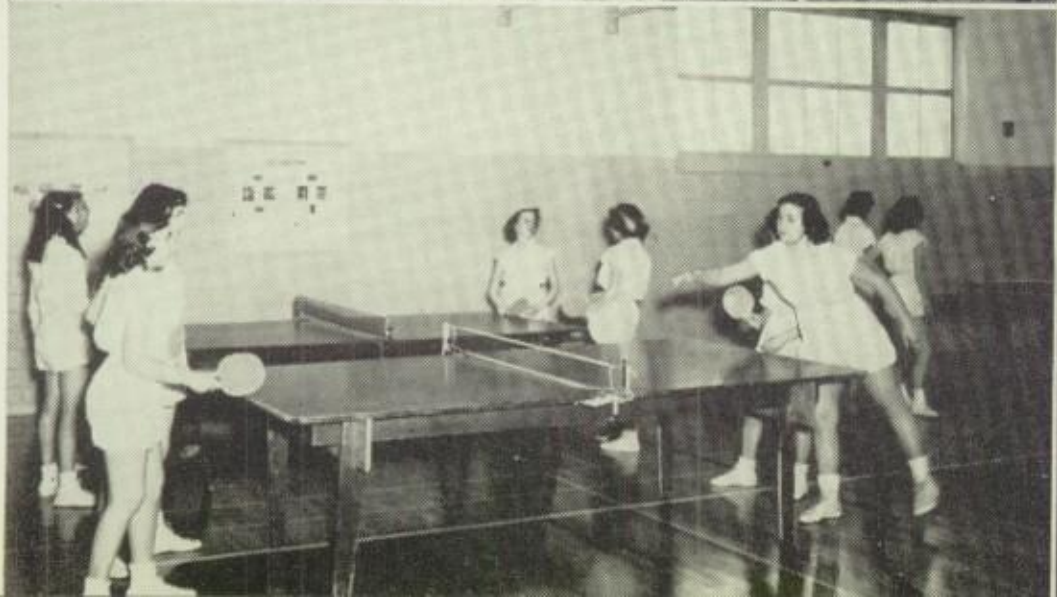

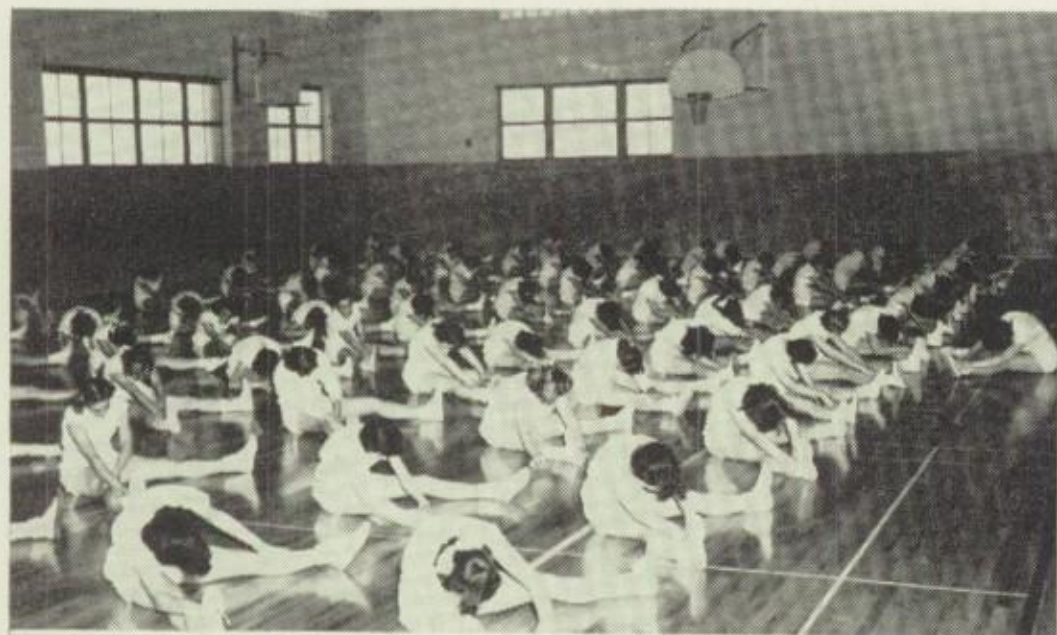

KEEPING FIT were the girls from Sub-Freshmen up to Seniors doing their weekly exercise.

HITTING THE BALL took skill and concentration in playing table tennis, although it was fun, too.

AERIAL DARTS always provided an exciting moment for the girls.

M/Sgt. Kenneth A. Storms has been at East for the last year and a half. Serving as the only instructor at East, he had a variety of responsibilities which included coaching the Rifle Team and giving instruction in drill and classes. Before coming to East he was stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Captain Jerry Bradley was the Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics for the year. He was assigned charge of three of the high schools: East, Central, and Northeast. While being assistant PMS&T, he served as host for the annual Military Ball, and Officer-in-Charge of the R.O.T.C. Circus.

Under the capable leadership of these two men, the East R.O.T.C. Battalion participated in many activities. The battalion was well represented at Field Day and Federal Inspection, which was held at Central. "WE'RE ALWAYS READY" was the motto of the Color Guard when called upon to march in a parade.

FAITHFUL AS ALWAYS, the Color Guard opened our assemblies with the pledge to the flag.

Homecoming

A Royal Honor for the Cadets

All during the school year, one part of the R.O.T.C. was always in the student eye at East. This detail was the Color Guard composed of four second-year cadets. This year our Color Guard participated in several different events at school, such as the Homecoming Parade, the Veterans' Day Parade, and the many assemblies held during the school year.

The initial appearance of the East R.O.T.C. Honor Guard was made at the Homecoming game. The cadets in this unit practiced many nights after school for this occasion. They worked on the "Queen Anne Salute" and the thirteen count manual of arms which were performed at the Homecoming. The commanders of this unit were Major Vernon Christie and Captain Larry Plaskett.

ALWAYS OUT IN FRONT with "Old Glory" was the Color Guard in the Homecoming Parade.

"QUEEN ANNE SALUTE" was performed for the Homecoming Queen, Dolores Hornbuckle.

QUEEN DIXIE VIOLETT and her escort, Jim Brown, posed with Sgt. Storms and Mr. Williams after the Coronation.

THE GRAND MARCH of the annual R.O.T.C. Ball was as exciting as ever.

R. O. T. C. Queen Chosen by Entire School

A joyful occasion in a cadet's life is the annual military ball, which this year was held on February 21 at the Pla-Mor Ballroom. The six co-queens of the ball reigned over the entire evening's procedure. Dancing to the music of Les Copley's band was very enjoyable. It was an evening never to be forgotten.

The Officers' Dinner was held on February 19, in the Coffee Shop of the Pickwick Hotel. The meal and fine music were enjoyed by the officers and their dates. After dinner, Wayne Stitt of station WHB interviewed East's Co-Queen, Dixie Violet, and several of the officers of the R.O.T.C.

MUSIC ALONG WITH GOOD FOOD made the officers' dinner very enjoyable.

WAYNE STITT, disc jokey, interviewed the Queen and several of the cadets.

FEDERAL INSPECTION involves a review of each company in the battalion. Here are two officers inspecting one of the companies.

THE CLASSROOM REVIEW is to see how well we have learned the subjects this year.

Annual Events

Always the Same, But It's Fun

Federal Inspection is an annual event where each school is reviewed by a regular army officer in regard to drill performance and classroom work. In order to test leadership ability, a Tactical Platoon presents a mock battle.

R.O.T.C. summer camp, held at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, each year, provides interesting experience for any cadet who wants to learn the "army way" first hand. Training in marksmanship and drill efficiency is offered along with practice in small unit tactics.

IN THESE TENTS we spend many cool Kansas days and nights. This is one of the Army's private rooms, only nine men to a tent.

THE SWIMMING POOL is always the favorite spot of the cadets.

R. O. T. C. Circus

"Gone But Not Forgotten"

The purpose of our circus acts was to remind former servicemen of the pleasant days of boot camp and to give future soldiers an idea of what is in store for them. It was five o'clock in the morning as the new recruits were peacefully sleeping on their innerspring mattresses, when they were awakened by the Army's two most deadly weapons, the drill sergeant and the bugle.

As our new recruits arose, they were formed into a platoon and duties were assigned. The first and most honorable duty was that of Kitchen Police, for those who enjoyed fighting a losing battle against a mountain of potatoes. For this heroic deed they were awarded the Royal Order of the Pots and Pans with potato clusters. Other details which were assigned were the Grounds' Police and Sentinel Duty.

Last was the shots detail where the recruits received many different shots. It seemed as though the army thought you had never had a shot in your life, so they tried to make up for it. The remaining recruits were left to drill under the sergeant's watchful eye. After all the drill and details it would seem as if there should be time for rest, but guess again!

WINTER'S SNOW nor gloom of night shall stop these cadets from carrying on their drill.

DRAFT BOARDS seem nowadays to have trouble finding men all the same size. Physical training shows up this trouble.

R. O. T. C.

Glimpses of Cadet Life

RIFLE MARKSMANSHIP is an important part of the cadet's life. Here Willard McCord, Carl Buck, Gerald Ethridge, and Larry Plasket fired on the range for record.

CLASSES, which are taught by cadets, are very educational for both the student and the instructor.

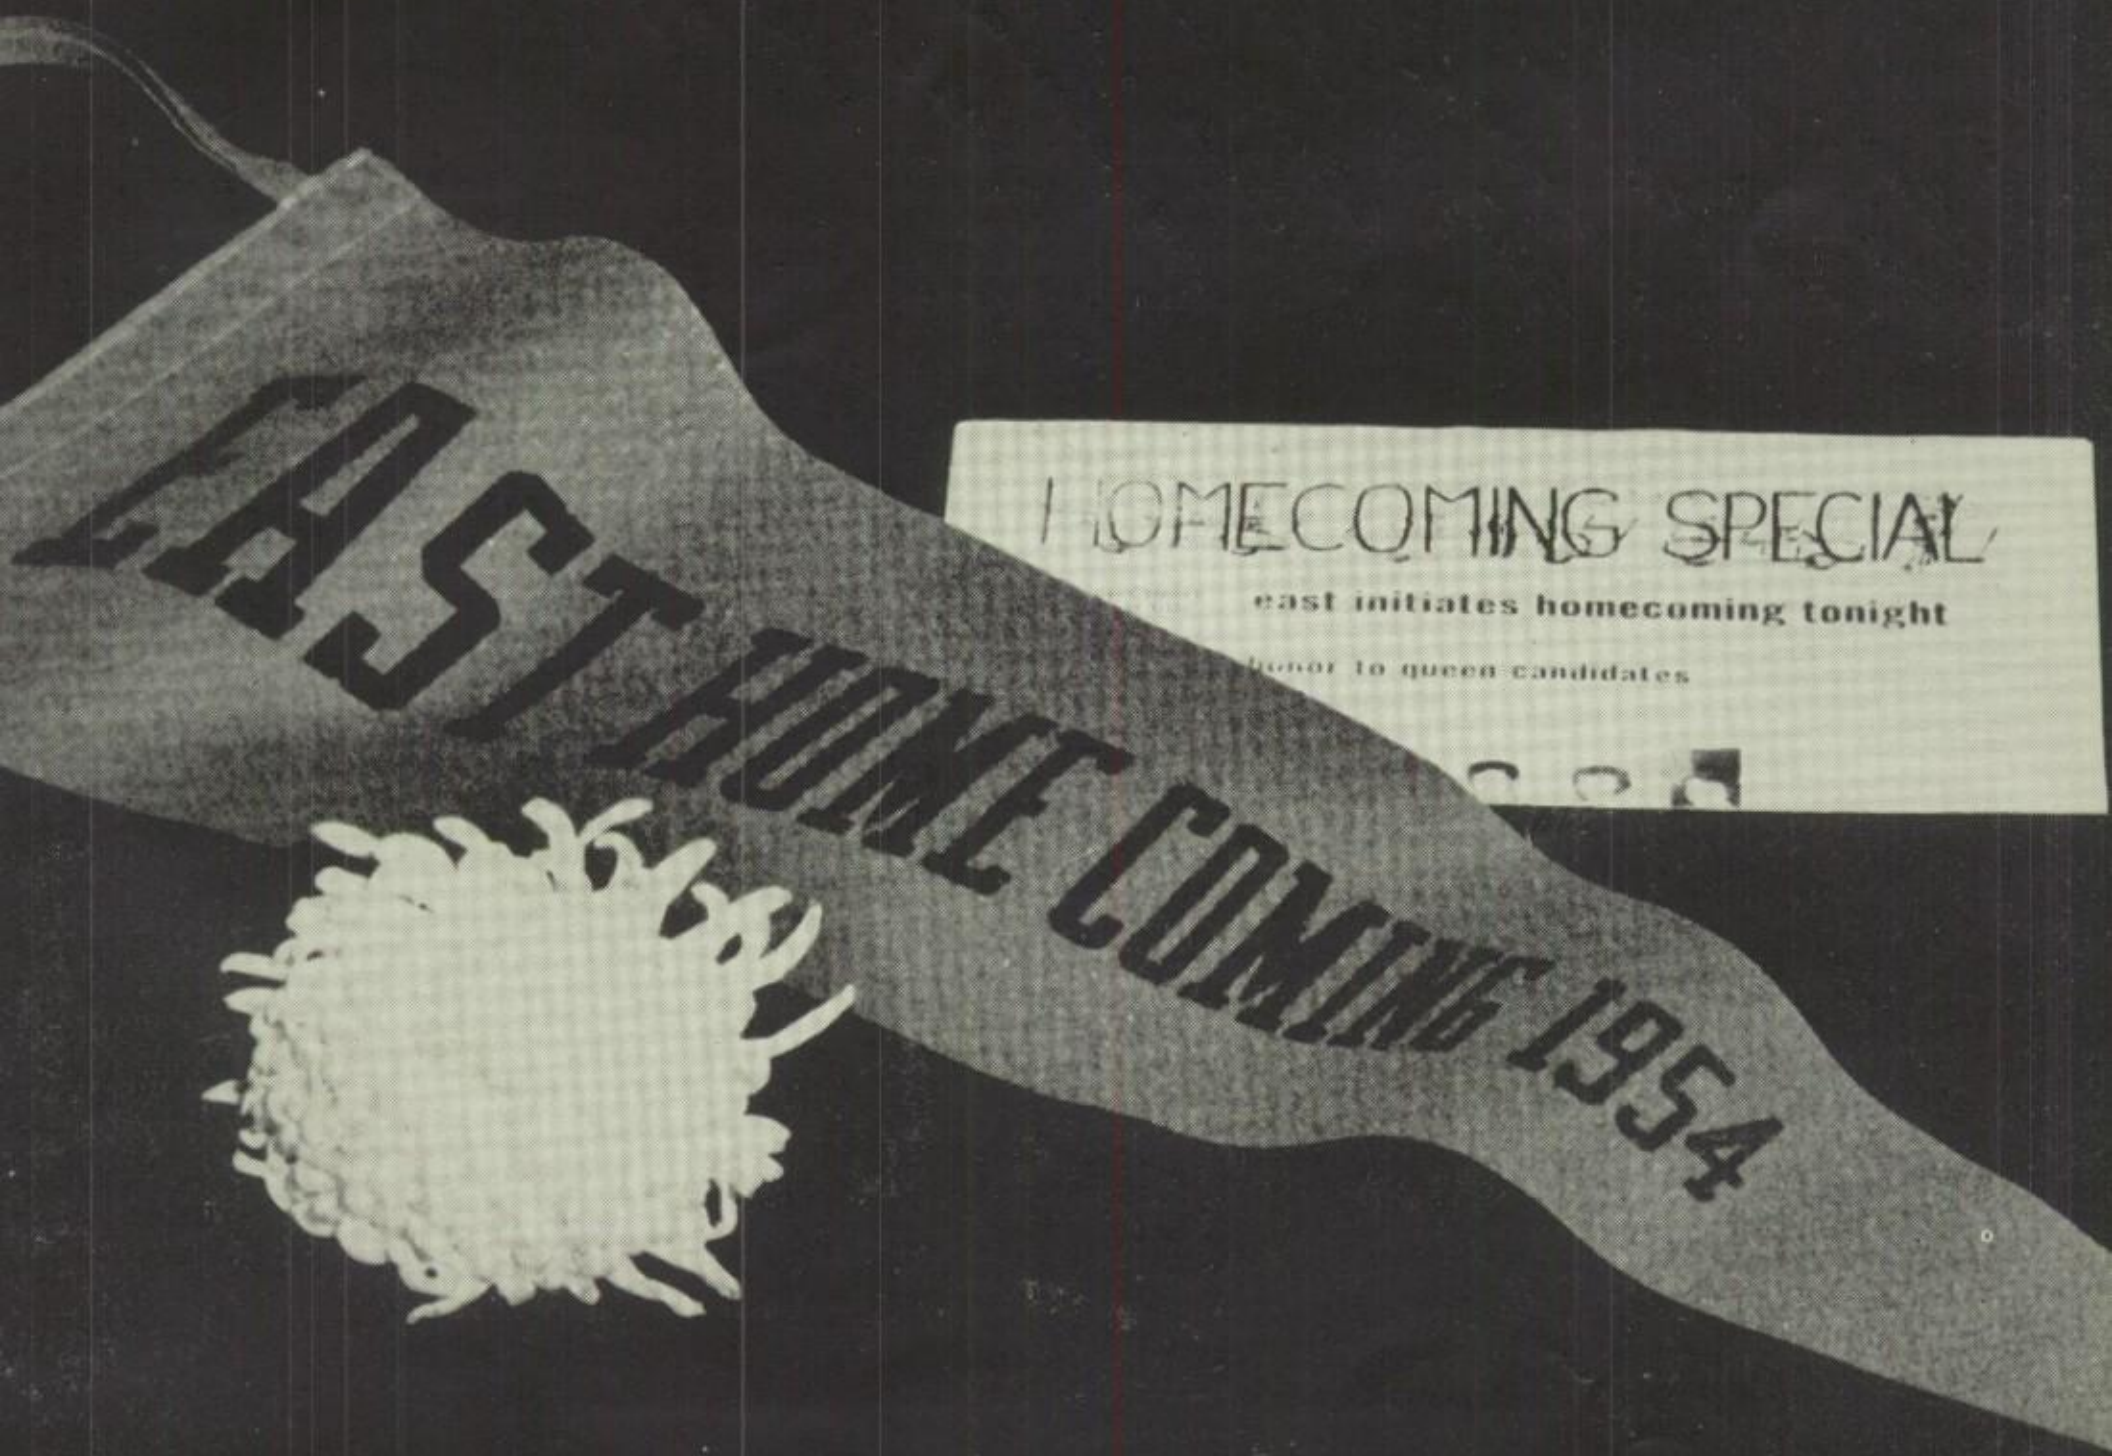

Organizations and Activities

"Complete unity of aim is the traditional condition of genuine and sincere friendship."

Dear Bill,

Kalailu Literary Society

"True Friendship"

"Vera Amicitia Omnia Vincent" or "True Friendship Conquers All," is the motto of East's oldest club, Kalailu Literary Society, which was organized in October, 1926. Kalailu means friendship; the flower is the red rose. Their colors are red and white.

The club was founded to create a greater interest in literary work, to further the study of parliamentary law, and to foster among its members a finer spirit of friendship.

Kalailu was the first club to win the challenge cup of the Homecoming float contest.

This year the club had two sponsors, Mr. David Gott and Mr. Reid Anderson.

Dear Bill,
 Give really more fun than I can tell you. I'm getting as you in spaces. You are the craziest boy I ever had the pleasure of knowing. But, besides all this, I still think you're a really swell guy. Success, always! Your friend always,

KALAILU RUSHEES waited anxiously outside Kalailu Club meeting for their turn to take part in the second semester initiation.

Leundis Literary Society "Once a Leundian"

Leundis Literary Society, the first all-girl club at East, was formed in November, 1926. The name Leundis is derived from three words: LEarning, UNderstanding, and DIScernment. The Leundian colors are rose and grey, and their flower is the sweet pea. They chose for their motto "Once a Leundian, always a Leundian."

This year there were a total of 58 members in L.L.S., with only one inactive member.

Leundis has tried to prove that literary societies should help their community and for the last two years they have unselfishly given up their Christmas party in order to provide food and clothing for a needy family.

RUSHEES GET PAINTED UP before settling down to enjoy a Hamilton rush party held at the home of a brother Hamilton.

The Hamilton Literary Society, which was the first all-boy club at East, was organized in February, 1928. Alexander Hamilton was set as their ideal. The purpose of the club is to develop a greater interest in literature and promote writing. The colors are blue and white, and the sponsor is Mr. Roger H. Moore.

During the past Christmas seasons, the Hamiltons have prepared and sent baskets of food to some of the needy families of the East Side.

The "Hams" put long, hard hours into song practices, preparing for the annual literary contest in which they have always taken an active part.

Their activities included many things, from the informal rush parties to the formal Intersociety Ball.

HAMILTONS turned their attention to their sister club, Leundis, as they entered the auditorium singing the club song.

RUSHEES OFFICIALLY BECAME MEMBERS OF EULEXIA by signing the roll book, after they had given the oath. Old members stood by to pin on their bows.

Eulexia Literary Society

"The Style, The Smile,

Eulexia Literary Society, formed in 1929, was the second all-girl club to be organized at East. The club colors are pink and blue, and the flower is the delphinium. The name Eulexia is more than just a title, for each letter represents a standard to which all members are pledged: E-Excellence, U-Understanding, L-Learning, E-Earnestness, X-Xtraordinary, I-Ideal Girl, A-Ability.

The Eulexians could always be found having a good time at teas and potlucks. Under the guidance of their newly chosen sponsor, Mr. Norman E. Ford, they adopted a family for Christmas and provided food and clothing for them. This variety of activities led to the Lit Contest, main event of the Intersociety Year.

Webster Literary Society

"Black, Gold, and

Webster Literary Society, the youngest boys' club at East, was first organized at East in 1937. The Websters chose black, gold, and crimson for their colors and established their purpose at this time. The purpose of Webster is to stimulate interest in literature and composition and to create a feeling of fellowship among the young men of the club and to promote all things that are good for East. The club is named after Daniel Webster, orator and statesman. The Websters' newly chosen sponsor Mr. Wallace Zackula, shop and drafting instructor, has been at East two years. The sister club of Webster is Eulexia, which is the youngest girls' club.

Webster is the second literary society to defeat all others three years in succession. Their reign began in 1952 when they defeated Kalailu by a margin of ten points.

THE WEBSTERS joined in the refrain of "Davy Crockett" as Harl Hanson and Jerry Knight, their song leaders, kept them in tune.

WEBSTER BROTHERS rushed to congratulate Bill Moore, their declamation representative, when he took first place after giving a scene from "Quo Vadis."

Rush Week

Rushees Faced the Consequences

Teas, potlucks, slumber parties, pennies, and bows are all a part of the meaning of rush week to the lucky students who made the grades, were rushed, and accepted by the club of their choice. In order to be eligible to become a rushee, a student must have had no failing grades, an M average, and at least an S in English. He must have completed one semester of high school work and have been in regular attendance at East for ten weeks.

Rush week in KALAILU is, like in the other clubs, an important event. The KALAILU teas, first semester at the home of Marvin Carlson and second semester at Marvin Rannabargar's house, were gay affairs. The air was scented with perfumes, and between the browns, charcoals, and blues of the boys' outfits were seen the many colors of the girls' party dresses.

The potluck, however, was an entirely different matter. It was at the potluck that the initiation was held. There were no gay colors here. When one was not rolling an olive by his nose or getting his friends a plate of food, he could generally be found bending over and getting paddled.

Rush week began for the second semester LEUNDIS rushees on Monday, February 21, when they attended the tea. The rushees were presented with a rose corsage and told the meaning of LEUNDIS and the standards of the club. The tea was followed by a slumber party where the rushees were served banana surprises and showed their vocal talents in a rushee talent show. The last activity held by the club was the potluck on Tuesday evening, which followed the slumber party. All rushees were required to show their literary ability by reciting an original poem or reading.

The annual HAMILTON rush parties were very successful. Each rushee gave an example of literary talent either in song or in poem.

One of the tasty dishes served to a rushee was a cocoanut cream pie, while a senior member was served a hot dog complete with hot sauce. The invitations to the party were rolled into scrolls, which is the club emblem, and tied with blue ribbons.

During pledge week the pledges wore felt scrolls instead of the traditional blue and white bows. Later, each rushee wore two bows instead of the usual one.

KALAILU RUSHEES paused before devouring the good food served by Kalailu members. Later the rushees recited oral work before old members.

BILLY PROCTOR, Hamilton member, listened carefully to the oral expressions of a rushee as Mr. Moore, club sponsor, turns to talk.

PAT BLAKEMORE, Judy Fortney, and Sondra Kiser instructed first semester rushees in appetite stimulating exercises before a Leundis potluck.

EULEXIAN rushees first met formally with their future sisters at their semi-annual tea, held at the home of their president. Each rushee was required to give an original poem or oral talk after being entertained with special music. Rushees were served by the old members and were given carnation corsages. At the potluck, preceding the tea during both semesters, the rushees wore their clothes backwards in a ceremony for a deceased mouse. Later the rushees held a peanut race and dined on dill pickles and a spicy dish which was served by their EULEXIAN sisters.

EULEXIAN SISTERS, Jean Cunningham, Sally Sieggen, and Sharon Maxon watched carefully as a Eulexian rushee paid the consequences after a potluck.

WEBSTER is one of the few literary societies which do not choose their rushees and members by the secret ballot.

After being selected, each rushee was given small jobs to do such as keeping shoes shined and memorizing an oral reading for the rush party, which was usually held at the president's home. Cake was served to the rushees at this party which had been baked by specially picked WEBSTER bakers.

Rushees were instructed in the meaning of WEBSTER and presented with bows to wear for one week before becoming full-fledged members.

WEBSTER RUSHEES enjoyed a short snack at the home of a brother Webster before starting out on an adventurous evening, touring rush parties held by other clubs.

Intersociety Council and Dance

Through United Efforts Lit Clubs Advanced

Making plans for the Intersociety dance and its added attraction, a king and queen, was part of the first semester council's work. Members met with their sponsor, Mr. James R. Shepherd, to suggest the ideas of their club, and receive suggestions from the other clubs.

The council's goals were to work out and solve the different problems of the Lit Contest, such as getting the tickets ready for sale and seating the clubs. As a new project, they ordered a trophy plaque to be placed in the front hall which will bear the name of the club winning first place this year, as well as the previous years and those in the future.

The Literary Society members, attired in formal wear, visited a replica of French cafes at their annual Intersociety Ball. Les Copley's band provided the music for the first formal dance of the year on January 26.

The highlight of the evening was the crowing of the king and queen by Miss Yoko Magetic from the National College. Bill Moore and Doris Bransteitter were chosen as king and queen by outside judges from nine candidates submitted by the five clubs. They are pictured at left as they led off the first dance after their crowning. At the right is part of the dance crowd.

Outburst

"Keep It Gay," Given

"Keep It Gay" was presented in professional style on November 19 and 20 in the East High Auditorium. The show was under the direction of Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott, who felt the talent was improved over previous years. Miss Etta Marie Wilson, speech and drama instructor, was assistant director and coached the speakers. Sponsoring the many dance acts was Mrs. La Velle Halbert. Mrs. Irene La Fayette supervised the vocal music while Mr. Marion W. Sell wrote arrangements for the orchestra. Miss Agnes K. Crawford decorated the scenes after Mr. James C. Michaels handled the actual building of them. Many other faculty members assisted in the production with publicity and cooperation.

Keeping the evening gay was done in four categories—color, dance, music, and play. This quartet of gaiety was molded into a television program with Tuggie Pence as emcee and Ann Zurn as his "right-hand girl." These two, with their guests, introduced each talent act.

Here, in brief review, are a few of those numbers which made the show a success:

In color there were: "Tuxedo Junction," the seniors' sophisticated jazz line dance; Donna Anderton's piano solo, "Fire Dance"; and the hilarious record pantomime, "Sh-boom," done by Jerry Payne, Royal Field, Richard Agnew, and Joe "Stella" Gregg.

Keeping it gay with play were the East Chordsmen and the sophomore line dance, "42nd Street."

Dancing through to gaiety were Sandy Dickey of "Highland Fling" fame and the nautical junior line dance, "Bell Bottom Blues."

High spots of keeping it gay with music were the singing of the Girls' Glee Club and Carol Porter's violin solo.

The "spectacular" of the show was supplied by Dolores Hornbuckle, who did her dance, "Temptation," in black light.

n Professional Style

The First Outburst was held in March, 1927, and it was truly an "Outburst" as each department in the school participated by having a side show in its classroom.

Ten years ago, the Outburst was held for three nights because of such a demand for tickets. The proceeds from the extra show went to the Red Cross.

When the Outburst was originated, it had three aims; to give pupils an opportunity to do something for the school; to secure cooperation of all the school patrons; and make as much money as possible for items not furnished by the Board of Education.

Through the years, the Outburst has undergone minor changes, but it is truly a tradition which has brought happy memories to those participating and excellent entertainment for the many audiences.

SOFT LIGHTS, crisp new formals, and the warm glow of the coming sun all added to atmosphere as the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Irene LaFayette, sang "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise."

SHARON AND MICKEY HOUK were two little show stoppers.

VIRGINIA HERRON, Joan Coffman, and Naomi Anderson made beautiful music together.

Weston James

DIRECTING THE EAST HIGH BAND was Mr. Marion W. Sell. The band was playing in the Municipal Auditorium at one of our championship basketball games.

CLARINETS: Virginia Herron, Weston James, Fernon Clark, Larry Jones, Walker Finley, Elaine Hawn, Carolyn Graham, Nina Halmark. CORNETS: Ralph Shaw, Jon Statder, Sam Leonard, Wendell Smith, Loren Porter, Kenny Bourett, Wray Renfro, Dennis McCain. FRENCH HORN: Naomi Anderson. OBOE: Sandra Perry. BASS HORN: Gary Harding, Charles Bennett. FLUTES: Janice Leonard, Patt Harvey, Sara Phillips. PERCUSSION: Phillip French, Joan Coffman, Chuck Frevele, Jim Taylor, Kirk Kimbrell. SAXOPHONES: Gary Elting, Fred Fisher, Gwyen Meek, Jo Hedges, Don Showalter, Bob Payne. ALTO CLARINET: Carol Sparks. BASSOON: Don Toburen. TROMBONE: Bill Quattlebaum, Wayne Meek, Johnathan Lewis, Ernie Case. DIRECTOR: Mr. Sell.

ELAINE HAWN, SANDRA PERRY, AND CAROL SPARKS, the East High Majorettes, balanced their batons as they kept step with the East High Band.

CONTESTANTS WHO WERE CHOSEN to go to the State Music Contest in Columbia were, TOP ROW: Weston James, Bob Payne, Fred Fisher, Charles Bennet, Fernon Clark, Ralph Shaw, Gary Elting. BOTTOM ROW: Gary Proctor, Joan Coffman, Jo Ann Hedges, Patt Harvey, Virginia Herron, Janice Leonard, Naomi Anderson, Carol Sparks, Sara Phillips.

"The Band Played On" represents how well and for how many activities our Band played this year under the direction of Mr. Marion W. Sell. With the addition of a new Band Room also came a new piccolo. By means of storage space for instruments, uniforms, and music, a soundproof practice room, and a private office, the Band was run more efficiently. Other added activities were an evening program in which the Band participated and a dinner for the Band members.

Marching in parades, providing peppy music for football and basketball games, and playing for assemblies were a few of the traditional activities. The yearly Band Assembly was highlighted by the Playing of "The New Crusade," which was written by Mr. Sell.

Technical ability on instruments was constantly being improved, evidence of which was shown by entrants from our Band in the State Music Contest. It was proved that the members liked playing their instruments in the Band by their interest in music, both inside and outside of school. Their fine work was truly appreciated.

Orchestra

An Inseparable Part of School

FLUTES: Janice Leonard, Patt Harvey. OBOE: Joyce Walls. CLARINETS: Weston James, Virginia Herron. BASSOON: Don Toburen. ALTO SAXOPHONES: Gwyn Meek, Darlene Witt. TENOR SAXOPHONE: Robert Payne. HORNS: Naomi Anderson, Jerry Hoover, Dale Garner. TRUMPETS: Ralph Shaw, Tommy Land, Gerold Ethridge. TROMBONES: Jonathon Lewis, Robert Lowe. VIOLINS: Carol Porter (Concert Mistress), Beulah Reinmiller, Shirley Davis, Bonnie Rogers, James Sullens. CELLO: Robert Kost. BASS: Jacqueline McKeage. PIANO: Linda Ramsey, Donna Anderton. DIRECTOR: Mr. Sell.

The Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Marion W. Sell, was quite active around school this year. They provided the gay music for the Outburst and accompanied the acts of the exchange assemblies with other high schools. They provided the music for the National Honor Society Assembly and played at the Graduation Exercises. Three members of the Orchestra, Carol Porter, Gary Elting, and Jacquelin McKeage, were chosen to play in the All-City Orchestra. Carol was chosen Mistress. The Orchestra Festival, held May 6, was another of their accomplishments.

CONTINUAL PRACTICE kept our orchestra sounding good. Here, busy at work, are Donna Anderton at the piano, Carol Porter and Beulah Reinmiller, violinists, and Robert Kost, cellist.

CONCERT MISTRESS was a high honor, and Carol Porter, standing, was proud to have held this position.

Girls' Chorus

Their Singing Enjoyed by All

The first appearance made by the Girls' Chorus was in the Outburst. They added a great variety of color to the show in their formals as they sang "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise" and "Me and My Shadow." The next program scheduled by the group was the Easter Assembly in which they sang, "Be Thou Not Still, O Lord." The last event in which they participated was the All-City Girls' Chorus Festival held on April 26 at the Television Playhouse. The two selections they chose to sing were "All Suddenly the Wind Comes Soft" and "Be Thou Not Still, O Lord." The girls joined in with the other schools singing two mass numbers. Seeing that every voice was on pitch, teaching the fundamental of vocal music, and blending all the voice qualities together was accomplished by their director, Mrs. Irene Lafayette. Assisting her on the piano was Mrs. Martha Kay. All the music they sang was composed of three parts.

A Cappella Choir

Successful Year for a Busy Choir

IT WAS A CHILLY NIGHT in Loose Park when the A Cappella Choir sang for the Epiphany Services.

Over a period of years, the A Cappella Choir has become one of East High's most enjoyable traditions. Under the direction of Mrs. Irene Lafayette and accompanied by their pianist, Mrs. Martha Kay, they started the year off by singing for the State Teacher's Convention. Then, during the year that followed, they made several appearances in assemblies and as guest entertainers at various organizations throughout the city. At Christmas time, they not only staged their regular procession and program, but were also asked to sing on television and at the Epiphany Services held at Loose Park. The Choir also sang evening concerts for several churches.

This, one of their most successful years, was brought to a close by their singing at the All-City Choir Festival. East can well be proud of its vocal music department.

Twelve handsome fellows with well-blended voices form East's Chordmen, an important part of the music department. These boys were kept busy this year performing in assemblies and before small business groups. They were a high spot of the Outburst and had encores when they sang at Central High School in an exchange assembly.

The girls' group, the Chordettes, were also a treat to hear. They took part in the Glee Club Festival at the TV Playhouse and sang at both Christmas and Easter Assemblies. The Chordettes often add their voices to the Girl's Glee Club. Both of these groups took first places in the Missouri State Music Contest.

Mr. Mabbott is the director of the Freshman Chorus, which is made up of both boys and girls from the ninth grade. This year, the group sang as a major part of the Freshman Assembly.

THE FRESHMAN CHORUS, directed by Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott, sang at the Freshman Assembly.

John Ekstrom
President, First Semester

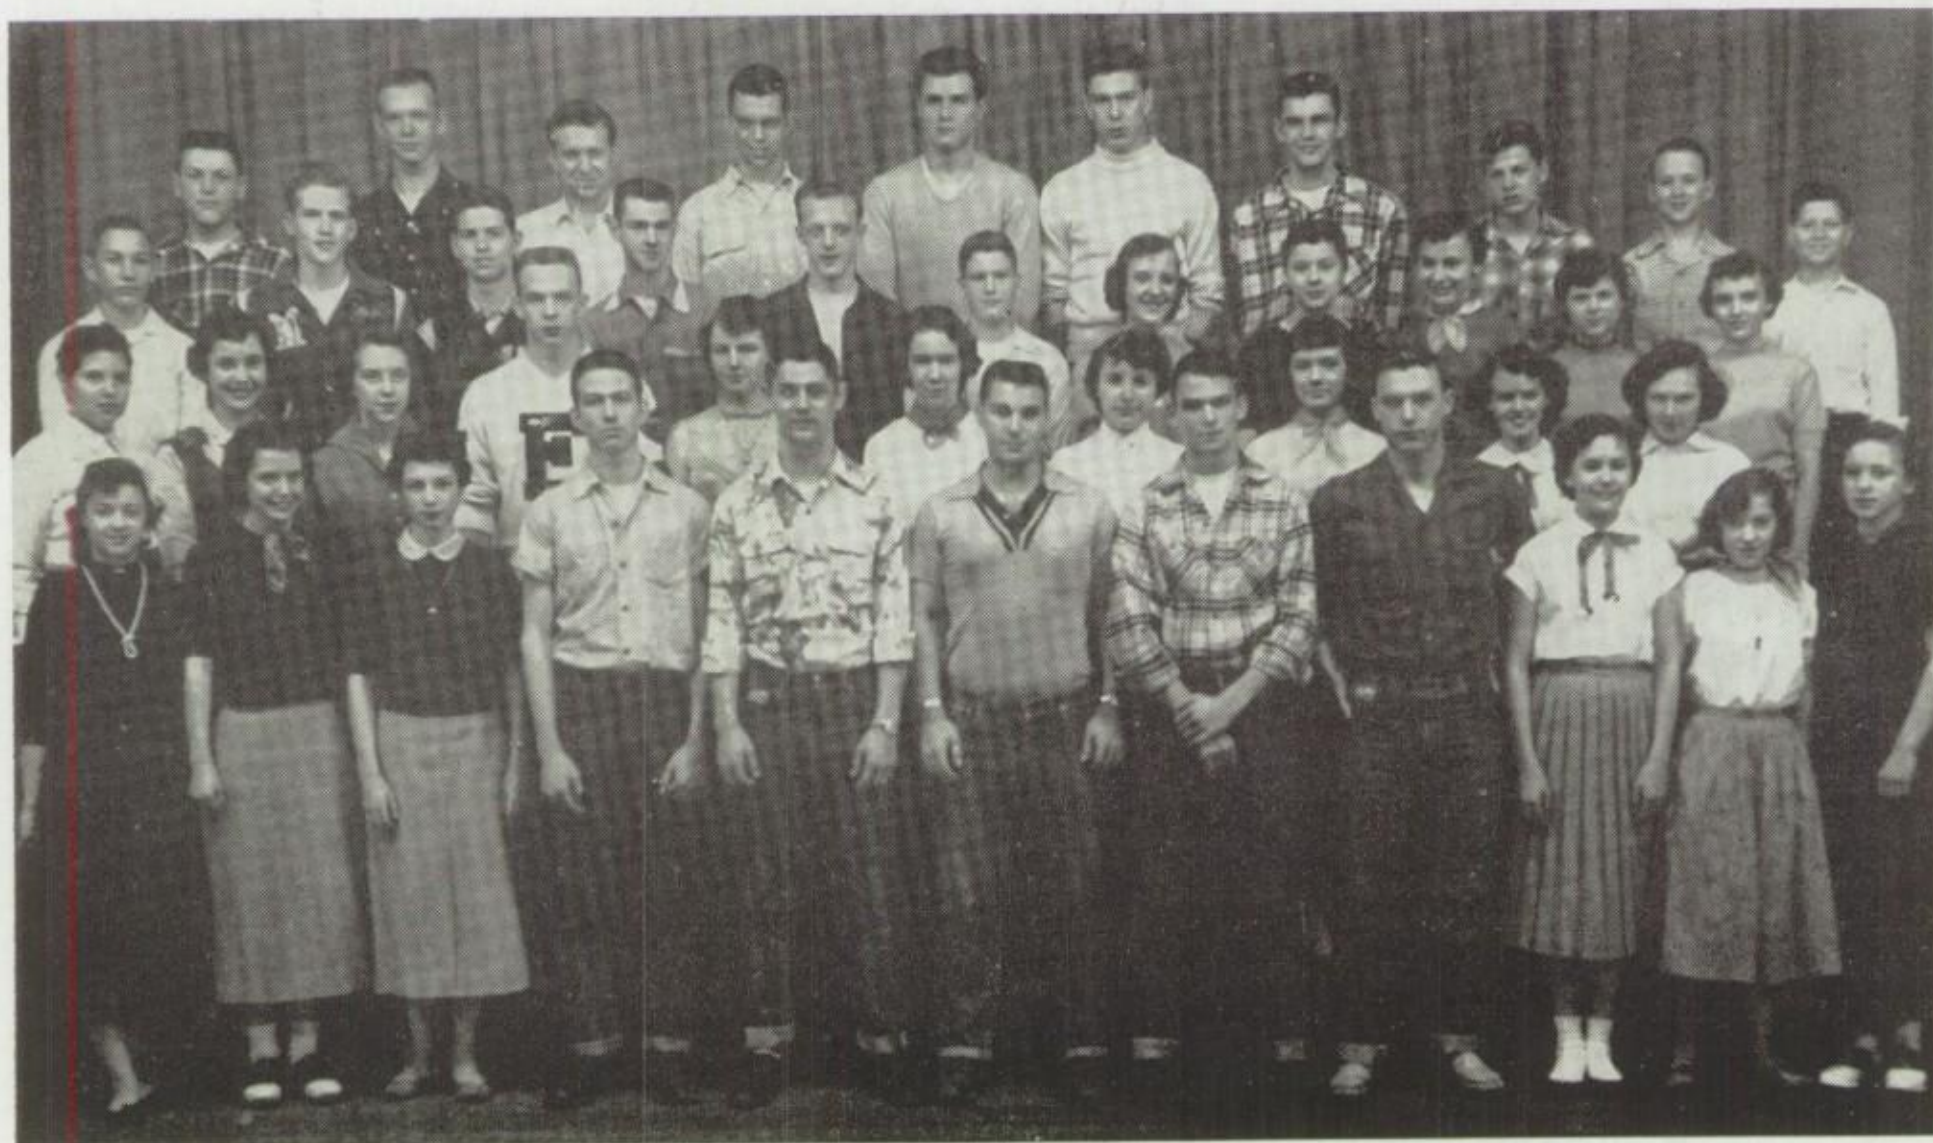

The Student Council started their activities by having an open meeting in assembly led by their capable president, John Ekstrom. He was assisted by the vice-presidents, Sondra Kiser, and Glenn Peake.

This year our council introduced the "School Spirit" committee. It was the job of this committee to publicize all activities around East. They made posters for Homecoming, the Outburst, and Safe Driving Day; and along with other members of the council sold tickets for our championship football team.

The Homecoming mixer, held in cooperation with the Eastonian staff, and a Christmas mixer were achieved by our council. They also redecorated the trophy cases, worked on revising "The Social Code," and promoted good will by sending sympathy and get-well cards to the faculty and students.

Responsibilities Handled Efficiently

The first job of the second semester student council was the John N. Broadlick award assembly. Last year's winners, Dolores Elting and Don Turrentine, received their pins at this time. The award is announced to the winners at commencement. Each year a boy and girl will be chosen by a committee of faculty and students on the basis of citizenship in memory of our past vice-principal.

The executive council attended a dinner and talent show held at William Chrisman High School, proving that pleasure and business go hand in hand.

Entertainment presented by the council was the basketball victory mixer, held in cooperation with the Pep Club. Later, our first exchange assembly of the year, promoted by the council, was presented by Central High School.

The council continued to bring the faculty and student body together by sending get-well and sympathy cards to both.

Handbooks for the sub-freshman containing important facts, yells, and songs kept the council busy for the remainder of the semester.

Under the able guidance of their new sponsor, Miss Anna K. McGloin, the Junior Red Cross again came to the aid of the needy. We packed a "Friendship Chest" which was sent to a school overseas. Donna Ohlson, Sally Sieggen, and Don Reed demonstrated the packing of this chest for a television program. The Red Cross Drive was a success, bringing in $171.03. Through attendance at the Training Camp at Unity, new ideas and projects were presented to our Chapter. Meeting students from other schools and learning what their Chapters were doing gave an inspiration to our representatives. As members of the Junior Red Cross, it is our aim to be always ready to help those in need and to be willing to lend a helping hand to people less fortunate than we.

Service Groups Promoted College Day

Scholasticae Centum

Scholasticae Centum is a group of high school girls chosen by the American Association of University Women to belong to their organization. These young ladies are honored because of their citizenship and scholastic ability during their sophomore year. The junior group of the A.A.U.W. consists of twelve members in each high school and one hundred members throughout Kansas City.

Through an annual brunch and tea at the Sophian Plaza, these members have an opportunity to get better acquainted and receive encouragement to attend college. The desire for further education is passed on to others by means of College Night, an addition to East's activities. At this activity the A.A.U.W. members serve as hostesses to the many college representatives.

Future Teachers of America

The John N. Broadlick Club, or the Future Teachers of America as it is generally called, has become an active organization here at East. Its purpose has been to promote good citizenship and high ideals and to encourage more students to consider teaching as a career. The Future Teachers also backed College Night and tried to promote good attendance at this event. With their sponsor, Mr. Dix, the members held discussions on scholarships, different fields of teaching, and the advantages and disadvantages of the profession. The officers who presided over the meetings were:

The Y-Teens, which is the junior branch of the Y.W.C.A., was founded in a concern for the spiritual and physical needs of younger women in an industrialized society, and has approximately 30 high school members and 22 sub-freshman members. There are now more than 300,000 members in 6,000 clubs all over the United States.

One of the biggest activities of our Y-Teens this year was the boy and girl relations lectures which were discussions and movies held at the Y-hut in cooperation with the Y.W.C.A. and Mr. P. K. Hodak, executive secretary of the Kansas City Social Hygiene Council. Other activities of the year included celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Y and holding a potluck dinner at the home of one of the Y-teen members. Swimming at the Y.W.C.A. headed

Hi-Y

Dedicated to Youth

The East Branch of the Y.M.C.A. is dedicated to the objective of developing Christian leaders in a Christian society.

The Junior Hi-Y was open to boys in the 8th and 9th grades and the Senior Hi-Y to sophomores through seniors. The clubs met in the evening for a devotion, discussion speakers, movies, and an active sports program. One subject studied by the senior group was a course on dating and marriage relations.

OUTDOOR FARM WORK gives Drumm boys such good health that they are seldom absent from school. Here Charles Frakes and another boy dig out a stump.

THE BOYS OPERATE THEIR OWN LAUNDRY. Dick Allington, Ronnie Gloth, Archie Derrington, and a grade school boy were ironing shirts.

BOYS ALTERNATE IN CREWS of four at kitchen work—cooking, dish washing, and cleaning. James Smith was preparing dinner.

BOYS CARE FOR THEIR OWN ROOMS AND CLOTHING. Paul Perryman and Jerry Smith were making their beds before breakfast in the morning.

Drumm Institute

Boys Were Kept Busy

The Drumm Institute is a home for boys located about five miles south of Independence. The boys from Drumm who attend East stay here for four hours, then return home for vocational agriculture classes and study. The boys' programs are really full—in addition to school and study each day, there are farm chores, sports, 4-H and FFA activities, and many outside events to occupy their time. Each boy is expected to maintain an M or better grade average, and if he fails to do so, he cannot go away from Drumm on school nights. Most of the boys have at least two hours of farm chores—milking, feeding cattle, hogs, or sheep, washing dishes, or cleaning house—to complete after breakfast and before supper. After supper there is free time for sports; then an hour of study hall before bedtime at nine o'clock.

With School and Farm

The sports program at Drumm is designed to allow every boy who wants to participate a chance to do so. With only forty-eight boys, there are three teams each in football, basketball, track and baseball. Even with only twelve men on the A football team, most of them underclassmen, the team had a record of eight wins and one loss; and the East B team was one of the eight. The final event of the football season was a game of Drumm vs. Drumm and the sides were made up of all ages, from grade school through seniors. The winners were treated to a malt by the losers. The teams at Drumm usually play schools in Independence, as well as East and Southeast in Kansas City.

The total program at Drumm enables boys to receive an education as well as training for responsibility and leadership.

THE DRUMM SWEATER PROGRAM provides awards for Scholarship, Citizenship, 4-H and FFA activities, and Sports. Recipients were Gary Kauffman, Jack Ballas, Ronald Bartley, George Pearl, James Smith, Ted Ballas, and Dean Logan.

ONE OF THE TWO DORMITORIES at Drumm, this building houses the younger boys, the kitchen and dining room, and the central heating plant.

A SCIENCE FAIR EXHIBIT, one of the annual activities of Drumm's Vocational Agriculture program, was being examined by Bob Creek and Bob Perryman.

CARING FOR THE FARM ANIMALS is an important part of every boy's daily work. Here Don Baker takes a bale of straw for bedding.

Future Farmers of America Attaining Valuable Experience

The Drumm FFA Chapter has long been known around the state as a chapter which enters contests to win and usually does so. At this year's District Contest, where as many as thirty teams participated, Drumm teams won five out of the eight contests. These were the events they won: Public Speaking, Meat Judging and Identification, Dairy Judging, Dairy Products Judging, and Poultry Judging. Daily experience in farm work at Drumm gives the boys training for their FFA work. They provide their own meat supply, feed and select farm animals, and care for project animals as well. Each boy has a choice of broilers, a market pig, a ewe and lamb, a baby beef, or a garden project—providing useful farm experience. One of the highlights of the summer is the annual camping trip. Last August the boys camped at Lake Carlos, Minnesota. They caught and ate over three hundred fish; and the swimming was excellent!

THE MEMBERS OF THIS RADIO SKIT TEAM were George Hobe, James Smith, Ted Ballas, Kenny Wall, Bob Jackson, Roy Austin, Joe Fitzpatrick, and Dean Logan.

THE PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE TEAM MEMBERS were Joe Fitzpatrick, Bob Jackson, Dick Barth, Ronald Bartley, Dean Logan, and chairman, George Pearl.

Drivers' Education

63 Students Enrolled in Driver's Ed.

This year approximately 63 students enrolled in Drivers' Education. Every Monday the entire class met with Mr. Virland Harris, their instructor. At this time they discussed the problems of sportsman-like driving, and witnessed demonstrations in parking and other subjects pertaining to driving.

During the week, each student spent one hour in the car either during class time or his lunch hour. The rest of the week was spent in the study hall studying the textbook.

Each spring, Mr. Harris takes a girl and a boy to a district driving contest held at Warrensburg, Missouri.

The car used by the students is equipped with two brakes and two clutches. This enables Mr. Harris to stop the car if the student driver's reflexes are not rapid enough.

SHARON HAASE, Frances Martin, and Linda O'Dell listened attentively as Donna Taylor explained the parts of the engine while Ronnie Johnson stepped on the gas.

Stage Crew

Ready and Willing to Do the Job

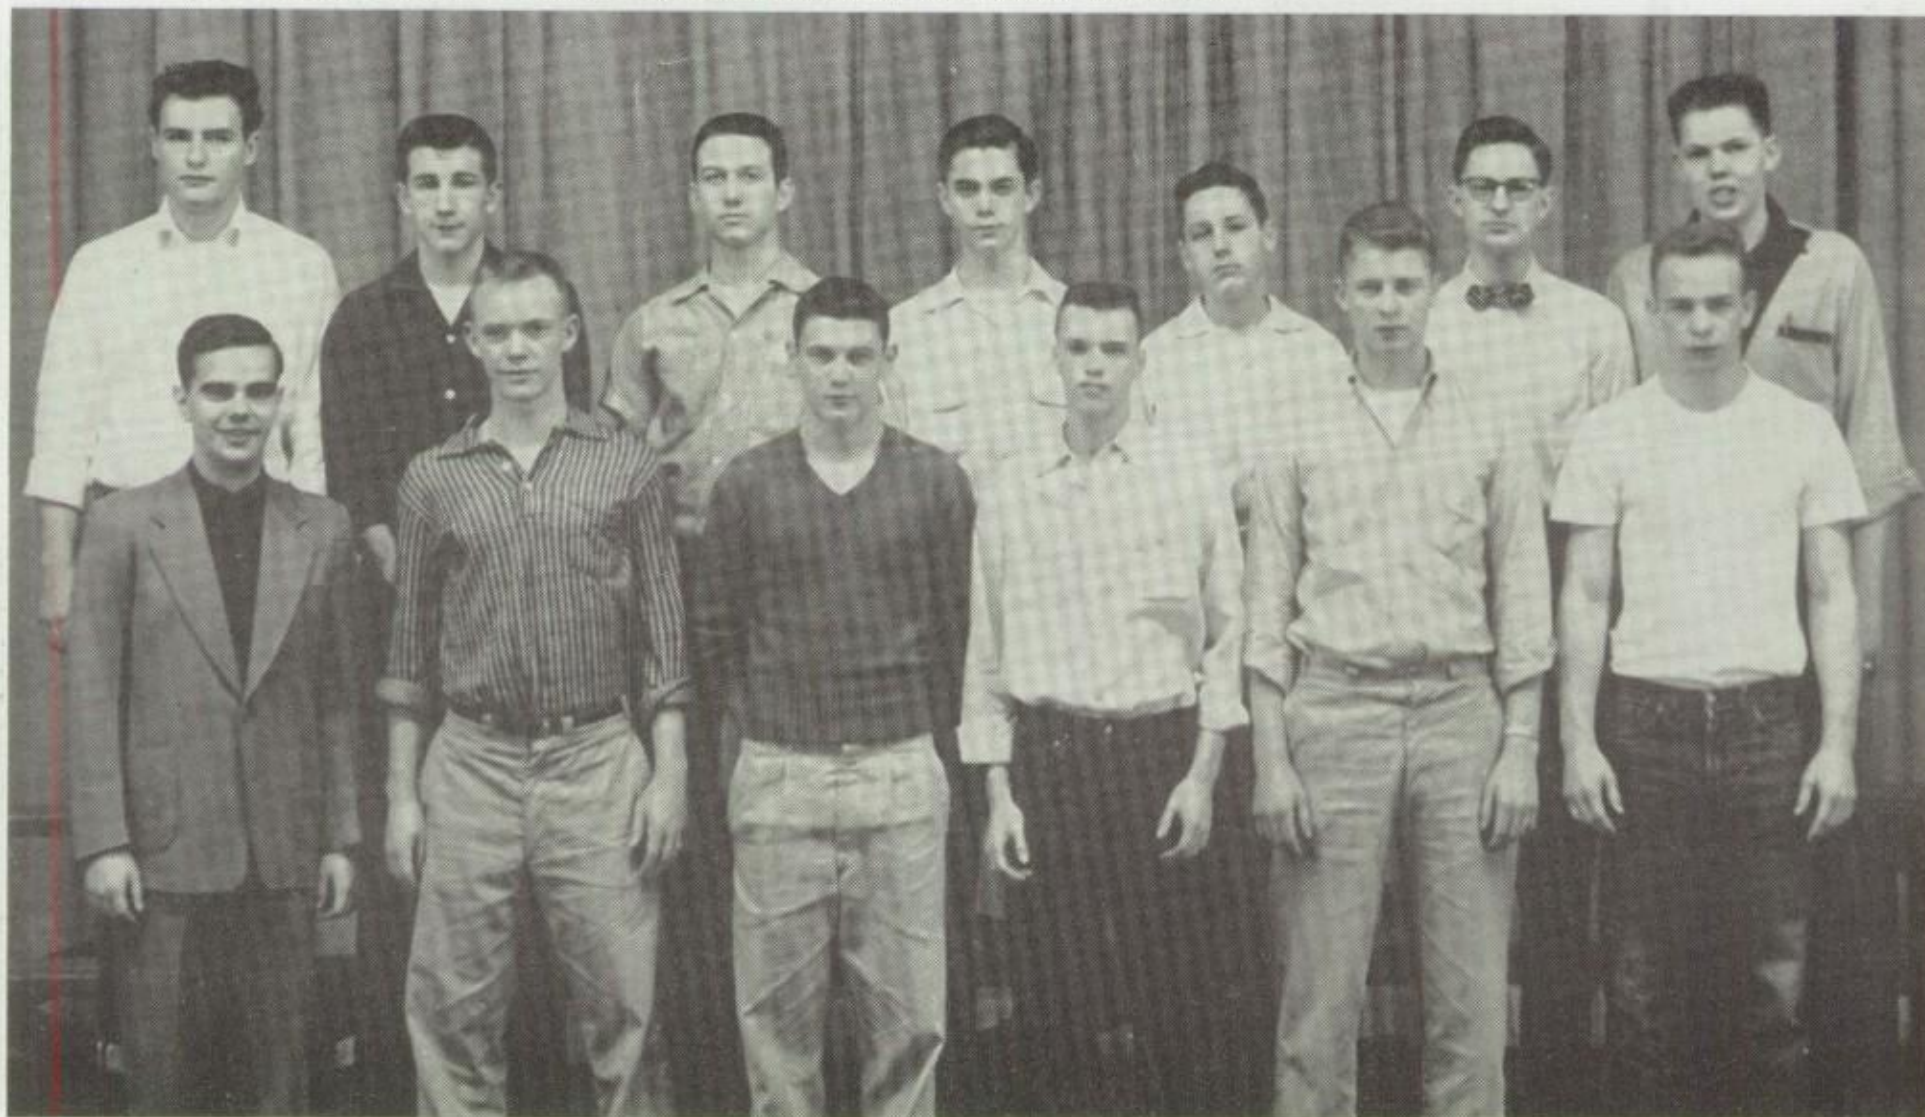

THE LIGHT PANEL presented a problem for stage crew members but Marvin Carlson tried to explain the problem to Larry Jones as Joe Gregg looked on.

Ever ready and willing to do the job, the stage crew was a good example of "East on the go." Plays, assemblies, Outburst—all kept the crew busy at work. This year, as in the last fourteen years, Mr. James C. Michaels was the crew's leader and sponsor. Under his direction, the problems which arose during productions were skillfully worked out. At the end of the year, Mr. Michaels sponsored a picnic for the boys on the crew.

There were 14 boys on the stage crew this year, each of whom performed many small jobs as well as their regular duties. Spotlights, curtains, scenery, lighting—all required careful doing, and kept the fellows on their toes. In recognition of his aid and leadership, the members of the crew presented Mr. Michaels with a gift at the close of the Outburst.

Athenians

"We're Sisters, One and All"

"The Athenian girl is the ideal girl. We're sisters, one and all." This is the first phrase of the Athenian's song which represents the ideals and aims of all Athenians. With their sponsor, Miss Helen Cox, they tried to maintain their aim of becoming better leaders in sports and sportsmanship. Their jackets of blue and grey could be seen at all the activities and Intramural sports that took place at East. The achievements of this year were sponsoring a basketball game between the Junior and Senior girls and being hostesses at the annual Baseball Sportsday. Their officers were:

Spanish Club

Spanish American Customs Practiced

"El perro y su imagen" ("The dog and his image") and "El Verso" ("The verse") are firmly fixed in the memory of each Spanish student, because each test contains a question about them.

Besides learning to speak Spanish, the Spanish Club had many and varied activities, such as their annual Christmas party held in connection with the F. B. L. A. The club colors are yellow and red, and their sponsor is Mr. F. N. Cummins.

Latin Club

Ancient Language Brought to Life

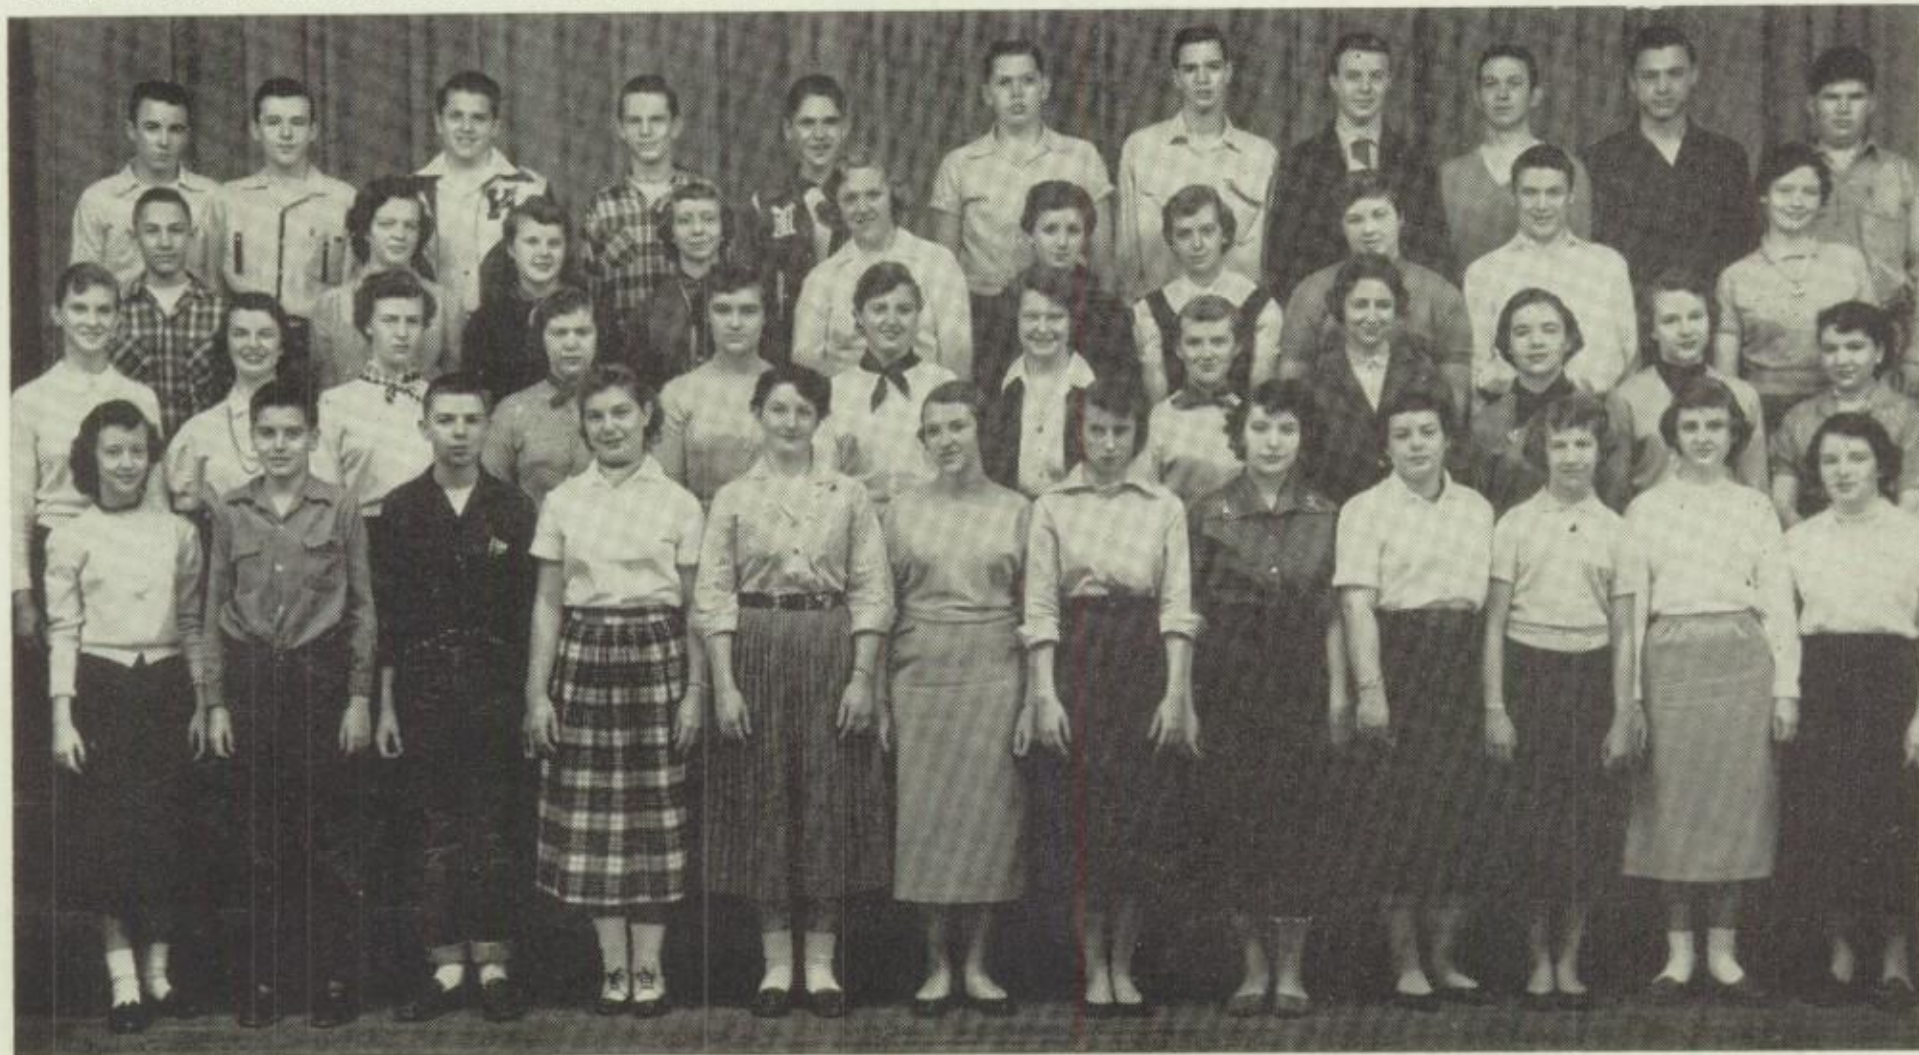

SECOND YEAR LATIN STUDENTS studied and discussed their Valentine's Day play. Elton Villines, dressed in a white toga, played the Roman groom.

Among the first activities of the Latin Club this year was their performance at the Latin Teachers' Convention, held downtown at the Hotel Phillips this winter. The Latin Club members demonstrated a model meeting complete with a play and initiation ceremony for the visiting teachers.

Christmas, Valentine's Day, and Easter were celebrated by Miss Virginia McClure's Latin Classes by passing out cards among the students. Each card contained a Latin verse and it was the job of each club member to read and translate his greeting to the class.

The Latin Club is one of the few departmental clubs which hold their meetings on alternate Tuesdays during class period. Their final meeting was the picnic held at Swope Park near the end of the school year.

RUTH BUCK, president of the Future Homemakers of America, called the meeting to order while Miss Nowlin, their sponsor, looked on.

Learning to be a good hostess as well as being a good cook is important in the lives of all Future Homemakers of America. For this reason a new custom was started in their club this year. At each meeting three girls prepared the refreshments and acted as hostesses to their sister F. H. A. members. This not only gave their meeting an air of gaiety but helped to prepare the girls for their future life.

These are the officers who aided their sponsor, Miss Genevieve Nowlin:

Future Business Leaders of America

Furthering Their Abilities for Leadership

Members of the Future Business Leaders of America were especially happy when departmental clubs met, for that meant they would have another inviting club session, supervised by their charming and able sponsor, Miss Mabel Mary Cobb.

This year the F. B. L. A. promoted Business Education Week and sponsored a good-grooming and posture campaign.

Members of this organization have always stood for sound business preparation—that is their goal!

Art Club

Promoting the Appreciation of Art

AT ONE OF THE INTERESTING MEETINGS of the Art Club, Pat Walker discussed with some of the other members the qualities of one of her paintings.

The Art Club is an organization which has been at East since September 29, 1946, where boys and girls join together for the purpose of promoting the enjoyment of art through a better understanding of it. Their motto is, "Art is everywhere." Miss Agnes Crawford, sponsor and teacher of art, is interested in Art Club members as artists, students and friends. Their colors are blue and orange. The achievements and highlights of the year were the Spring Picnic and visiting the Nelson Art Gallery and the Kansas City Museum. The officers of the Art Club were:

Speakers' Bureau Contests Took Time of Speakers

Creative writing might serve as a good definition for the public speaking class, formally known as the Speakers' Bureau. Varied subjects from current affairs to a rollicking dramatization of an adaptation from Dragnet were heard during the year. Taking part in contests such as the "I Speak for Democracy" contest and the Constitutional contest were other activities of the club. Under the direction of Miss Eva VanNatta, their sponsor, the Speakers' Bureau participated in Open House with speeches on "Teaching as a Career." Officers were:

The Engineers' Club of East was organized in 1934 to foster a greater interest in engineering. During the past year several films have been shown which proved very interesting to the club members. In the past years there have been several interesting field trips.

The club colors are green and white, and the emblem is the gear wheel. Meetings are held twice a month, and membership is open to boys enrolled in industrial arts, mathematics, and science.

The club has two capable sponsors, Mr. McClure and Mr. Tiefel.

Masqueraders

Entertained East With Two Plays

DARLEEN CASE practiced tripping over a suitcase while Sondra Kiser, the murderess, discussed the plot with Rusty Hales.

True to their name, the Masqueraders submerged their real personalities twice during the last year to bring us the much-enjoyed plays, "Nine Girls" and "You Can't Kiss Caroline." These plays were more than just acting on the stage, for through them the students learned make-up, stage setting, and scenery painting.

The club, however, had other activities besides those of the footlights and curtain. Under the direction of Miss Wilson, club supervisor and drama coach, they put up a candidate for Eastonian Queen and held a successful Valentine party.

AFTER THEIR UNDIGNIFIED ARRIVAL, Sondra Kiser had to sit on Carol Porter to keep her from hurting Darleen Case. Helen Hogan looked on with disgust.

This year the Drama Class took a step forward by adding the January Play to its presentation list.

A secluded sorority clubhouse, with the grandfather of all mountain storms raging outside, sets the scene for "Nine Girls," the mysterious play presented by the Masqueraders January 14.

The plot began to unfold when the brutal murder of Paula, one of the sorority members, was announced over the radio. The girls were horrified at the news, and Alice had just received a letter from Paula which supplied an important clue. The knowledge she held caused the murderer to strike again and Alice was found poisoned the next day. Everyone believed Alice had committed suicide except Eve, who explained her theory to her best friend, Mary. The play came to a dramatic ending when Eve discovered she had been confiding with the real murderess and was almost a victim herself.

Sondra Kiser kept the audience in suspense as Mary. Darleen Case added spice to the play as Shotgun. Alice, the murderer's second victim, Darlene Johnston. Jane, the resourceful medical student, Helen Hogan. Eve, the self-appointed detective, Rusty Hales. Glamourpuss, a whiz at Shakespeare, Carol Porter. Frieda, the mechanical genius, Judy Sieker. Phyllis, an inquisitive freshman, Pat Blake-more. Betty, known as "Tennessee," Joyce Alderman. Shirley, one of the pledges, Carol Hopkins.

January Play

"Nine Girls"—Success as First January Play

DARLEEN CASE RAN FOR HER LIFE, to the amazement of Helen Hogan and Judy Sieker, after she accidentally threw her javelin and punctured the tire on Carol Porter's car.

JOYCE ALDERMAN AND CAROL HOPKINS come in covered with mud after falling out of the car Carol Porter was driving. Sondra Kiser stood by to hear what happened.

WRITING HER OWN DEATH LETTER, Darlene Johnston was unaware of Sondra's murder plan for her.

"SHE NEEDS RUBBER CEMENT?" Joe Gregg, Bob Payne, Lloyd Bedsworth, and Tuggie Pence stared at Beverly Tryon.

"YOU MEAN THAT, JOE? Because if you didn't like the way I am, I'd change." Beverly and Lloyd got chummy.

"I PICTURE YOU more as—well, like Miss Jameson." Delores Adams listened in as Donna Ohlson predicted Beverly Tryon's future.

Spring Play

"You Can't Kiss Caroline" Well Received

The East welcome mat was rolled out to a full house March 25 as "You Can't Kiss Caroline," the annual spring play, was presented.

A drugstore where the high school students came in for cokes and dancing proved to be the setting for the play.

The plot got under way when a bet was made by the boys that Joe could not kiss Caroline, who was a new girl in the neighborhood. Joe was to be allowed the private use of the boys' jalopy if he won the bet. If he couldn't kiss her, the boys would share it among themselves.

At first things looked bad, because Caroline found out about the bet, but she got over her irritation and all turned out well.

There was never a dull moment because the complete cast made the baffling situations funnier than ever by catching the audience off guard with many unexpected happenings.

Assemblies

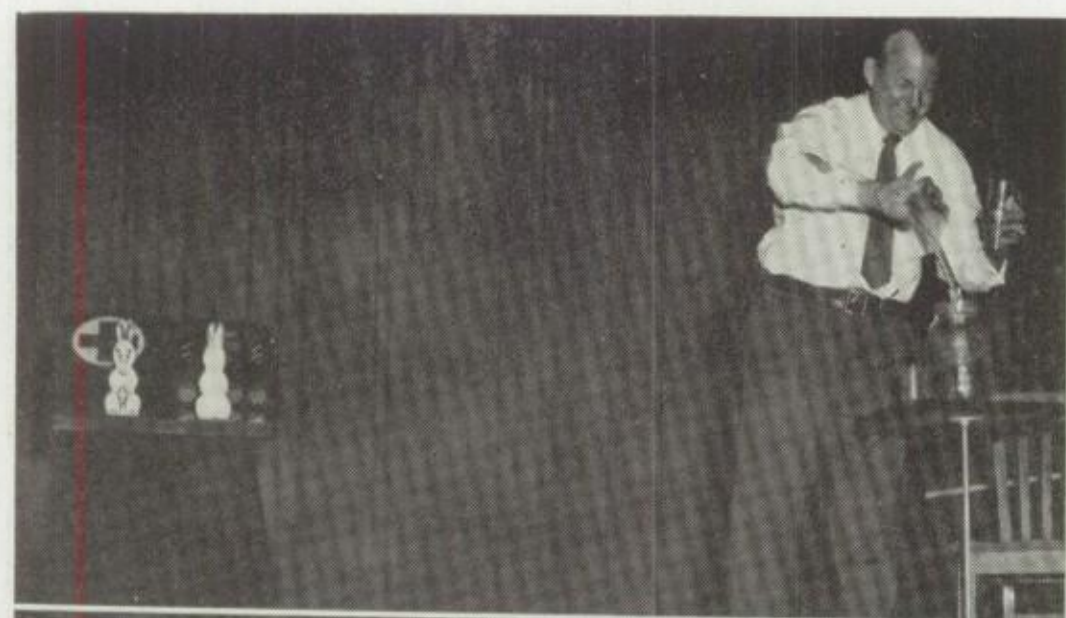

A Pause

"Just a little more of this should do the trick." And it certainly did, for the safety assembly was one of the most enjoyed of the year. Sgt. Carl S. Pike's pocketful of magic tricks caused much comment and much laughter. His lesson on safe driving went home to everyone.

With championship teams like ours, what coach wouldn't be proud to speak his part? Coach Sebastian became a familiar sight at pep assemblies during the basketball season. He, together with the audience and cheerleaders, spirited our cagers on to victory.

Good advice to the students is a premium policy of the speakers Mr. Williams chooses. Reverend Fisher, who spoke to us this year, was very impressive in his vivid speech, "Walking Against the Wind."

The Annual Eastonian kick-off assembly was fun for the school and profitable for the staff. The cast included members of the staff, the football and basketball boys, the Homecoming Queen, Intersociety Queen, R.O.T.C. Queen, and the "Sh-Boom" act. "Down You Go" was an all-star skit.

That Refreshed

The Broadlick award assembly brought back the memory of Mr. John N. Broadlick, former Vice-Principal of East. The featured speaker was Mr. A. G. Spizzarri, who presented the good citizenship awards to Don Turrentine and Delores Elting.

Many choral groups and musical assemblies come to East from our surrounding area. This year many choirs came, including that of the University of Kansas City, which is shown here entertaining East High students in an assembly.

Larrene Burgess was this year's winner of the American Legion Oratorical Award. In assembly, she gave her winning oration and was presented a $25 savings bond by Mr. Don Hilkey, commander of the local Legion post.

A new innovation this year was the Student Council assembly. An actual council meeting was held on stage, where everyone could see and learn more about the Council's procedures.

The goal of the Echo Staff is to produce sixteen issues a year filled with news, editorials, and features of interest to everyone. The first Echo Staff was composed of ten girls and ten boys selected from the student body. The Echo is distributed on alternate Thursdays during home room time. This year the Echo Staff, under the direction of Mrs. Gladys H. Papas, voted to use capital letters in the flag and headline. This hasn't been practiced for four years.

For the first time in Eastonian history every picture used, other than portraits, was processed in our own dark room. Bob Childs spent hours there, ably assisted by Rusty Hales and Dean Hickson after their art work was completed. Bob also was constantly on the job taking pictures, along with Don Lehman and our junior photographer, Marvin Carlson. Always ready to help where needed, Rusty and Dean completed all necessary art work for the book ahead of schedule, as well as providing display material for Homecoming and our sales campaign.

Sharon Haase, layout editor, also filled in wherever needed after the dummy was completed. Assisted by Darlene Drake and, in the sports section, Jim Cooper, she kept paste-ups, layout changes, and cut production moving.

Our literary editor, Janice Leonard, assisted by Frances Martin, and with the supervision of Deanna Fogliani, produced copy with a minimum of mistakes. Donna Taylor saw to it that pictures had captions. That pages had headlines was taken care of by Linda O'Dell. The business staff, supervised by Miss Baker, kept books and collected accounts. All in all, our "Great White Father" and his partner "Foggy" should be well pleased with the book as a whole.

Division Staffs Handled Sections Well

Returning this year to the traditional divisions, the staff was fortunate to have outstanding and responsible division editors. The opening section and end sheets were organized by Deanna Fogliani; the cover, by Jim Cooper. As faculty editor, Darleen Case successfully and efficiently completed her section on schedule. Terri Laswell filled the job of persuading Seniors to have their pictures taken, turn in their activity sheets, and pay their class dues. Terri and her assistant, Joyce Forbis, also finished ahead of schedule and helped others on their sections. Joe Gregg, besides tabulating the index, had charge of the class section. It was no easy job identifying and arranging the fourteen hundred underclassmen. He was assisted by Sharon McClure and Martha Enke.

"DOWN YOU GO" was the theme of the kick-off assembly, narrated by Dean Hickson. Linda O'Dell, Janice Leonard, Donna Taylor, and Bob Freeland were members of the panel.

The largest sports section ever to appear in an Eastonian was laid out by Jim Cooper and Sharon Haase, then produced by Bob Freeland. Bob, besides being Sports Editor, also edited the Echo and had the honor of editing Homecoming and Sports-days special issues. Bob Campbell was the R.O.T.C. Editor and worked closely with Sgt. Storms, instructor of the East Unit. His knowledge of R.O.T.C. was indispensable. Pat Blakemore, assisted by Bob Schnitker, and Linda Liter, assisted by Donna

Baker, as Organizations and Activities Editors, respectively, worked closely under trying conditions to complete a most difficult job. Both also did many other necessary assignments well. Again, the countless hours outside of school were necessary, but no midnight? sessions were needed. All in all, the staff this year lived up to the expectations of their sponsor, and the tradition of a fine service group was upheld.

THE 1956 EASTONIAN STAFF met before school three days a week. Their activities included helping this year's staff and planning next year's book.

PEANUT BRITTLE, coconut brittle, and snorkels were sold by the staff to help meet yearbook expenses. Contest sides were headed by Sharon McClure, Bob Schnitker, Terri Laswell and Bob Freeland.

THESE BEAUTIFUL GIRLS were ready to leave the Hotel Sheridan for a banquet and dance on the last night of the trip.

N.S.P.A. Convention

Business and Pleasure Combined

THE MINNESOTA MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY was visited by Jeanie Freeman, Janice Leonard, and Linda O'Dell.

A REFRESHING SWIM in Lake Minnetonka was enjoyed by East and Shawnee Mission students.

Boarding the Jefferson Lines bus on August 22 were twenty-one members of the Junior and Senior Eastonian Staffs and sponsor, Mr. Prewitt, and his wife. The destination was Minneapolis, Minnesota, to attend the National Scholastic Press Association Convention.

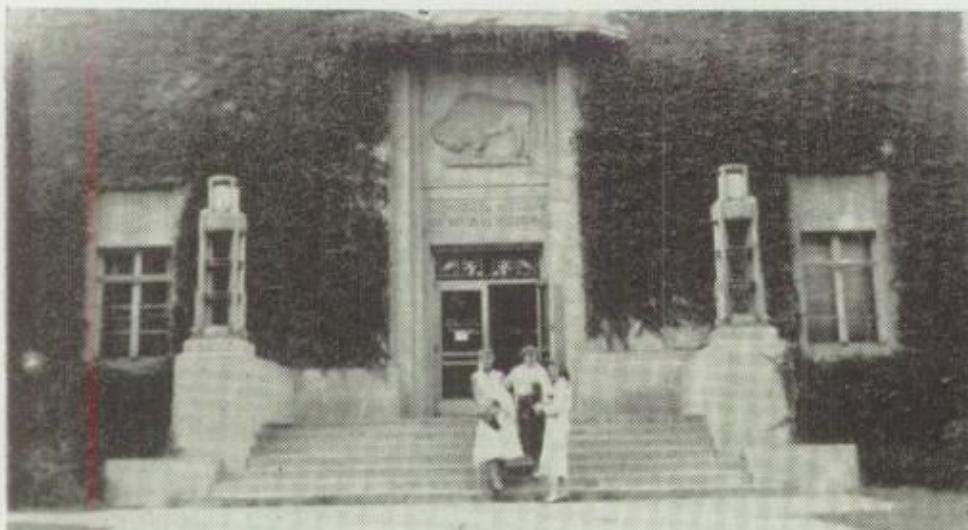

Upon arrival at the University of Minnesota they were shown their living quarters. The girls stayed at the Hotel Sheridan and the boys in a dormitory on campus. The first day consisted of attending classes, examining the shops and stores of Minneapolis, and a square dance that night.

After classes one afternoon, a chartered bus took them and a group from Shawnee Mission to Lake Minnetonka for an enjoyable swim. Later they experienced something quite unusual—the bus drove into a drive-in and they were served their food on the bus. Continuing the excursion they spent the evening at an amusement park.

A semi-formal banquet and dance was held the last night. They arrived home on Friday night, August 26, after having experienced a wonderful time.

AFTER ARRIVAL in Minneapolis, the studying vacationers waited for room assignments.

BEFORE GOING TO CLASSES the girls waited for the boys in front of Centennial Hall, the boys' dormitory.

St. Patrick's Day was the theme of the fourth annual Eastonian Ball held on March 18 in the boys' gym.

Kathy Coats was chosen by a group of outside judges to reign over the dance. Kathy was sponsored by the Leundis Literary Society. The candidates were nominated by various organizations in school and were voted on by those purchasing dance tickets. The four finalists, Kathy Coats, Terri Laswell, Sondra Kiser, and Donna Taylor, were honored at a banquet held on the Warrensburg College campus. There the girls were interviewed and judged on the basis of poise, personality, intelligence, and appearance. The name of the queen was put into a sealed envelope and not opened until the night of the dance by last year's queen, Donna Sue Elleman, who crowned her successor.

Kathy Coats, Eastonian Queen, smiled after she was crowned by last year's queen, Donna Elleman.

Royalty Added Dignity to Homecoming

ROYALTY ON REVIEW. Homecoming Queen, Dolores Hornbuckle, her attendants and their escorts paused momentarily as they were received by the expectant crowd.

Initiated by Eastonian Staff

know this up

"TEAR AND COMPARE," the cigarette slogan, provided Hamilton's idea for comparing the previous scores between East and Westport.

"WE'LL LACE 'EM UP" was the theme of the float entered by Leundis. In the dainty pink bedroom scene a papier-mache girl was grasping a bedpost as a negro mammy maid laced up her girdle.

Homecoming activities began far in advance of the half-time parade on November 5 as plans were started at the first of the football season by the Eastonian Staff. Queen candidates were elected and float ideas came into reality as the event neared.

After the first half of our championship game, the R.O.T.C. Color Guard and our cheerleaders led the parade around the track. Our band provided the peppy music as they marched and later performed by forming and E for East, an A for Alumni, and a W for Westport. Keeping in step to the music was the Pep Club as they preceded the floats. Appearing next in the parade were the queen's attendants, Janice Leonard, Doris Bransteitter, Cecilia Gonzalez, and Linda Liter. The queen, Dolores Hornbuckle, was crowned by Mr. Williams and then retired to her throne for the second half of the game.

"WE'RE FOR THE TEAM" was the yell of the Pep Club and the slogan for their float, which depicted a football field complete with goal-post, football, and players.

Floats were entered by the five literary societies, the Pep Club, Echo and Eastonian Staffs, and the P.-T. A. The theme of the floats was a secret until they started around the track. Judging was done during the parade, and the decision was announced after the third quarter.

White mum corsages, Homecoming penants, and a special edition of the Echo, called the Homecoming Special, also played a large part in the success of Homecoming.

KALAILU'S WINNING FLOAT was "Eat 'Em Up Raw." It depicted a Hawaiian scene complete with palm trees, dancing girl and cannibals, who were anxiously waiting to eat a tiger boiling in a pot.

"DIG THOSE CRAZY CATS," said the Websters on their entry. A paper tiger was peeping out from under a mound of dirt at a large, victorious Bear.

Floats and Danc

DEANNA FOGLIANI AND MARCHETA GOWING graciously accepted the first Homecoming plaque and cup for Kalailu from Jim Cooper, Co-Editor of the Eastonian Staff, who planned the Homecoming activities.

"WE'LL LICK 'EM," announced the Eulexian's float. A candyland of lollypops and candy canes represented their dream of a victory over Westport.

The floats were just a part of the many things that made Homecoming such a success. The dance in the gym provided a perfect place for congratulating the team. Compliments on our first Homecoming were heard in the hall and new wing where old acquaintances were renewed by alumni, faculty, friends, and parents.

The Eastonian Staff, which sponsored the event, is proud of its accomplishment and their only request and wish is that this addition will become a tradition at East.

Added to Homecoming

"ROLL THOSE TIGERS," boasted the Publications Staffs as they attempted to flatten the Westport Tigers with their printing press.

AN ALL-SCHOOL DANCE in the boys' gym climaxed the end of a perfect evening at our first Homecoming.

Acknowledgments

From the Editor's Desk

Dear Jim:

Now that the book is finished, it doesn't seem possible that so much work could be crowded into a period of just a few months. It took a great deal of time, and a lot of tolerance and hard work from every member of the staff, as well as many other people who helped to make our book a reality. We must be sure to thank each of those people who gave so freely of their valuable time and assistance.

You know, Jim, our yearbook wouldn't be possible if it weren't for teachers like Mr. Prewitt, who guides the staff through those hectic years of meeting deadlines; Miss Baker, with her expert record keeping; Mr. Grube and his picture taking; Miss Crawford, for her artistic criticism; and Mr. Williams, for his readiness to allow the staff to carry on their various activities.

Members of the staff who spent countless hours of their time evenings, week ends, and holidays, taking pictures, preparing layouts, writing copy, such as Bob Childs, Dean Hickson, and Rusty Hales, who practically became hermits in that dark room; Sharon Haase with all those layouts; and all the others who served so well, deserve more praise than we can give. Also, the student body, faculty, and parents, all of whom were so wonderful and understanding, made our job more enjoyable and less tedious.

And then there were more people, too, whom you can't see around East, but were nevertheless vital in putting out the Eastonian. Our good friend, Mr. Weyersberg of Rolland Studio, who makes possible so many fine things for us here at East. He and Mr. Foust, his assistant, seem to enjoy helping us in so many ways. And Mr. Ralph Kolb of Burger-Baird Engravers; surely, no one was more tolerant of our many mistakes in preparing the cuts for engraving. Mr. Earl Smith, vice-president of Smith-Grievess Printing Co., took such a personal interest in seeing that we got just what we wanted that it almost seemed as if he were a part of the Eastonian. And finally, there's Bob Ihrig of S. K. Smith Cover Company who was so patient while we made up our minds what cover we wanted. We must write and thank each of them.

Jim, I really did enjoy working with you for the past ten months, even though you were at times provoking. Of course, I never was. And really, all the girls did appreciate their "great white father," even if he did get grouchy at times. We can both be proud of the time and effort we've spent with the staff in preparing the 1955 Eastonian, of which we can all be justly proud.

Deanna

Dear Bill,
I sure have enjoyed your psychology class. I think you're a swell guy and you've enjoyed this year. You know a few things about me. I'll always do fine in all the luck and undertake in years to come.
Your friend
Barbara

Dear Bill,
I have enjoyed being in your Psychology class with you and I want to wish you the best of luck in next year at East. I will probably see you around during the summer since we have so close a friend.

THE FAMILIAR EVERYDAY EVENTS at East include the bustle and jumble of the breaks between classes and mad rush to the Cafeteria at lunch. A favorite of everyone is the gathering of the entire student body in the auditorium while Mr. Williams presides over another assembly.

The difficult grind of rehearsal combined with the memorizing of lines and special attention necessary for the details of costume and scenery all contribute to success. The Drama Class submits the SPRING PLAY, their addition to the year's activities.

Highpoint of the Intersociety Year, THE LIT CONTEST, is presented annually in a colorful parade of new jackets. The importance of the "big night" is reflected in the nervousness of the representatives, the anxiety of the members, and the joy in the shouts of the winners.

TRACK is the smell of liniment and bark of the starter's gun in air heavy with excitement. It is the thrill of another victory as the cinders fly beneath pounding feet and the final lunge of a straining chest as it snaps the tape.

Standout events of the past and a glimpse of the possibilities of the future are disclosed in THE SENIOR ASSEMBLY. This is the final display of the talent of the Senior Class.

The presentation of NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP, the highest honor that can be awarded to a senior, is prominent among the assemblies of the year. As freshmen, students begin working for this distinction based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Highlighting the remaining days at East is the DISTRIBUTION OF THE EASTONIAN, enthusiastically awaited by all. This is suitable reward for the supreme effort of the staff and a time of signing parties, for a few lines written by classmates adds a completing personal touch.

Soft music and the swirl of stylish formals set the mood for the most outstanding dance of the year—THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM. It is an appropriate finale to the varied social activities of the Senior Year.

The cap and gown symbolizes the dignity and importance of the occasion. The diploma represents a way of life—four years of study and problems, fun and laughter. GRADUATION is the end of high school life and yet a beginning.
